Gardenette Members Design Unusual Hats

Hats fashioned of flowers, fruits or vegetables were worn by the Gardenettes at their February meeting held on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ralph Tedards.

The creations were judged with places being awarded: Mrs. Robert Strook for her hat designed of purple cabbage and radishes; Mrs. Marvin Gault who wore a hat of variegated camellias; Mrs. Dan Orr for her hat fashioned of lettuce, oranges and carrots; Mrs. A. C. Workman, Jr., for her design in jonquils, green net and nuts.

Pictures were made during the showings and the hats were on display following the meeting at the Ladies Shop.

Later in the afternoon refreshments were served. A gift was presented to Mrs. Workman who is the retiring president.

Sunbonnet Club Sees Slides of Gardens

Colored slides of Middleton, Magnolia, Cypress and other famous South Carolina gardens were shown by Dr. Marshall W. Brown on Monday afternoon to members of the Sunbonnet Garden Club. Dr. Brown told something of the history of each of the gardens and also included several North Carolina gardens.

Mrs. Brown and Miss Marion Burts were hostesses for the meeting which was held at the home of the former. Following the program they served coffee, sandwiches, cheese straws and sweets.

Mrs. Ben Hammet, Mrs. A. C. Young and Mrs. John T. Young were guests of the club for the meeting.

Dessert Bridge Given For Club

Mr. and Mrs. Bailey Dixon entertained members of their card club for a dessert bridge on Saturday evening.

A sweet course was served when the guests assembled and a number of progressions were enjoyed. Two tables were in play with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sherrill making top score.

Greenery with other seasonal arrangements made a pretty background for cards.

Joint Hostesses Entertain Friends With Informal Parties

Mrs. W. P. Jacobs, 3rd, Mrs. C. E. Law, and Mrs. W. M. Shields jointly entertained friends with informal parties the past week.

On Wednesday morning a number of guests were invited for coffee. Mrs. David S. Cook assisted the hostesses in entertaining in the living room and Mrs. W. R. Turner poured coffee.

For the afternoon drop-in, assisting were Mrs. Harry McSweeney, Mrs. H. F. Lowman and Mrs. Reese H. Young with Mrs. Hugh S. Jacobs pouring coffee.

On each occasion a delightful informal hour of conversation was enjoyed and refreshments of fancy and open faced sandwiches served with other party dainties and sweets. White tapers burned in triple silver candelabra on either side of red carnations arranged with fern in a silver bowl to center the buffet refreshment table in the dining room. A white cut work cloth overlaid the table.

In the living room were bouquets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums accented with red and a silver tray of red camellias. Pink quince and gladioli adorned the den.

New Officers Are Installed For Garden Club

Newly elected officers for the 1960-61 session beginning in April were installed at the February meeting of the Clara Duckett and Carolina Wrenn Garden Clubs held on Monday afternoon at the Lydia Community Center.

Camellias with mixed bouquets of early spring flowers decorated the club rooms.

D. A. Yarborough showed pictures of interest to the group which were taken on a trip to the West Coast and Canada.

Officers installed were Mrs. Fred Holcombe, president; Mrs. Gary Holcombe, vice-president; and Mrs. J. C. Thomas, secretary and treasurer.

Sandwiches, nuts, cake and other party dainties were served with Russian tea during a social hour. Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Joe Leake, Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. R. S. Truluck, Mrs. Guy Copeland, Mrs. S. W. Sumerel and Mrs. Fred Holcombe.

Baptist Choir Honors Miss Maude Sumerel, Retiring Organist

The members of the adult choir of the First Baptist Church complimented Miss Maude Sumerel, retiring organist with a drop-in following prayer services on Wednesday evening, February 17, at the parsonage.

Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Darr and Miss Sumerel greeted the guests as they entered. After members had arrived Mrs. Darr pinned a lovely pink corsage of carnations on "Miss Maude" as honor guest.

On behalf of the members of the choir, the choir president, Edward Perry, presented Miss Sumerel with an electric blanket as an expression of appreciation. In making the presentation he said, "This is an expression of our sincere love for you as an individual and our high esteem of your faithfulness to the choir which you have served loyally for many, many years."

Mrs. T. L. W. Bailey invited the guests into the dining room where Mrs. S. W. Sumerel poured coffee. Mrs. Frank Fowler assisted in serving cake, nuts and mints. The table was beautifully laid with an exquisite cloth of hand-made lace blocked with hand-embroidered linen. In the center was a large arrangement of gladioli, snapdragons, carnations and fern in a silver container. On either side were three-pronged silver candelabra matching the coffee service.

Throughout the receiving rooms were arrangements of jonquils, carnations, flowering quince and camellias.

Family Gatherings Held For Mr. Owens

A number of family gatherings during the week honored Edgar Owens, of Greenville, Wis., who was here to visit his sister, Mrs. R. E. Sadler and other relatives.

Joining local relatives on Monday evening were Mrs. W. M. Scott and Mrs. Ben Martin, of Easley, for an old fashioned supper at the home of Mrs. Sadler. The theme was further carried out by the hostess' granddaughter, Julia Sadler, who assisted in serving dressed in a white satin dress which had been in the trousseau of her great-grandmother, the late Mrs. W. E. Owens, nee Mary Bailey.

Other, smaller informal gatherings were held for Mr. Owens and on Sunday Mrs. William Bailey Owens and Miss Nancy Owens entertained the family for the smorgasbord dinner at the Hotel Mary Musgrove. Billy Owens and daughter, Charlotte, of Atlanta, were out-of-town guests for this occasion.

Denise Wolfe Has Birthday

Celebrating her fourth birthday which occurred February 11, Denise Wolfe entertained her little playmates at the Episcopal Nursery School on Friday following with a Valentine party.

The seasonal motif was carried out in decorations and favors were baskets of candy hearts. The blue and white birthday cake decorated in the nursery rhyme theme of "Mary Had A Little Lamb," was cut and served with punch and ice cream.

Denise is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Wolfe.

Hunter-Blanchard Rites In Laurens

Miss Lucile Gray Hunter, of Laurens, and Harvey Franklin Blanchard, Jr., of Fayetteville, N. C., were married February 12 at the home of her grandfather, H. Douglas Gray, on S. Harper St., Laurens, with the Rev. Chalmers F. McCutchen officiating. Mrs. Blanchard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Hunter, Jr., attended Laurens High School. Mr. Blanchard, whose parents live in Fayetteville, N. C., is a junior at Presbyterian College.

Mrs. Brehmer Head Yellow Jasmine Club

The regular monthly meeting of the Yellow Jasmine Garden Club was held on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. T. Thomason with Mrs. John Madden as co-hostess.

Mrs. W. C. Shealy gave the devotional and during a business session the following new officers were elected:

President—Mrs. Judson Brehmer. Vice-President—Mrs. Joel Cannon.

Secretary—Mrs. John Madden. Treasurer—Mrs. Don Creighton.

Mrs. Creighton introduced Mrs. Harry Wilkes, guest speaker, to the group. Mrs. Wilkes gave the history of ceramics and demonstrated by making a bowl. She also showed other ceramics which she had previously made.

A social hour and refreshments were enjoyed at the close of the afternoon.

Mrs. Smith Head Garden Club Council

The nomination of new officers and beautification plans for the city were the main features of business for the meeting of the Clinton Garden Clubs Council held on Tuesday morning of the past week at the home of Mrs. F. V. Smith.

The following slate of officers was confirmed on Monday afternoon by the clubs at their individual meetings:

President—Mrs. Howard Smith. Vice-President—Mrs. Marvin Gault.

Secretary-Treasurer—Mrs. R. L. Plaxico, Jr.

Mrs. Frank Jones is retiring president. Committees will be appointed by the incoming president with installation to take place at the general meeting of the clubs on March 14.

Plans were discussed for landscaping entrance points to the city with planting for several to begin immediately. In addition to the beautification project the council will also sell bird feeders as a fund-raising project.

A new club, the Iris Garden Club, headed by Mrs. Earl Rice as president, was welcomed into the council.

During the meeting the hostess served coffee and donuts.
