Mrs. Rhame Hostess To Club Members

Mrs. D. O. Rhame was hostess to members of her bridge club on Thursday afternoon at her home on West Walnut Street.

Azaleas and other seasonal arrangements were used in decoration for the card rooms. After play the two tables were appointed for a salad course. Prizes went to Mrs. H. L. Eichelberger, Mrs. H. M. Wise, and Mrs. J. M. Oeland, a club visitor.

Mrs. Copeland Heads Ladies Golf Assoc.

At a recent meeting of the Ladies' Golf Association of Lakeside Country Club, Mrs. Carroll White Copeland was elected to serve as president for the coming year.

Other officers elected were Mrs. Edwin A. Farnell, treasurer; and Mrs. C. E. King, secretary.

The association holds luncheon meetings the first and third Tuesdays of each month.

Bride-Elect Honored With Party Saturday

In compliment to Miss Margaret Ann Bolick whose engagement to Herbert Glennie Tarbox, Jr., of Georgetown, has recently been announced, Mrs. Robert M. Vance entertained with a bridge party on Saturday afternoon.

Attending from Winthrop were Misses Betty Jo Goodman, of Hartsville; Sally Schumpert, of Cheraw; Janice Timmons, of Newberry; Miss Lillian Hart and Miss Florence Winn, who were at home from Agnes Scott College, Decatur, Ga.; Miss Anne Baker of Limestone College, and other local friends made up the guest list.

Spring arrangements featuring daffodils and quince formed a background for the four tables in play. For the serving of a salad course following the games each table was centered with a grouping of four pastel bridesmaids holding mints. These were given as party favors. The bride-elect's mother and grandmother, Mrs. Julian S. Bolick and Mrs. A. K. Dill, were invited to join the group for refreshments. Mrs. Caldwell Henderson, Mrs. George Cornelison and Mary Bailey Vance assisted in serving.

Score prizes went to Misses Barbara Roberts and Julie Bolick. The bride-elect was presented with a corsage and a gift from the hostess.

Gadsden Girl Is Bride of Former Clintonian

Gadsden, Ala.—A wedding of unusual beauty and simplicity was solemnized in Central Methodist Church in Gadsden, Ala., at 10:30 Saturday morning, March 12, when Miss Martha Rose Hanson, of Gadsden, and Milton Barrett Barden, of Boone, N. C., were married.

Dr. John G. Barden, father of the bridegroom, assisted by Rev. O. S. Gamble, pastor of the bride, officiated.

The church formed a lovely background for the bridal party with the green palms and ferns and tall baskets of white gladioli and asters inside the chancel. Two standards of white cathedral candles were used.

Prior to the ceremony a program of wedding music was rendered by Miss Lou Ellen Strain, organist, and Mrs. William Keener, vocalist.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. Daniel Westcott and the late John H. Hanson, was given in marriage by her step-father, Daniel A. Westcott.

She wore a fitted street-length beige suit with a bronze orchid. Miss Dianne Hanson attended her sister as maid of honor. She wore a powder blue suit with corsage of white carnations. Little Miss Susan Westcott, younger sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. She wore white organdy and carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations.

Rev. Lawrence E. Barden, of Pelham, N. C., was his brother's best man. Lawrence Weeks, Jr., of Gadsden, ushered. The impressive double ring ceremony was used.

Mrs. Barden is a graduate of Birmingham-Southern College and is now attending Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tenn., where she plans to receive the Master of Arts degree in June. Mr. Barden is a graduate of Pfeiffer College at Misenheimer, N. C., and is now teaching science in the Madison Senior High School, Madison, Tenn.

Following the ceremony, the parents of the bride entertained at a wedding breakfast at their home.

After a short honeymoon, the couple will be at home at 303 E. Due West Ave., Madison, Tenn.

PC Graduate, Rock Hill Girl Be Wed In June

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Patsy Lou Rawls, of Rock Hill, to Robert Smith Dowdle, of Clinton and Rock Hill. The wedding will take place Saturday, June 18, at Mount Holly Methodist Church, Rock Hill.

Miss Rawls is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Love Rawls, of Rt. 5. She is a secretary for Rock Hill Printing and Finishing Company, having attended Winthrop College.

The son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Smith Dowdle, Mr. Dowdle was graduated from Presbyterian College. He is employed by Fulbright Laboratories in Charlotte.

Cornelisons Entertain Bridge Club Members

Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. George Cornelison were hosts to their dessert bridge club, assembling players for three tables.

Bowls of jonquils adorned the card rooms. Following the serving of a sweet course several progressions were enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Bailey Dixon received high score prize.

Dessert Bridge Given For Club

Thursday afternoon Mrs. Howard Smith entertained members of her card club for a dessert bridge. Two tables were appointed for refreshments and a sweet course was served when the guests arrived.

Following the progressions high score award was presented Mrs. Wilmot Shealy.

Daffodils arranged with greenery made a pretty setting for the games.

St. Patrick's Day Theme Is Carried Out For Luncheon

Carrying out a St. Patrick's Day theme, Mrs. Leonard Wilson, Mrs. Robert W. Anderson and Mrs. Ed Sadler beautifully entertained with a luncheon on Thursday at the Mary Musgrove Hotel.

A green shamrock on the buffet table was flanked on either side by white floral arrangements. About 90 guests were seated at tables in groupings of eight. These were appointed with ivy and tiny shamrocks which were at each place as favors. The menu also carried out the chosen party motif.

MRS. GOING

HAUPFEAR-GOING VOWS SPOKEN IN CHAPEL OF GREENVILLE CHURCH

In vows spoken in the chapel of the First Presbyterian Church of Greenville on Saturday afternoon, March 19, at 5 o'clock, Miss Dorothy Louise Hauptfear of this city became the bride of Dr. Oliver McPherson Going of Greenville and West Virginia.

Dr. C. Newman Faulconer officiated, and Mrs. James Pitts of this city presented organ music. Oliver Hauptfear of Washington, D. C., ushered, along with Thomas Davis of Columbia, the groom's cousin. Mr. Hauptfear and the bride are the son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Oliver Hauptfear of Rt. 2, Clinton.

Dr. Going, son of Oliver Francis Going of 705 McDaniel Ave., Greenville, and the late Mrs. Going, was attended by his father. Miss Gladys Going, the groom's sister, was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Linda Hauptfear of Clinton, the bride's sister, and Miss Lynn Johnson, the groom's cousin. They wore daytime-length bluebird taffeta dresses fashioned with tulip neckline, short sleeves and pleated cummerbund with a bow at the waist. Their bouquets of yellow rosebuds were centered with blue iris. Each attendant wore short white gloves and a petaled bandeaux and veil to match her dress.

Wearing Chantilly lace and silk taffeta the bride was escorted by her father. The lace bodice of her dress was made with scalloped sabrina neckline, and the full taffeta skirt featured folds of the material gathered into a bustle effect above a chapel train.

Her mantilla-style fingertip veil was edged with scalloped lace, and she carried a bouquet of rosebuds centered with gardenias and valley lilies.

For a trip to Florida, after a church reception, she had selected a mid-green suit with beige accessories.

The couple will live in West Virginia where Dr. Going is a staff doctor for the Miners Memorial Hospital Association. He attended Clemson, after graduating from Greenville schools, and received his BA degree from the University of Virginia. He did post-graduate work at the University of Alabama and earned a doctor of medicine degree from the Medical College of South Carolina.

His wife is a registered nurse, having been graduated from Clinton High School and Greenville General Hospital School of Nursing. She had been serving on the staff of the Joanna Memorial Hospital at Joanna.

TB Association Directors To Meet
