A. R. P. Circles January Meetings

The January meetings of the circles of the Associate Reform Presbyterian Church were held on Monday.

In the afternoon Mrs. John Carter was hostess to circle No. 1 with Mrs. A. B. Blakely leading the Spiritual Life program. Several members discussed articles from the Synodical Journal. Later Mrs. Carter served fruit cake, nuts and punch.

The evening group met at the home of Mrs. George Thompson Copeland, Mrs. C. Bynum Betts, assisted by Mrs. Marion Nabors, Mrs. James P. Sloan and Mrs. J. P. Johnston, presented the program. During a social hour following the business session refreshments were served.

Prevatte Home Scene Of Holiday Parties

During the holiday season Mr. and Mrs. Ted Prevatte were hostess to groups of friends on two occasions for coffee, at their home on Musgrove Street.

About 40 guests were invited for the delightfully informal events. Seasonal decorations were used in the living and dining rooms where a table was appointed to serve coffee, sandwiches, cookies and other dainties.

The staff of radio station WPOC and their families enjoyed a party at the Prevatte home. Gifts were exchanged and a number of appropriate games played. Later in the evening refreshments were served in buffet style from the dining table prettily adorned in a seasonal motif.

W. G. King, Jr., Home Scene of Drop-In

Enjoyable among social events of the New Year season was the drop in given on Tuesday evening of the past week by Mr. and Mrs. W. G. King, Jr., at their home on Chestnut Street.

A number of friends were entertained throughout the receiving rooms with a buffet refreshment table being appointed in the dining room. Gold fruit and candle formed the centerpiece for the table and elsewhere the New Year motif was effected with candles and bells in green and gold.

Assisting in serving and entertaining were Mr. and Mrs. W. G. King, Mr. and Mrs. Gene King, The hosts' sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Cruickshanks of Alachua, Fla., were honored guests for the occasion.

Also assisting were Kristi and Jan King and Sandy Cruickshanks.

MRS. ADDY

SON OF CLINTON NATIVES WEDS LAKELAND GIRL IN BAPTIST RITES

In a double ring ceremony Friday evening December 18, at 7:30 o'clock Miss Jeanne Gallman became the bride of George A. Addy at Eastside Baptist Church, Lakeland, Fla. The Rev. J. M. Schultz performed the marriage in a candlelight illuminated setting of palms, baskets of white magnolia leaves, triple poinsettias and seven-branched candelabra.

Parents of the bride are Major and Mrs. H. E. Gallman, 146 Mocking Bird Lane, Lakeland, and Mr. Addy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Addy, 2504 East Peachtree St., Lakeland. They are both graduates of Lakeland High School. He is a graduate of Florida Southern College, and she attended Limestone College, Gaffney.

A program of traditional wedding music was presented by Mrs. Patricia Mills, soloist, and Miss Judi Sullivan, organist.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a formal taffeta gown with a fitted basque bodice, a scooped neckline, and a re-embroidered Alencon lace encrusted with sequins and seed pearls, and full length sleeves. Her bouffant skirt, which extended into a 'Cottillon' train, was also applied with lace, seed pearls and sequins. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a cap of lace, and her bridal bouquet was a cascade arrangement of white orchids and lilies of the valley.

Miss Cheryl Holloman of Gaffney, maid of honor, wore a formal gown of frost green taffeta with a scoop neckline outlined with shirred taffeta and a full skirt with an overskirt of matching net. She wore a small bow hat of matching taffeta and brief white gloves. She carried a nosegay of red poinsettias sprinkled with glitter, nestled in a red net and tied with satin ribbon.

Gowns and accessories of Miss Gwen Barnes and Miss Jo Ann Powell, bridesmaids, were identical to those of the honor attendant.

The bride's mother wore a sheath dress of rose and white brocade, and the bridegroom's mother chose a light blue dress of embroidered dactron with full skirt. Both mothers chose accessories to match their dresses and wore white orchid corsages.

Bill Melin of Polk City, was best man. Groomsmen were Jimmy Addy of Laurens, and Willie Prescott of Lakeland. Bill Crawford of Lakeland, and Arlie Powell of Bowling Green, were ushers.

A reception was held at the Tuesday Music Club building. A tiered wedding cake was centered on a circular table covered with a white satin cloth overlaid with tiers of net. The punch table was covered with a white satin cloth and held appointments of silver and crystal.

Among those assisting at the reception was Mrs. James Addy of Laurens.

When the couple left for a wedding trip the bride was wearing a coral and gray wool suit with matching accessories and the orchids from her bouquet.

When they return the newlyweds will live in their new home at 2503 Cetra Ct. Mrs. Addy is employed in the purchasing department of the city hall, and Mr. Addy is an accountant with Kraft Foods.

Among out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Addy and son, Jimmy, of Laurens.
