

News Of Bonds Cross Roads

Billy Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Johnson, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ned Tiner and family in Charleston.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Shouse and family spent the week-end at Myrtle Beach.

Mrs. Jessie Locklear and son, Ernie, of Summerville, are spending some time with Mrs. Locklear's mother, Mrs. Maude Nabors.

BIRTHDAYS CELEBRATED
Jimmy Johnson was honored Saturday, July 30, at 4 o'clock with a birthday party at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson.

As the guests arrived they were greeted by Jimmy's mother. The afternoon was filled with games, croquet and softball for the older boys and girls and group games for the younger children. Following games a number of gifts were presented to Jimmy. Refreshments were served and the children were given favors of fancy horns.

Among those enjoying the party were: Gene, Cathy and Kay Miller,

Lynn Nabors, Travis Crapps, Mike Finky, Frank Johnson, Mary B. Tinsley, Al. Susan, Ricky and Kay Shouse, and Wayne Crapps.

Little Miss Lynn Nabors, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Nabors, observed her birthday Sunday by the opening of her swimming pool in the yard of her home. The little girls of the neighborhood were invited in to swim.

Ricky Shouse, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Shouse, celebrated his fifth birthday Wednesday, August 3, by attending the play period at the Shady Grove club.

WITH THE SICK
Friends of Mrs. Mary Bledsoe will be glad to know that she is improving at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bledsoe.

Mrs. Bessie Chase, who has been a patient in the Whitmire Clinic, following a fall, is improving and has gone to the home of her daughter in Charlotte, N. C.

ATTEND WORKMAN REUNION
A number of people from the community attended the Workman reunion at Greenwood state park on Sunday. Among them were: Mrs. Bessie Johnson, Mr. and Mrs.

James Johnson and son, Jimmy, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Johnson and sons, Kenneth and Frank, Mr. and Mrs. Newman Shouse and daughter and granddaughter, Mrs. S. A. Pitts, and Barbara, and Mrs. Mary Fields.

RECREATION PERIOD ENJOYED
On Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock the young people and children enjoyed another afternoon of recreation at the Shady Grove Club house. Mrs. B. W. Cooper, Mrs. David Pitts and Mrs. E. T. Shouse were in charge. Pug Farmer and Ralph Edwards were in charge of softball. After the story and games drinks and cookies were served. On Wednesday, August 10, following the recreation period the families of all children who have participated and any other interested persons of the community are invited to bring picnic lunch and tea and join the youngsters in a picnic supper at 5:30 at the club house.

Thursday night at 7:30 the Brotherhood of Fairview Baptist Church will meet at the church. James Johnson, president, urges all men of the church to attend.

Remember to attend the services of your church this week.

Hampton Ave. Team Wins Trophy
