

Farm Ponds For Pleasure And Profit

Sally Copeland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Posey W. Copeland of Clinton, enjoys sunbathing on a raft at their farm pond. Aside from regular benefits such as irrigation, cattle water supply and fire control, the Copeland's pond is used for fishing, swimming and boating. "We've had ours since 1951, and as a source of pleasure and real benefit, the farm pond can't be beat," Mr. Copeland said.—Soil Conservation Service Photo.
