Steve Richey Dies When Hit By Auto Saturday Night

James Steven (Steve) Richey, 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Richey of Lydia Mill, was fatally injured Saturday night when struck by an automobile.

Investigating officers said the child had crossed the street from the church to a store to buy candy. The accident occurred about 9:45 p. m.

He was rushed to Hays Hospital where he died shortly after arrival. Sheriff C. W. Wier said the driver of the car, Woodrow Hanley, 52, of Beauregard St., Clinton, was placed under "technical arrest" and released pending an inquest. Acting Coroner Sam McCrary, of Clinton, empaneled a jury to view the body and announced that an inquest will be held.

Steve attended Lydia Mill Pentecostal Holiness Church, was a member of the Sunday School and attended Lydia Mill Kindergarten.

Surviving, in addition to his parents, are his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James N. Richey, of Lydia Mill, and Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Pierce, of Clinton; a great-grandmother, Mrs. Homer Richey, of Lydia Mill, and a great-grandfather, N. W. Medlock, of Brooklet, Ga.

Funeral services were conducted Monday at 5 p. m. at Lydia Mill Pentecostal Holiness Church by the Rev. James R. Bryan and the Rev. I. H. Webb. Burial was in Rosemont Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Bruce Bagwell, Edmond Blackwell, Jessie Abercrombie and Oliver Smith.

Sen. Thurmond Is Speaker For PC Alumni Banquet

Senator Strom Thurmond will deliver the main address at Presbyterian College's Alumni banquet on June 4, President Marshall W. Brown announced today.

The banquet, scheduled for the PC dining hall that night, will be the highlight of the newly inaugurated Alumni Reunion program at Presbyterian College. Class reunions and other alumni activities previously held during the fall Homecoming are being shifted to the commencement season, beginning this year.

As announced earlier, the schedule of PC's 1960 graduating exercises calls for the baccalaureate sermon on June 5 and final commencement program on June 6.

Presbyterian alumni will arrive on the campus one day early, on Saturday afternoon, for the Alumni Reunion program. Some are expected to remain over for the commencement exercises.

Senator Thurmond, junior senator from South Carolina, former governor and a close friend of PC for the past decade, will be awarded an honorary doctor of laws degree at the college's 79th commencement program in June. He has had an outstanding career in military service and politics, and he carried four states as the 1948 presidential candidate of the States' Rights Democratic party.

Four CHS Seniors To Receive Winthrop Scholarships

Four senior girls of Clinton High School have been notified by Winthrop College that they have been selected as recipients of Alumnae Honor Scholarships.

Those girls to receive the scholarships for the 1960-61 school year at Winthrop are Lena Copeland and Sylvia King of Clinton; Pat Jacks of Mountville; and Claire Smith of Kinards.

The selection of scholarship winners is based on the student's high school achievements.

This year Lena serves as secretary-treasurer of the Block C Club and secretary and representative-at-large of the student council. She is also typist for The Sentinel, a solicitor for The Clintonian, and a senior class beauty. As a sophomore, she was homeroom president and class vice-president. She has been a cheerleader since her freshman year.

Pat, who was elected Miss CHS this year, has been class secretary her junior and senior years. She was homeroom secretary as a freshman and homeroom president as a junior. During her freshman and sophomore years Pat was a member of the JCL, and during her junior year she was a National Honor Society and a Beta Club member. Serving as classes editor of the annual this year, Pat is eligible for an Old English C.

As a freshman and sophomore, Sylvia was a member of the Tri-Hi-Y, JCL, and JHA, of which she was treasurer her sophomore year. Last year she was a member of the FBLA and the Beta Club, and last summer she attended Girls' State. This year Sylvia is secretary of the Beta Club and a member of the National Honor Society. For her work as assistant business manager of the annual, she is also eligible for an Old English C.

Claire, who was chosen class historian by the senior class members, has been a member of the National Honor Society and the Beta Club this year. By being co-literary editor of The Clintonian, she will receive an Old English C. Claire has served as junior marshal, secretary of the JHA, and reporter for The Sentinel. She has also been a homeroom officer, a member of the JCL and a member of the junior and senior class plays.

Victim of Soviet and Nazi Persecution Speaks Here

A European educator and author who survived Russian persecution will address the Presbyterian College student body on world communism here next Wednesday.

He is Dr. Karlis Leyasmeyer, a native Latvian and first-hand authority on the Soviet system, communist strategy and world problems. His topic for the 10 a. m. lecture in Neville Hall auditorium will be "The Fateful Problems of the Atomic Age."

Dr. Leyasmeyer lived in Russia throughout his youth, saw the Communist revolution in 1917 and subsequent events. Afterwards he returned to independent Latvia and earned both undergraduate and graduate degrees from the University of Latvia.

He knows by personal experience Communist and Nazi persecution. In 1941 he was arrested by the Communists, sentenced to die and faced their firing squad but miraculously escaped death. He later survived the Nazi ordeals.

Since 1930 Dr. Leyasmeyer has been editor of educational and scientific magazines, taught philosophy and political science in institutions of higher learning and lectured throughout Europe and this country. He is now a citizen of the United States.

His lectures, under the sponsorship of International Christian Leadership, Inc., have been acclaimed by more than 300 colleges and universities of this country and over 1,600 civic audiences.
