Miss Shirley League Honored On Birthday

Miss Shirley League, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill League, who observed a birthday January 22 was honored with a party on Saturday evening at the Lydia Community Center.

Decorating the living room were gladioli, berries and greenery. In keeping with the birthday motif, a pink and green color note was carried out in appointments for the dining room where guests were invited for refreshments of sandwiches, cake and other party dainties served in buffet style. Pink ribbon streamers adorned the white linen cover and in the center of the table silver candelabra holding pink tapers flanked a bouquet of pink gladioli, white carnations and greenery. At one end was the lighted birthday cake and at the other the punch bowl.

Dancing was enjoyed by the 20 guests attending and Shirley was remembered with a number of gifts. Assisting Mr. and Mrs. League in entertaining and serving were Mrs. Grace League Conner, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Huffstetter.

Gardenettes Select Officers For Year

At a business meeting on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Milford Smith the Gardenettes elected new officers for the coming year beginning in April. Serving as co-hostess with Mrs. Smith was Mrs. Sammie Pinson.

Officers elected were as follows: President — Mrs. R. L. Plaxico, Jr. Vice President — Mrs. Carl Westinger. Secretary — Mrs. Joe Edwards. Treasurer — Mrs. T. M. Youngblood.

During a social hour held later in the afternoon a refreshment course was served. Artistically arrayed to decorate the hostess' home for the occasion were colorful fruits and greens.

"House Plants" Is Topic of Program

Meeting at the home of Mrs. C. C. Giles on Monday afternoon, members of the Sunbonnet Garden Club heard a program on house plants presented by Mrs. M. L. Robertson and Mrs. Howard Smith.

Members also brought plants which were exchanged. Following the business session a social hour was enjoyed. Assisting Mrs. Giles in serving sandwiches, cookies, nuts and coffee were the joint hostesses, Mrs. George C. Bellingrath and Mrs. Frank Miller.

Dr. Lee Blakely Weds Pennsylvania Girl In Ceremony January 2

Miss Louise Irmgard Katz and Dr. Lee Ad Blakely were married on the afternoon of Saturday, January 2 in the First Lutheran Church of Collingdale, Pa.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Karl F. Katz of 304 Wolfenden Blakely of this city. The Rev. Dr. Henry Hodel performed the ceremony. Mrs. Hodel was the organist.

After a reception in the Alpine Inn, Springfield, the newlyweds left for Williamsburg, Va. They will live in Washington, D. C.

Mr. Katz gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a princess gown of satin brocade with long sleeves and a chapel length train. A rhinestone tiara held her elbow length veil, and she carried an old fashioned bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. Kurt Katz, of Wilmington, Del., sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. Her tangerine crystal cloth dress was complimented by an old-fashioned bouquet of white carnations.

Bridesmaids were Miss Marilyn Keller, of Elmira, N. Y., and Mrs. Harvey Bixby, of Morton, Pa. They wore open blue crystal cloth dresses and carried bouquets identical with that of the honor attendant.

Guy S. Blakely, of Charleston, was his brother's best man. Dr. Edwin Whiteford, of Whiteford, Md., and Dr. Donald Mitchell, of Washington, D. C., ushered.

The bride was graduated from Collingdale High School and from the Philadelphia General Hospital School of Nursing. Dr. Blakely is an alumnus of Georgia Military Academy, Presbyterian College and the Bowman Gray School of Medicine, and is presently a resident at the Walter Reed Army Medical Center.

Dessert Bridge On Thursday For Club

A dessert bridge was given on Thursday by Mrs. Perry M. Moore for members of her club.

Mrs. Reid Hostess For Garden Club Meet

Mrs. George Reid was hostess to members of the Carolina Wren and Clara Duckett Garden clubs on Monday afternoon at her new home on the Whitmire highway.

Red nandina berries were beautifully arranged with life size birds and peppermint carnations and white snapdragons in an antique satin container decorated the living room. In the den-dining room pink grapes and pink gladioli were used.

Mrs. S. W. Sumerel gave an interesting program on Iris. The devotion was given by the president, Miss Margaret Blakely.

Later the hostess and assistant hostesses, Miss Ruth Bailey, Mrs. C. W. Cooper and Mrs. W. C. Baldwin, served sandwiches, cookies and hot tea.

Present Program To Residents at Home

A program on birds was given by Mrs. Henderson Pitts when members of the Yellow Jasmine Club met on Monday afternoon in the chapel of the Laurens County Home.

Preceding the program members held a business session and later residents were invited to participate. Mrs. William Johnson, president, presided and Mrs. Judson Brehmer gave the devotional. Members and residents joined in the singing of hymns with Mrs. Don Creighton at the piano. Following her talk on birds Mrs. Pitts presented a parakeet and cage to the home on behalf of the club. Members also carried dish gardens for the home.

The hostesses, Mrs. R. M. League, Mrs. W. G. King and Mrs. W. C. Shealy, served members and their guests sandwiches, cookies, candies and cold drinks.

Telephone Talk By T. M. YOUNGBLOOD Your Telephone Manager

HOW MANY OF YOU FOLKS got extension phones for Christmas? Are you enjoying them? I should think you're wondering by now how you ever got along without one. Perhaps yours is in the bedroom where you spend about a third of your life. Or the kitchen where you're cooking, the den where you're enjoying the family while the children study their lessons. Wherever it is, it's probably just a lazy reach away. I'm hoping you'll like it so much you'll want another real soon. Whenever you have to think up something different for a present, just remember how much an extension phone will please.

"How does it feel to be a retired operator?"

MOST FOLKS who work for the telephone company do so for many, many years. After working for the company 21 years or more, these folks are eligible to join a fine club—the Telephone Pioneers of America. Today there are almost 200,000 members throughout the United States and Canada. They have a lot of fun at their parties, work hard to promote community undertakings, and find companionship in talking over old times.

When winter weather doesn't permit the trip you planned, why not let Long Distance make it for you? It's quick, easy and economical.
