Clinton Music Club To Hold Spring Bazaar Wednesday, May 4

A special feature of the Clinton Music Club's May meeting next Wednesday afternoon will be a Spring Bazaar sponsored by members and open to the public.

The bazaar, to feature homemade baked goods, "White Elephants" donated by individuals, will be held at the Douglas House on the Presbyterian College campus, and will be opened at 3 p. m. Proceeds will go to scholarship funds for worthy young musicians.

Following the sale a number of Clinton's own young musicians will be heard in a short recital and presented by their teachers: Mrs. James Von Hollen, Mrs. Robert F. Black, Mrs. Ralph Bozard, Mrs. E. C. Bunker, Mrs. James Pitts, Miss Luva McDonald, Mrs. J. P. Johnston, Mrs. Harry McSweeney and Mrs. Eva Land.

Club members will bring guests to this meeting and special guests will be the parents of the participating pupils.

In charge of the bazaar and bake sale are Mrs. Edwin A. Farnell, chairman, Mrs. Judson Davis, Mrs. Paul Muller and Mrs. James L. Walker.

Episcopal Women Honor The Rivers With Reception

A reception honoring the Rev. and Mrs. John Rivers was given by the Women of the Church of All Saints Episcopal Church on Monday evening. The Rivers have recently moved to Clinton from Hampton and he has assumed the pastorate of the church.

Iris and tulips predominated in spring floral arrangements decorating the Parish house where the reception was held.

Receiving with the honor guests were Mrs. Michael Turner, president of the women's organization, and Dr. E. N. Sullivan, senior warden of the vestry. Special guests for the occasion were the Rev. and Mrs. Giles Lewis, of Laurens, formerly of Clinton.

Mrs. R. B. Hellams poured coffee at the table beautifully appointed with a white linen cover. Silver candelabra holding white lighted tapers and crystal vases in epergne effect with narcissus, tulips, and lilies were placed at either end of the table with the silver service in the center. Sandwiches, cakes and nuts were served with the coffee.

ARP Bible Class Continues Study

Continuing the study of the year-book, "I'd Be Young," Mrs. Dewey Oxner discussed the chapter, "I'd Claim My Own" for the April meeting of the Ladies Bible class held on Monday evening at the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church.

Later during a social hour the hostesses, Mrs. Lowery Wilson, Mrs. Grier Todd and Mrs. Ted Prevatte, served punch, sandwiches and sweets.

Dessert Bridge Given For Club

Mrs. Sammie Pinson gave a dessert bridge for members of her Wednesday club at her home on Elm Street last week.

Violets and other seasonal arrangements made a pretty setting for the two tables. Following refreshments a number of progressions were enjoyed with score prizes going to Mrs. John T. Adair and Mrs. Don Creighton.

"Good Citizens" Feted By DAR

The D. A. R. good citizens were entertained at a meeting of the Sullivan Dunklin Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, here Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wilson Harris. Serving as hostesses with Mrs. Harris were Mrs. Thomas Baldwin and Mrs. Murphy Timmerman.

Mrs. Albert Stevens, regent, presided. Following the meeting guests were invited into the dining room where refreshments were served in buffet style. Adorning the table overlaid with a cutwork cloth were pink roses in a silver scale container. Daffodils were used in the living room.

Payne Home Is Scene of Party For Miss Bolick

To compliment Miss Margaret Ann Bolick whose engagement has recently been announced to Herbert Glennie Tarbox, Jr., of Georgetown, Mrs. Horace D. Payne and her daughter, Mrs. Thomas F. Hollis, were hostesses for brunch on Wednesday of the past week.

The Payne home was beautifully decorated for the occasion which carried out a pink color note and heart motif.

Guests enjoyed an informal hour in the living room before being invited in the dining room where a hot course was served with salad, sandwiches, other accessories and punch. Heart shaped confections were passed later. Orchids adorned the base of the antique cut glass compote filled with pink azaleas to center the table overlaid with a linen cut work cloth. Small tables were laid in the den, the honoree's place being marked with a nosegay of white violets. Her gift from the hostesses was a silver dish.

In addition to local friends Mrs. Guilds Hollowell and Mrs. Joe Cutchin, Jr., of Charleston, were party guests.

Joint Hostesses For Bridge Party

Entertaining jointly, Mrs. L. H. Lee, Jr., and Mrs. James E. Neal were hostesses to a group of friends for a bridge party on Friday afternoon at the Lee home.

Beautifully arranged in the card rooms for the occasion were azaleas and gladioli with bowls of colorful pansies. Continuing the April theme umbrellas and flowers were used on the tallies and other table appointments.

Score awards were presented Mrs. Frank Jones and Mrs. John L. Minnaugh. After cards guests were invited into the dining room where refreshments of salad, sandwiches, sweets and tea were served in buffet style. A centerpiece for the table was fashioned of pink azaleas.
