CLINTON WOMAN'S CLUB HOLDS SEPTEMBER MEETING
At the September meeting of the Clinton Woman's Club Mrs. Lavinia Cooley, president of the Joanna Club, presented a beautiful installation service for the 1960-61 club officers. Mrs. Cooley compared officers and club members working together to the harmony of a great orchestra. As each instrument is supposed to play in harmony with the others, so each member is supposed to work in harmony with one another so there will be no discord or friction.

The officers installed were: president, Mrs. Pete Frier; first vice-president, Mrs. A. R. Ivester; second vice-president, Mrs. Bill Terry; Secretary, Mrs. Nell Haggart; assistant secretary, Mrs. Geneva Coughman; treasurer, Mrs. Janie Freeman; assistant treasurer, Mrs. Vischero Joy; reporter, Mrs. Gus Blakely.

During the social hour a covered dish supper was enjoyed.
