FOCUS WEEK OBSERVANCE

The annual observance of Focus Week for the Girls' Auxiliary of the Woman's Missionary Society was held May 8th through the 14th by Calvary Baptist Church for the purpose of strengthening the organization in membership and leadership.

Advancement in forward steps approved by a reviewing council, community mission with prayer services, and fellowship were included in the Intermediate Girls' Auxiliary activities.

Green felt octagons were presented during the mid-week prayer service to Misses Brenda Fallaw, Judy Lever, Jane Trammell, Maria King, and Lee McCall, who were recognized for advancing to the rank of Maiden.

Sick and older people of the community were remembered with visits, gifts and services of songs, scripture reading and prayer.

Members, unlisted Intermediate girls and mothers were entertained Wednesday evening at a banquet in the recreation room by the Frances Watson circle. Girls' Auxiliary colors of green, white and gold were used in attractive floral arrangements of yellow iris with green ivy on a white table cloth. Lime salad, ribbon sandwiches, olives, lemon frosted cake squares and punch were served.

New members are welcomed into this organization whose interest is missionary activity.

VISITING SPEAKER

Sunday morning at the 11:00 a. m. service Dr. R. Bryce Herbert, Superintendent of the Greenwood District of the Methodist Church, will be speaking at Bailey Memorial Methodist Church. All are invited to attend.
