

Briefs About...

People You Know

Items of Interest Concerning Local Residents

Mrs. R. H. Quarles, her daughter and son, Carolyn and Bobby, were recent visitors of their daughter and sister, Mrs. Sam Chambers, Jr., and Mr. Chambers in Memphis, Tenn. Enroute they visited Cherokee, N. C., Chattanooga, Tenn., and other points of interest.

Chuck Giles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thurston R. Giles, left Tuesday to resume his studies at the Camden Academy, Camden.

Miss Eleanor Hudgens has gone to Orangeburg where she will teach math in the high school. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Hudgens, she is a graduate of Presbyterian College.

AT KANUGA

Rev. John Rivers, pastor of All Saints Episcopal Church, has been attending a clergy conference at the conference center, Kanuga, N. C.

Jim and Dick Gasque, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gasque, have left to resume their studies. Jim was accompanied on Thursday to Banner Elk, N. C., where he will attend Lee-McRae. Dick is a sophomore at Clemson.

Mrs. R. P. Skenes and children, Ronnie and Debbie, of Portsmouth, Va., are visiting her mother, Mrs. J. B. Speake. Mr. Skenes was here during the week, going on to Atlanta on business. He will join them here later to accompany them home.

Miss Cornelia Harris of Columbia, spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. W. W. Harris.

Miss Bootsie Horton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Horton, left Sunday for Columbia where she will be a sophomore at the University of South Carolina.

Billy Horne has resumed his studies at The Citadel in Charleston. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Horne, accompanied him to Charleston on Monday and were overnight visitors with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Horne, at the Isle of Palms.

Friends of Sally Milam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dillard Milam, Jr., will regret to know she suffered a broken arm injury last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Olin Furr and sons of Greenville, were guests of relatives here on Sunday.

Friends of Mrs. Clyde Teague will be interested to know she returned home yesterday following an operation illness at the Self Memorial hospital in Greenwood.

Mrs. C. B. Kugler and daughters, Barbara Ellen and Patricia, of Myrtle Beach, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Giles, a few days last week. With them was Mrs. John Agiati also of Myrtle Beach.

Dr. Lee Blakely of Walter Reed Hospital, Washington, D. C., spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Blakely.

Miss Rachel Ann Wilson has resumed her studies at the University of South Carolina, Columbia where she is a member of the sophomore class.

Miss Linda Milam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Milam Jr., has entered the freshman class at Coker College, Hartsville.

Rev. and Mrs. Robert H. Freedland of Alexandria, Va., are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thomas for two weeks.

Miss Sara Ray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ray, has enrolled in the freshman class at Furman University, Greenville.

Friends of Mrs. Russell Pitts will regret to know she is ill and has been a patient at the Columbia hospital, Columbia, for the past week.

Miss Kay Thomas left September 6th to enter Anderson College as a freshman. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thomas.

Miss Delle Wilder has gone to Furman University, Greenville, where she is enrolled as a member of the freshman class. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Wilder.

Prof. and Mrs. George W. Clark and children have returned from a few weeks vacation trip. Mrs. Clark visited relatives in Falls Church, Va., while doing research at the Library of Congress, Washington. Later they spent a few days in Memphis, Tenn., with his family.

Miss Ann Ray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Ray, has gone to Raleigh, N. C., where she is a first-year student at Meredith College.

Mrs. Joe H. Cutchin and sons of Mount Pleasant, are here for two weeks with her mother, Mrs. W. L. Marshall, Jr., and Mrs. C. M. Bailey, while Mr. Cutchin, a senior at the Medical College of South Carolina, is doing training work at the State Hospital, Columbia.

Mrs. Giles Lewis and children of Laurens, returned to their home yesterday after spending a few days with Mrs. John Rivers.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Young are accompanying their daughter, Georgia, to Due West today where she will enter the sophomore class at Erskine College.

CONVALESCING

Friends of Mrs. Marvin E. Dunbar will be glad to know she is convalescing at her home on Liberty street following an operation illness at the University Hospital in Augusta, Ga. Mrs. Dunbar and children spent several weeks there with her parents while she was recuperating.

Mrs. Herbert Masey and daughter, Julia, of Dade City, Fla., Mrs. Jimmie Burney and daughter, Valerie, of Jackson, Miss., visited Mr. and Mrs. John T. Young and Miss Georgia Young on Sunday. They were enroute to Queens College, Charlotte, N. C., where the girls are students.

George and Milling Blalock, sons of Dr. and Mrs. George R. Blalock, have returned to college to resume their studies. George is a senior at Davidson. Milling was accompanied on Sunday by his parents to Sewanee, Tenn., where he is a member of the sophomore class at the University of the South.

FROM CALIFORNIA

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Boyd of Anaheim, Calif., spent last week here with the former's mother, Mrs. John Boyd, and other relatives, leaving Monday to return home. Mrs. H. D. Holland and children of Macon, Ga., were also here for the week-end. Mrs. Holland will be remembered as Miss Juanita Boyd.

Among Clinton students attending the University of South Carolina are: Edd Pitts, Henry Chandler, Dillard Jacobs, Joe Neely, Jimmy Coleman, Miss Emily Bailey, and Edgar Everett.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Prather spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Franks in Biltmore, N. C. and Mrs. J. W. Gibson in Swannanoa, N. C.

Miss Ruth Holland, daughter of Mrs. John B. Holland has gone to North Greenville Junior College where she is a first year student.

Misses Jean and Betty McDaniel left this week to continue their education. Jean is a junior at the University of South Carolina and Betty a sophomore at Winthrop. They are daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie McDaniel.

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Dempsey, Canton, N. C., spent Sunday with former's sister, Mrs. Mac Poole. Also guests of Mrs. Poole Monday were Mrs. J. E. Baily, Mrs. W. W. Burns, and Mrs. W. N. Lesley of Greenville.

Miss Linda Bridges, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bridges, a sophomore, has returned to Furman University, Greenville.

Among local students at Winthrop are Misses Carolyn Henderson, Julie Bolick, Lena Copeland, Nancy Thackston, Claire Smith, Wylie Davis, Jennie Addison, Betty Jane Hamer, Sara Pitts, Myrna Sease, Beth Trammell, Mary Anderson, Dolly Crouch.

Posy Copeland, Horace Payne, Jack Davis Jr., are returning to Clemson this week to resume their studies.

Miss Catherine Hart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hart leaves today for Agnes Scott College, Decatur, Ga., where she is enrolled as a member of the freshman class.

Mrs. John W. Finney, Mrs. John W. Finney, Jr., and son Warren are spending a few days at Myrtle Beach with Mr. and Mrs. Mac Finney going, especially for the 16th birthday celebration of Miss Betsy Finney.

Charlton Law, a sophomore, has returned to the Citadel, Charleston. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Law.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Moore and Milton Moore accompanied their son and brother to Cullowhee, N. C., last week where he will be a freshman at Western Carolina College.

The following students leave this week to resume their studies at Erskine College, Due West: Misses Sandra Ray, Pat Chisholm, Betsy Davis, and Jane Ann Davis; also Tommy Sublett, Charles Tucker and Jackie Cooper.

NASSAU, FLORIDA TRIP

Mrs. Edgar Sadler, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. L. S. McMillan of Laurens, has returned from a two weeks trip to Nassau, West Palm Beach and other points of interest in Florida. They accompanied Mr. Sadler, a captain in the Marine Reserve, to Mayport Naval Station, Jacksonville, where he attended a two weeks training period.

L. B. Bowden, Sr., of Chattanooga, Tenn., will arrive this week-end to visit with Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Cason. Mrs. Bowden who has been recuperating following a major operation at the home of her sister will accompany him home.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Moore will be interested to know they were called to York last week on account of the death of the former's sister-in-law, Mrs. Rufus Sadler Moore, and also to Waynesville, N. C. on account of the illness of Mrs. Moore's mother.

Mrs. Jimmy Frank Brown and daughters, Ellen and Nancy Kay, of Augusta, Ga., are spending two weeks here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tan M. Ray while he is attending a statistical quality control course at the University of Connecticut sponsored by the Lily Tulip Cup Corp. for whom he works.

Miss Ann Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth N. Baker, has resumed her studies at Limestone College, Gaffney.

Miss Caroline Asaul, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brunson Ashill, has returned to Anderson College where she is a sophomore.

Visiting Mrs. Ethel R. Pitts in Columbia Hospital on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Davis V. Pitts, Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Bonds and Mrs. Louie Thornley.

Gerald Woodruff has resumed his studies in the sophomore class at Newberry College. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Woodruff.

Miss Sandra Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Davis, is a member of the freshman class at Anderson College.

Whit Mayes, of Thornwell, has returned to the Citadel where he is a member of the sophomore class.

Miss Margaret Ella Copeland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Copeland, has enrolled in the freshman class at Anderson College.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Holland and son, Phil, Mrs. Bluford Copeland and Mrs. George Holland spent Sunday at Crossnore, N. C., with the former's son, George Holland, who is attending school there.

Returning to Davidson College for their sophomore year are John Eichberger, Wallace Boyd and Jimmy Young.

Commander Claude L. Reeves of Washington, D. C., Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Reeves of Anderson visited their sister and daughter, Mrs. W.

M. Hughes, and Mr. Hughes during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaston Wilder and daughter, Sara Louise and Miss Elaine Price of McCormick spent Sunday with the former's mother, Mrs. J. B. Wilder.

IN DETROIT

J. Roy Gasque has returned from a few days stay in Detroit, Mich., where he attended a showing of the 1961 Buick. He joined other dealers in Charlotte to make the trip by plane.

HERE FOR FUNERAL

Among those from out of town here for the funeral of Miss Lois Blakely were: Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Covington, and Kim Covington, Hamlet, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. James G. Monrie, Jim and Libby Monroe, of Latta; Mrs. R. B. Blakely, Miss Florence Blakely of Durham, N. C.; Mrs. H. R. McLeod, McBee; Gilbert Blakely, Jacksonville, Fla.; Mrs. R. P. Skenes, Portsmouth, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Burton, Mr. and Mrs. John Clark, Charleston; J. H. Blakely and J. H. Blakely, Jr., Greenville.

Also Mrs. O. O. Copeland, Sr., Mrs. Eugene Fouche, Mrs. W. O. Miller, Newberry; C. Bryan Holland Laurens; Dr. Fayette Henry, Miss Mary Elizabeth Henry, Batesburg; Miss Georgia Brooker, Dr. James Bryson, Columbia; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Duke, Mr. and Mrs. Loy Johnson, Union; Mrs. H. S. Spann, Anderson; Mrs. Furman Wall, Mis Marjorie Wall, Spartanburg.

Allen-Irvine Clinic Opens in Laurens

Announcement is being made of the opening of the Allen-Irvine Clinic for practice of general surgery and internal medicine at 426 West Main Street, Laurens. The clinic will be operated by Dr. Charles I. Allen and Dr. William D. Irvine who have recently moved to Laurens.

Dr. Allen a native of Wadesboro, N. C., is a graduate of Bowman-Grey Medical School, Winston-Salem, N. C., and specializes in general surgery. Dr. Irvine, a native of Lewisburg, West Virginia, was graduated from the Medical College of Virginia at Richmond. He specializes in internal medicine. Both were formerly located at the Beckley, West Virginia Hospital.

John H. Milam Passes at Home

John Henry Milam, 88, of Rt. 1, Laurens, died late Monday afternoon at his home, apparently from a heart attack.

A native of Laurens County, he was the son of the late Tandy and Saphronie Dillard Milam. He was a retired farmer and a member of Highland Home Baptist Church.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Nannie Weather's Milam; four daughters, Mrs. Walter Lewis of Greenville, Mrs. R. L. Teague and Mrs. R. N. Williams, both of Laurens and Miss Irene Milam of the home; two brothers, Dillard Milam of Clinton and Tom Milam of Leesburg, Fla.; two sisters, Mrs. J. D. Boland of Clinton and Miss Frances

E. Milam of San Francisco, Calif.; seven grandchildren; and six great-grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements will be announced by Kennedy Mortuary. The family is at the home of Mrs. R. Boland of Clinton and Miss Frances Teague on the Greenville Highway.

YARBOROUGH STUDIO and CAMERA SHOP

Corner Musgrove and Pitts St.
Cameras — Films — Photo Finishing

PRESCRIPTIONS

Prompt, Economical Prescription Service!

Young's Pharmacy

Phone 19 Phone 19

While Our Present Location - 103 East Pitts Street - Is Being Remodeled, We Have Moved To 103 West Pitts St. (Behind Earline Shop)

FAMOUS NAMES AT BIG DISCOUNTS

Up To 50% Discount ON SOME ITEMS

WE INVITE YOU TO VISIT US IN OUR TEMPORARY QUARTERS WHERE WE WILL RENDER THE SAME FINE REPAIR SERVICE AND YOU CAN...

Everything Included

ALL ITEMS PRICED TO SELL - MUST MAKE ROOM FOR NEW AND LARGER STOCK.

SHOP AND SAVE On Our Many Special Remodeling Buys

- JEWELRY • WATCHES
- GIFTS • NOVELTIES
- POTTERY • SILVER
- RINGS • DIAMONDS

To Serve You Better

We are completely renovating, modernizing and enlarging our store with new front, show windows and fixtures.

For your shopping convenience, we will carry a much larger selection in our present lines, with the addition of a number of new ones.

Thanks

To those who have helped make this expansion of our business possible. Your encouragement and patronage the past few years has been gratifying.

DILLARD BOLAND JEWELER, Inc.

