JOYOUS CHRISTMAS AT COUNTY HOME

The Board of County Commissioners, along with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cole, Superintendent of the County Home, would like to thank all the kind people of Laurens County who had a part in making Christmas for the inmates at the County Home a joyous occasion.

I have never experienced a more touching occasion than when the other two Commissioners and myself went to the home on Christmas eve and found Santa Claus standing by the tree that was surrounded with gifts of all kinds that had been sent by groups and individuals from all areas of the county. I felt that surely Laurens County must have the best people in the world. It was indeed proof that the spirit of Christ still prevails in the world.

So, to each of you that had a part in bringing a little sunshine to these unfortunate people, I want to, along with the Commissioners and Mr. and Mrs. Cole, say "Thank You."

FURMAN E. THOMPSON, Supervisor.

It is absolutely necessary that all taxpayers make returns this year on personal property, transfers and new buildings. This includes all those who own automobiles and those who are subject to poll tax. All male citizens between the ages of 21 and 60 years are subject to poll tax. The only personal property exempt from taxes is the household furniture used in your own home.

If it is not convenient to come to the County Auditor's office in the court house, please meet me at one of the above places.
