Clinton's Fullback Keith Stewart Goes Over from the Five-Yard Line

Clinton Loses First To N. Augusta Here Friday

The Clinton Red Devils were fumbled from the unbeaten list here Friday night by North Augusta in a 26-18 thriller.

North Augusta opened the scoring in the first quarter with quarterback Jerry Priestly sneaking over. The Yellow Jackets went out from 12-0 in the second period when fullback Sandy Smith broke away for a 45-yard touchdown run.

A 60-yard scoring play clicked for Clinton before halftime, quarterback Phil King passing to Kinard Littleton.

The Red Devils knotted the score in the third period by driving 80 yards after Littleton intercepted a Jacket pass in the end zone. Fullback Keith Stewart ran the final five.

North Augusta went out front again in the fourth period, 19-12, with fullback Jimmy Day running the last yard. Fullback Gene Williams ran the extra point.

Clinton drove 50 yards, Littleton going the last nine, but missing the extra point kick failed, leaving it 19-18.

The Devils tried an outside kick and recovered. They tried a desperation pass, but Wallace Pierce intercepted and ran 40 yards for another North Augusta score before the final whistle. Priestly kicked the point.

Both teams made 11 first downs, Clinton gaining 253 yards to 227 for North Augusta.

Defensive standouts for Clinton Melvin Bailey, Barry Whittman, Joel McElhannon and Billy Pitts. For North Augusta it was Gene Williams, Ned Baynham, and Lee Smith.

14 Appointed To Board Of Visitors For Presbyterian

Fourteen prominent men and women of four states have been appointed to Presbyterian College's new Board of Visitors to advise with the trustees, the president and other administrative officials on the program of the institution.

President Marshall W. Brown made the announcement today and said the first meeting of the group will be held on the PC campus next Tuesday and Wednesday.

The Board of Visitors is composed of these members who bring a wide range of experience to their efforts for PC:

Mrs. T. Emmett Anderson, Tampa, business and religious leader; Thomas Belk, Charlotte, executive of the Belk mercantile organization; James A. Chapman, Jr., vice president of Inman Mills; House B. Donaldson, retired businessman; Sam L. Latimer, Jr., of Columbia, editor of The State newspaper; John W. Marbut, Macon, businessman; Richard R. Nash, Marietta, Ga., architect.

Charles N. Plowden, Summerton, banker; Carter L. Redd, of Atlanta, vice president in charge of Southern sales for General Electric; Joe H. Robinson, of Charlotte, senior vice president of Wachovia Bank and Trust Company; W. Henry B. Simpson, of Greenville, head of the Belk-Simpson department store chain. Mrs. Taylor H. Stokes, of Manning, wife of the state chief justice, Mrs. J. M. Thompson, of Olanta, president of the Presbyterian women of South Carolina; and H. Robert Woods, Jr., Chester, businessman.

President Brown said the Board of Visitors will serve as interpreters of the college's plans and programs, will help toward the accomplishment of long-term objectives and will make recommendations through the administration for the betterment of Presbyterian College.

Members of this new PC group are scheduled to arrive on campus Tuesday afternoon for a two-day meeting with the executive committee of the Board of Trustees and college administrative officers. Dinner and a reception that night will be followed by a complete orientation on the PC program and future plans Wednesday morning. They will elect officers before leaving.

The trustee executive committee is composed of Robert M. Vance and J. Ferdinand Jacobs, Sr., both of Clinton; George B. Hoyt of Atlanta; Henry B. Matthews, Sr., of Macon; Dr. W. R. Wallace, of Chester; Dr. Marc C. Weersing, of Spartanburg; and Dr. George R. Wilkinson, of Greenville.

Presbyterian College administrative officers meeting with the group are President Marshall W. Brown, James M. Oeland, Dr. George C. Bellingrath, Col. A. J. Thackston, Jr., G. Edward Campbell and Ben Hay Hammet.

LOOK WHAT DODGE HAS DONE FOR COMPACTS

The name, Lancer: one hardtop; one 2-door sedan; two 4-door sedans; two wagons. What kind of cars are they? This kind: two feet shorter; many pounds leaner; a couple of hundred dollars less in cost than usual automobiles. Lancer welcomes a family of six lavishly. Has plenty of trunk. Its fully-unitized body is very quiet, very tough. Lancer is also-mannerly. It corners decisively, takes a well scarred road with aplomb. Parks obediently. More reasons to buy? Read on. The interiors are rich, but simple: Shed soil, wear well, feel good. The engine is highly spirited, but extremely light on regular gasoline. One more thing. Lancer is built by Dodge. Our name is on it. This means Lancer will stay nice and shiny. How so? The body is rustproofed by an exclusive Chrysler Corporation process. Enough talk. Meet Lancer at your Dodge Dealer. Now.
