Two County Escapees Caught After Being Tracked By Hounds

Laurens—Using bloodhounds from S. L. E. D. Laurens County deputies quickly captured two chalingang escapees in a thickly wooded area in the Greenpond section of the county Friday afternoon.

The men were identified by Sheriff C. W. Wier as Frank Crane and his son, Charles.

The pair surrendered meekly after they sought to flee back into the woods when confronted by Deputy W. D. (Dub) Burns as they emerged from the woods into a narrow dirt road. The men halted when Deputy Burns drew his revolver and ordered them to surrender.

Neither of the escapees was armed except for small pocket knives each carried.

The men were spotted about 11:30 a. m., Friday, by Deputies Bill Spruell and Sam Reid who were in the Greenpond section searching for a probation violator. They fled into the dense woods when they saw the two officers.

The sheriff's office was notified and Sheriff Wier called for the SLED bloodhounds in Columbia.

The hounds quickly picked up the fugitives' trail and were baying at their heels when the men emerged from the woods into the hands of Deputy Burns.

Charles Craine was serving 60 days for reckless driving and driving without a license, and Frank Craine was serving 30 days when they escaped from the chalingang several weeks ago.

Aiding in the search were Chief Deputy Wesley Fowler and Horace Mitchell.
