Lovely Lakeside Party Honors Fiancee of Frank Martin, 3rd

Mrs. Frank Martin of Laurens, and Mrs. Hubert Todd entertained jointly at the Lakeside Country Club on Saturday afternoon in honor of Miss Nancy Simpson of Winston-Salem, N. C. Miss Simpson will become the bride of Frank Martin, III, on August 27. Also receiving honors with the bride-elect was Miss Jackie Griffin of Laurens, who will be married on August 12.

Arrangements of white gladioli, cleomes, roses, magnolias, and greenery were used in the receiving rooms. Bridal block cake, mints, nuts, and a green and white color scheme was carried out. Corsages of roses and gardenias were presented to the guests of honor.

Assisting in receiving and entertaining were Mrs. Robert Cooper, Mrs. Robert Cooper, Mrs. W. P. Thomason, Mrs. J. E. Adams, Miss Alice Adams, and Miss Barbara Martin of Laurens; also Mrs. T. S. Finley of Greenville; Miss Ruth Bailey, Mrs. Jack W. Anderson, Mrs. Judson Brehmer, Mrs. George W. Copeland, Miss Jennie Redd, Miss Joanne Todd, and Mrs. Clyde Todd of this city.

A special guest for the occasion was Mrs. Robert Tula Stimpson of Winston-Salem, mother of the bride-elect.

Entertains Club Thursday Afternoon

Entertaining members of her bridge club, Mrs. B. B. Ballard was hostess for two tables on Thursday afternoon.

In the living room where the tables were arranged were bouquets of gladioli, zinnias and other summer flowers in beautifully blended shades.

A club visitor, Mrs. Frank F. Fowler, was top scorer for the games. During the afternoon the hostess served a salad plate, tea and assorted cookies.

Malcolm Lee Celebrates Birthday

Malcolm Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Lee, who was six years old July 29, observed the occasion with a party on Thursday afternoon.

Guests included a few little boys and girls, playmates of the honoree. Party games and favors were enjoyed and later the group gathered around the refreshment table to sing "Happy Birthday." The cake decorated in yellow and blue, was cut and served with ice cream and cold drinks.

REV. AND MRS. MOREAU

THE REV. MR. MOREAU WEDS MISS JACQUALINE GOERTZ IN NEW YORK

Miss Jacqueline Goertz, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Philip Goertz of Hughsonville, N. Y., was married July 16 to the Rev. William Edward Moreau, pastor of the Lydia Presbyterian Church. He is the son of Mrs. William E. Moreau of Clinton, and the late Rev. Mr. Moreau.

The brides' father read the service, assisted by Rev. Dick Oostentik, pastor of the Summer Street Christian Reformed Church of Passaic, N. J. Held at Hughsonville Presbyterian Church, the 2:30 p. m. rites included music by Mrs. Christopher Timmer of Salt Point, organist, and Henry Water, of Paramus, N. J., vocalist. The double ring ceremony was used.

Mr. Goertz also gave his daughter in marriage. Her gown of Chantilly lace was designed with cameo necklace trimmed in sequins above an Empire waistline. The skirt ended in a chapel train. Her fingertip veil was arranged on a coronet of seed pearls and sequins. She carried pink sweetheart roses and pink and white carnations.

Mrs. Bertrand Burr of High Falls, attended her cousin as matron of honor, wearing a blue organza cocktail length dress fashioned with scoop neckline and taffeta cummerbund, the bodice being appliqued in white. Her coronet held a circular veil; she carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations.

Other attendants were Mrs. Edmund Connell of Beacon, sister of the bride; and Miss Martha Ann Monson of Des Moines, Iowa, her cousin. Their gowns and headpieces were similar, only in pink. They carried colonial bouquets of blue and white carnations. Herbert Paul Reid of Clinton, served as best man. Bertrand Burr and Edmund Connell ushered.

A reception was held in the church dining room. When the newlyweds left for the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia, the bride wore an eggshell color knitted suit. They will live in Philadelphia and the groom will be a graduate student at Westminster Theological Seminary.

A graduate of Beacon High School and of Belhaven College in Jackson, Miss., Mrs. Moreau has been teaching at Eastern Christian School Associates in Passaic. Mr. Moreau, an alumnus of Batesville (Ark.) High School, Arkansas College and of Columbia Theological Seminary in Decatur, Ga., is a member of the Clinton Lions Club and Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Frady-Bush Engagement

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Alice Marie Frady, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Frady of Kinards, has been announced by the bride-elect's parents to Curtis Randolph Bush, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Bush of Newberry. The wedding will take place August 28 at Sharon Church.

Informal Party For Mrs. DuRant

Honoring Mrs. Jack DuRant, Mrs. John W. Stevenson and Mrs. Edward Campbell entertained with a coca-cola party on Tuesday morning at the Stevenson home on Calvert Avenue.

Mrs. DuRant will leave soon to make her home in Knoxville, Tenn., where Mr. DuRant, who has been a member of the Presbyterian College faculty, will work toward his Ph.D. degree at the University of Tennessee.

In keeping with the informal setting white grapes were arranged in a silver basket with foliage, limes and lemons to center the refreshment table. Elsewhere in the home mixed summer flowers were used.

About twenty friends of the honoree were invited for the occasion.

Entertains Club Friday Afternoon

Friday afternoon Mrs. Robert E. Wysor 3rd was hostess to members of her bridge club, assembling players for three tables.

Prior to the games a dessert course was served at the tables, appointed in the living and dining rooms, which were decorated with vari-colored roses and zinnias.

Winners of score prizes for the afternoon's progressions were Mrs. Hugh Jacobs and Mrs. Edward Ferguson.

Mrs. Rebecca Bailey Bobo observed her 89th birthday Tuesday, July 26, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joe H. Simpson, Sr., and Mr. Simpson, on North Main Street in Whitmire.

Mrs. Bobo was greeted by a host of friends during the day to congratulate her on the happy occasion, and she beautifully expressed her appreciation for the many cards, gifts and flowers and most especially for those that dropped by to chat with her.

Mrs. Bobo has been making her home in Whitmire since 1945 and has many friends there and in Clinton. She is the daughter of the late Silas and Rebecca Bolt Bailey of Clinton. Her husband was the late David B. Bobo. They had five children, Mrs. Simpson of Whitmire, aid Rev. George Bobo of Loris, now living, and three deceased, Mrs. Nellie Richbourg, Ansel Bobo, and Mrs. Eula Grace Miller.

Mrs. Bobo is the only living charter member of the First Baptist Church of this city, having been a member for 78 years. On several occasions she has received recognition as the oldest member.

Recently she made a trip to Greenwood to visit with her great-grandchild, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Lynch, and a photograph was made of the five generations.
