PC Tennis Team Heads for Florida

The Presbyterian College tennis team will head South this Saturday for a three-match tour of Florida that will open the 1960 season and bring the Hosemen into competition with the nationally ranked University of Miami squad.

Coach Jim Leighton is scheduled to meet his first opponent at Tallahassee next Monday in matching strokes with Florida State University. His squad will tangle with a strong University of Florida crew next Wednesday before moving on down for the toughest test of all against Miami the following Friday.

The Blue Hose are led this year by Harry Hoffman, team captain and ace number one man who completes an outstanding career at PC this year. Coach Leighton feels he will have a more experienced squad than last year, when one-half of his squad was composed of freshmen. He misses the graduated Jim Shakespeare, although his replacement at the number two spot is an unusually fine freshman prospect named Tony Wilson.

The remainder of the squad is composed of a talented array of sophomores: Dave Greenblade, Tom Elliott, Crighton Frampton, Ed Caviness, and Walter Stone.
