

Captain and Quarterback Phil King is being brought down after a gain in Clinton's homecoming game with York here Friday night.

Miss Dorothy Staton is crowned Miss CHS by Wayne Morgan, president of the student body. Master Barry Saunders, of Joanna, crown bearer, is standing by.—Photos by Dan Yarborough.

Clinton High Knocks York From Unbeaten List, 19-9

Clinton High rolled to an impressive 19 to 9 victory over the previously unbeaten York Green Dragons Friday night. An overflow crowd of 3,500 spectators jammed Wilder Stadium to see the two teams clash and enjoy homecoming festivities.

Miss Dorothy Staton was crowned Miss CHS at halftime ceremonies. The Red Devils jumped to an early lead in the first quarter when Kinard Littleton, Clinton halfback, swept left end for 20 yards and a TD. The kick for the extra point failed and Clinton led 6-0.

In the second quarter, Clinton was deep in their own territory when fullback Keith Stewart was dropped in the end zone by a York tackler for a safety, to make it 6-2. Neither team was able to muster a scoring drive before the half-time recess.

The Red Devils took the ball in the third period and marched for a TD, with Stewart in a brilliant run crossing the line from 18 yards out. He also ran the extra point, and the scoreboard read Clinton 13, York 2.

The Dragons came back to score early in the fourth quarter with a drive that was aided by pass interference by Clinton. Quarterback McCarter went over from the half-yard line. York kicked the extra point to narrow Clinton's lead 13-9.

With one minute remaining in the game, quarterback Phil King intercepted a York pass and ran it back 45 yards to the York one-yard line. Two plays later, Little bulld in for the score. The try for the point failed, and Clinton led 19-9.

The game ended with York completing a pass and driving to the Clinton 5-yard line as time ran out.

Outstanding against York on defense was the play of Melvin Bailey, Jerry Hall and back Eddie Madden. Leading the offensive punch were King, Little and Stewart. The entire team played well and the coaches say they can be proud of the victory.

For York, Blackwell, tackle and linebacker, played well, while on offense fullback Adkins was the sparkplug.

The Red Devils are idle this week with an open date. They are preparing for another tough conference game on Friday, October 28 with Newberry at College Stadium in Newberry.

The season record for the Red Devils stands at six wins and one loss.

Next week should see another good game, with both teams having lost one game and being in contention for the conference title.

Miss Staton, the new Miss CHS, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Staton of North Broad Street. She was elected by vote of the student body. Runners-up in the contest and attendants to the queen were Johnette Cobb and Diane Price.

Sponsors for senior players at Friday night's game were: Becky Farmer for David Estes, Celia Gasque for Buck Reese, Mimi Martin for Joel McElhannon, Murray Addison for Ned Handback, Valerie Morse for Jerry Hall, Johnette Cobb for Barry Whitman, Corinne Boyd for George Sease, Shirley Estes for Judge Vaughn, Diane Price for Butch McElveen, Judy Laney for Philip King, Shirley Quinton for Gary Sprouse.

Civil Court Begins In Laurens Monday

A two-week term of civil court will get underway in Laurens Monday morning, with Judge Woodrow Lewis, of Darlington, presiding.

Jurors for the first week have been announced. Second week jurors, to serve from Oct. 31 to Nov. 5, will be drawn later.

Scouts Join Effort To Remind Voters

All of the 424 units and the 9,064 boys who are members of these units have been asked to participate in hanging a "Vote As You Think, But Vote," on 100,000 door knobs in the eight counties that make up the Blue Ridge Scout Council.

This is a cooperative effort on the part of the Boy Scouts of America and Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge.

Only registered Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Explorers will make this distribution and all scouts are requested to wear a uniform.

Saturday, October 22, will be the beginning of this work and Saturday, October 29, will be the finishing up day.

All districts will have their pro rata share of these door knob hangers and they may be picked up by the unit leaders from the district executive.

Baptist Brotherhood To Have Ladies Night

The Brotherhood of the First Baptist Church will hold its annual ladies' night tonight (Oct. 20) at the Presbyterian College dining hall at 8 o'clock.

Rev. Kenneth Wilson, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Newberry, will be the guest speaker.

RECOVERING

Jessie Pyles, colored night nurse at Hays hospital for many years, is recuperating at the hospital following an operation for cataracts in Newberry.

Alex Henry, 66, Dies In Georgia City; Funeral Held Monday

Alex Henry, 66, a native of Clinton, and for many years a resident here, died Saturday night at an Atlanta, Ga., hospital after an extended illness.

Funeral services were conducted Monday at 2:00 p. m. at Ward's Glenwood Chapel in Decatur by the Rev. W. J. Hazelwood and the Rev. Hubert G. Wardlaw. Burial was in Rest Haven Memorial Gardens in Decatur.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Belle Skene Henry; a son, George A. Henry of Decatur; two brothers, William J. Henry, Jr., of Clinton; and R. F. Henry of Leesville.

Mr. Henry, the son of the late W. J. and Ada Henry Henry, was born in Jacks Township at the Henry home place on the Spartanburg highway two miles from Clinton. His father held extensive farming interests in the community.

He attended local schools and Presbyterian College.

Mr. Henry for many years was a rural mail carrier out of the Clinton post office until his retirement three years ago, when he and Mrs. Henry moved to Decatur to make their home with their son.

He was a member of the Retired Rural Carriers Association, the American Legion, having served in World War I, and was affiliated with the Masonic Campbell Lodge No. 56 in Clinton. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church.

Rites Held Friday For Mrs. S. B. Sexton

Funeral services for Mrs. Hattie Hill Sexton, 74, of North Harper St., Laurens, were held Friday at 3:00 p. m. at the First Methodist Church of Laurens by Rev. V. R. Hickman. Burial was in the Laurens City Cemetery.

Mrs. Sexton, the widow of S. Boyd Sexton, died Wednesday night at Blalock Clinic, Clinton, after several months of declining health.

She was a native of Laurens County where she had spent her entire life. She was the daughter of the late W. Preston and Addie Bullock Hill. She was a member of the First Methodist Church of Laurens. Her husband died in 1944.

Surviving are a son, Jack D. Sexton of Laurens; five daughters, Mrs. Horace W. Gray and Mrs. J. Russell Dendy, both of Laurens; Mrs. L. Russell Gray of Clinton; Mrs. G. T. Barnes, Sr., of Charlotte, N. C.; and Mrs. John H. Montgomery of Gray Court; a sister, Mrs. James Olin Wessinger of Rt. 3, Newberry; 19 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

Merchants Division Working on Plans For Christmas Parade

The Merchants Division of the Clinton Chamber of Commerce met Tuesday morning at the Hotel Mary Musgrove in a special session to formulate plans for the Christmas season. Plans are being made for the largest and most interesting parade in history on December 1. And to set this off will be new street decorations.

For the first time Clinton will be honored to have Miss America and Miss South Carolina in the parade. Plans also include Miss Clinton, Miss Clinton High, Miss Electric Co-op and Miss FHA. The parade will be held as usual on the first Thursday of December at 5:00 p. m. Stores will remain open until 7:00 p. m. for the convenience of the public.

Twelve outstanding floats already have been entered in the commercial division. As in the past, prizes will be offered in the non-commercial division. Schools, churches, and organizations are urged to enter floats in this division. The division of decorated cars will be omitted this year. All entries in the parade must be approved by the Parade Committee by November 22. Serving with Chairman J. J. Cornwell on this committee are J. W. Abrams and Jim Von Hollen.

A number of bands and other marching units are expected to participate in this parade. These units must be entered by November 22, also.

The people of Clinton and surrounding area can look forward to a new theme and style in the street decorations, according to Mrs. Perry Moore, chairman of this committee.

Other plans made will be announced later, according to Chairman J. Robert Cox. Mr. Cox presided at the meeting on Tuesday morning.

New Subscribers

- RAY SURRETT, Joanna
- TOM H. O'SHIELDS, CADET CLEFFORD
- McKITTICK, New York
- ROBERT COBB, City
- SP4 BROADUS E. SMITH, JR., San Francisco
- WILLIAM B. BUFORD, Savannah, Ga.
- EDD PITTS, Columbia
- H. OLIVER HAUFFNER, Washington, D. C.

County Fair Opens Gates Monday for '60 Showing

The Laurens County Fair will get underway for a week's run beginning Monday and continuing through Saturday.

Over $4,000 will be given away in premiums this year. Fair President Robert E. Jones said.

Premiums will be given in Farm Crop Exhibits; Beef Cattle and Dairy Cattle Departments; Junior and Open Show Classes; Women's Division Canned Fruits, Vegetables, Meats and others; Cooked Foods; Flower Department; Needle Department, and Girls' Division. Canned Products, Cooked Foods, Clothing and Crafts.

Sponsored annually by the Laurens Exchange Club, the fair is expected to be even better than last year's, Jones said.

The John Mark Shows will be on the midway and will offer rides of all kinds for children, all sorts of side shows and games for those attending.

Of special interest to youngsters will be "Kiddies' Day" on Saturday, Oct. 29. All children under 12 will be admitted free to the grounds until 5 p. m. when a pony and prairie will be given away free. Tickets for the drawing will be given free by firms and people advertising in the premium book. All a person has to do is to drop by one of the advertisers and ask for the free tickets.

Serving along with Jones as fair officers are Sam Power, vice president; Cary Moore, treasurer, and John Gatlin, secretary-manager.

Leadership Training Course For Leaders Blue Bird, Campfire

A leadership training school for Campfire and Blue Bird leaders in the three Clinton areas, Kadoka, Lewa and Petaga, will be held at the Clinton Mills Community House Tuesday evening, October 25, at 7:30.

Mrs. Robert M. Vance, training chairman, said plans would be discussed for the Golden Jubilee celebration to be staged locally in January. Mrs. A. B. Davidson will show some of the crafts and articles made by her group, now 3 Horizon club, and others collected from summer camp and hobbies.

For the workshop period leaders will divide into groups according to the ages of girls with whom they work.

Crocker Named Vice-Chairman Of Textile Group

Claude A. Crocker, industrial relations director at Clinton and Lydia Cotton Mills, was elected vice-chairman of the Personnel Division of the South Carolina Textile Manufacturers in Charleston last week.

If current practice is followed, Mr. Crocker will move up to the chairmanship of the organization next year. The Personnel Division is made up of personnel and industrial relations directors of South Carolina's textile firms.

The election was held at the annual fall meeting of the group at the Fort Sumter hotel.

David Boland, personnel manager of Joanna Cotton Mills, also attended the meeting.

"John Wesley" Film

A motion picture film, "John Wesley," will be shown this Sunday night at Broad Street Methodist Church at 7:30.

In this film on the life of Wesley, events and incidents are chosen to interpret his long struggle to find a satisfying experience of God and to demonstrate the extension of a ministry which came with deeper faith. This is more than a great motion picture; it is an unforgettable religious experience.

Bailey Memorial and Broad Street Churches are cooperating in the showing and the general public is also invited.

Many See Joanna Hobby, Craft Fair

Among the first 100 persons to visit the Joanna Club House last Friday during the first hour of the big 1960 Hobby and Craft Fair were the entire staff of the Recreation Department of the City of Columbia, the Special Education Class of West End School in Newberry, and members of the Joanna Baptist Church Kindergarten. The doors opened at 10:00 a. m. and closed at 10:00 p. m., with several hundred persons viewing the exhibits before the noon hour.

Seventy-six all-age exhibitors entered a variety of items ranging from a handsome mahogany-cased grandfather clock by Bernard Nabors, Joanna, employee, to handsome baskets of an earlier period. One of the most valuable collections consisted of gold coins, gold certificates, large bills of different denominations, and an odd assortment of very old and rare coins, owned by David Meyers, a newcomer to the community. The large collection consisted of dolls which covered three large tables.

It was entered by Miss Lillie Mae Aughtry of Lyman, who says she has 350 in her collection—all gifts. Some were sent by boys in service with twelve foreign countries, Canada, and Alaska represented. The group includes four presidents of the United States, a guard from Buckingham Palace, characters from the Nursery Rhymes, snake charmer from India, Cuban and Spanish dancers, bull fighters from Mexico, and Scotch Highlanders.

The display of light weight wood ladies novelty handbags was of interest to everyone. They were made by Bruce Abrams principally from window shade rollers, highly polished and adorned by fiber flowers. The ladies were pleased to find hat

Officers Of PC's Board Of Visitors

Presbyterian College's newly appointed Board of Visitors has elected a slate of officers to direct the affairs of this group which will advise with the trustees and administrative officers on the PC program. The officers, shown above talking with Trustee Chairman Robert M. Vance, are: left to right: James A. Chapman, Jr., Spartanburg industrialist, chairman; Mrs. Taylor H. Stokes, of Manning, secretary; Thomas Belk, Charlotte mercantile executive, vice-chairman; and Vance.—Photo by Dan Yarborough.

Revival October 24-30 At Epworth Church

The Epworth Methodist Church of Joanna, will have its fall revival next week, October 24 through October 30. Services will begin each evening at 7 o'clock. The singing will be led by the Rev. James Copeland of Greer. The messages will be by the pastor, the Rev. J. Herbert Thomas. A nursery will be provided for small children during the revival. Everyone is cordially invited to attend these services.

In preparation for the revival cottage prayer meetings will be held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pope Motes on Blalock Drive on Thursday evening, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Simpson on the Whitmire highway on Friday evening, and in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Dominick on Blalock Drive Saturday evening. Each of these cottage prayer meetings will begin at 7 o'clock. The public is invited to attend these services.

N. C.'s Senator Ervin To Speak at PC Dedication

United States Senator Sam J. Ervin, Jr., of North Carolina, will deliver the main address at exercises dedicating Presbyterian College's William Henry Belk Auditorium on October 31, President Marshall W. Brown announced today.

The program is set for 10:00 a. m. that morning in the new $500,000 structure being named in memory of the founder of the giant Belk mercantile organization.

The occasion also will honor Mrs. May Henderson Wyatt of Chickamauga, Ga., for whom the adjoining chapel is named.

In making his announcement of the main speaker, President Brown said that Senator Ervin is a friend of the Belk family who has distinguished himself in the Senate since 1964. He also has had an outstanding career as lawyer, solicitor, superior court judge and as associate justice of the North Carolina supreme court.

Sam Ervin is a 1917 graduate of the University of North Carolina and a 1922 graduate of Harvard Law School. A native of Morganton.

TB Clinic X-Rays 4,273

Reports from the Laurens County TB clinic held last week and sponsored by the Clinton Business and Professional Women's Club, have been announced.

Thursday and Friday at Pitts and Broad streets, 533 X-rays were made and Monday at the Hallmark plant a total of 157. This makes a total of 4,273 X-rays to date for the entire county which includes 1,428 for Joanna.

Those for whom additional films need to be made will be notified. Any unusual findings from X-rays will be reported to the family physician those hearing nothing by the end of the month will know the X-ray was satisfactory.

Assisting the B&PW with the local clinics were Mrs. A. C. Workman, Jr., Mrs. B. R. Austin, Miss Essie Davidson, Mrs. Louise Thornley, Mrs. Kenneth Haselden, Mrs. J. L. Collins, Mrs. R. F. Long, Mrs. Bob Plaxico, Mrs. H. W. Cleland, Mrs. Harvey Magnum, Miss Margaret Blakely, Mrs. Margaret Lockett, Mrs. R. G. Wrenn, Mrs. Dan Yarborough, Mrs. Laura Mae Howard, Mrs. James Buzhardt, Mrs. W. W. Harris.

The mobile X-ray unit will be at Lydia Mill today and Friday and at Clinton Mill Monday and Tuesday (Oct. 24-25) for the employees.

41 From Clinton Area Enrolled At Presbyterian

Forty-one students from the Clinton section are enrolled at Presbyterian College for the current session.

They are: from Clinton—Robert Paul Watts, Franklin McKinley Penninger, James William Sease, Donald Wayne Stewart, Ronald King Shields, Col. Francis Vinton Smith, Edward Johnson, James Harper Layton, Jr., Mrs. Anne Macdonald Lee, Harry Heyward Nettles, Charles Marvin Malpass, Mrs. Grace Ingfer Walker, Alvin Merrill Whitmore, Charles David Watts, James Todd Compton, George Ivan Beatty, Ronald David Corley, Edwin Thompson Cunningham, Gay Marlene DeYoung.

Also, Harriet Elizabeth Hudson, Julia Somerville Gray, Ralph C. Hunter, Albert Hinson, Jr., Robert Gary DeLoach, Robert Louis Carley, Herbert Franklin Adair, William Franklin Haselden, Thomas P. Linger, Lykes S. Henderson, Earl Lonzo Horton, Mrs. Lou Cornwell Horton, James Terry Hughes, Everette Leon Hedgepath.

From Joanna — James Robert Franks, Benjamin F. Jones, Marion Copeland Whitmore.

From Cross Hill—Thomas Clayton Coates and David Hitt Cromer.

Henry C. King, 67, Dies Suddenly At Lydia Mill Home

Henry C. King, 67, died suddenly at his home at Lydia Mill Tuesday afternoon from a heart attack.

He was a native of Newberry County but had made his home in Laurens County for 21 years. He was a son of the late Milton and Lula Campbell King and was a member of Lydia Mill Baptist Church.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Myrtle Gott King of Lydia Mill, 3 sons, Henry W. King of Nashville, Tenn., and Kelly C. and Chesley King, both of Clinton, 4 daughters, Mrs. Carrie G. Smith of Lawton, Okla.; Mrs. Myrtle Brewington, of Laurens; Mrs. Nellis Gray Motes, of Joanna; Mrs. Mary A. Kay of Clinton, 16 grandchildren, 5 sisters, Mrs. Sallie Craft, of Nashville, Tenn.; Mrs. Anne Woods, of Newberry; Mrs. Lula Lell of Laurens; Mrs. Ruth Cotran and Mrs. Nellie James; and 2 brothers, Pirl and James M. King, all of Newberry.

Funeral services will be conducted Thursday at 3 p. m. at Lydia Mill Baptist Church by Rev. Milford Sanders. Burial will be in Rosemont Cemetery.

The body is at the home.

JAYCEE-ETTES MEET 20TH

The Clinton Jaycee-Ettes will meet on the 20th with Mrs. James Barnes. All Jaycee-Ettes are asked to meet at the home of Mrs. Ted Prevatie, 507 Musgrove street, and then go to Mrs. Barnes' home.

Officers of PC's Board Of Visitors

Presbyterian College's newly appointed Board of Visitors has elected a slate of officers to direct the affairs of this group which will advise with the trustees and administrative officers on the PC program. The officers, shown above talking with Trustee Chairman Robert M. Vance, are: left to right: James A. Chapman, Jr., Spartanburg industrialist, chairman; Mrs. Taylor H. Stokes, of Manning, secretary; Thomas Belk, Charlotte mercantile executive, vice-chairman; and Vance.—Photo by Dan Yarborough.

Revival October 24-30 At Epworth Church

The Epworth Methodist Church of Joanna, will have its fall revival next week, October 24 through October 30. Services will begin each evening at 7 o'clock. The singing will be led by the Rev. James Copeland of Greer. The messages will be by the pastor, the Rev. J. Herbert Thomas. A nursery will be provided for small children during the revival. Everyone is cordially invited to attend these services.

In preparation for the revival cottage prayer meetings will be held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pope Motes on Blalock Drive on Thursday evening, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Simpson on the Whitmire highway on Friday evening, and in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Dominick on Blalock Drive Saturday evening. Each of these cottage prayer meetings will begin at 7 o'clock. The public is invited to attend these services.

N. C.'s Senator Ervin To Speak at PC Dedication

United States Senator Sam J. Ervin, Jr., of North Carolina, will deliver the main address at exercises dedicating Presbyterian College's William Henry Belk Auditorium on October 31, President Marshall W. Brown announced today.

The program is set for 10:00 a. m. that morning in the new $500,000 structure being named in memory of the founder of the giant Belk mercantile organization.

The occasion also will honor Mrs. May Henderson Wyatt of Chickamauga, Ga., for whom the adjoining chapel is named.

In making his announcement of the main speaker, President Brown said that Senator Ervin is a friend of the Belk family who has distinguished himself in the Senate since 1964. He also has had an outstanding career as lawyer, solicitor, superior court judge and as associate justice of the North Carolina supreme court.

Sam Ervin is a 1917 graduate of the University of North Carolina and a 1922 graduate of Harvard Law School. A native of Morganton.

TB Clinic X-Rays 4,273

Reports from the Laurens County TB clinic held last week and sponsored by the Clinton Business and Professional Women's Club, have been announced.

Thursday and Friday at Pitts and Broad streets, 533 X-rays were made and Monday at the Hallmark plant a total of 157. This makes a total of 4,273 X-rays to date for the entire county which includes 1,428 for Joanna.

Those for whom additional films need to be made will be notified. Any unusual findings from X-rays will be reported to the family physician those hearing nothing by the end of the month will know the X-ray was satisfactory.

Assisting the B&PW with the local clinics were Mrs. A. C. Workman, Jr., Mrs. B. R. Austin, Miss Essie Davidson, Mrs. Louise Thornley, Mrs. Kenneth Haselden, Mrs. J. L. Collins, Mrs. R. F. Long, Mrs. Bob Plaxico, Mrs. H. W. Cleland, Mrs. Harvey Magnum, Miss Margaret Blakely, Mrs. Margaret Lockett, Mrs. R. G. Wrenn, Mrs. Dan Yarborough, Mrs. Laura Mae Howard, Mrs. James Buzhardt, Mrs. W. W. Harris.

The mobile X-ray unit will be at Lydia Mill today and Friday and at Clinton Mill Monday and Tuesday (Oct. 24-25) for the employees.

41 From Clinton Area Enrolled At Presbyterian

Forty-one students from the Clinton section are enrolled at Presbyterian College for the current session.

They are: from Clinton—Robert Paul Watts, Franklin McKinley Penninger, James William Sease, Donald Wayne Stewart, Ronald King Shields, Col. Francis Vinton Smith, Edward Johnson, James Harper Layton, Jr., Mrs. Anne Macdonald Lee, Harry Heyward Nettles, Charles Marvin Malpass, Mrs. Grace Ingfer Walker, Alvin Merrill Whitmore, Charles David Watts, James Todd Compton, George Ivan Beatty, Ronald David Corley, Edwin Thompson Cunningham, Gay Marlene DeYoung.

Also, Harriet Elizabeth Hudson, Julia Somerville Gray, Ralph C. Hunter, Albert Hinson, Jr., Robert Gary DeLoach, Robert Louis Carley, Herbert Franklin Adair, William Franklin Haselden, Thomas P. Linger, Lykes S. Henderson, Earl Lonzo Horton, Mrs. Lou Cornwell Horton, James Terry Hughes, Everette Leon Hedgepath.

From Joanna — James Robert Franks, Benjamin F. Jones, Marion Copeland Whitmore.

From Cross Hill—Thomas Clayton Coates and David Hitt Cromer.

Henry C. King, 67, Dies Suddenly At Lydia Mill Home

Henry C. King, 67, died suddenly at his home at Lydia Mill Tuesday afternoon from a heart attack.

He was a native of Newberry County but had made his home in Laurens County for 21 years. He was a son of the late Milton and Lula Campbell King and was a member of Lydia Mill Baptist Church.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Myrtle Gott King of Lydia Mill, 3 sons, Henry W. King of Nashville, Tenn., and Kelly C. and Chesley King, both of Clinton, 4 daughters, Mrs. Carrie G. Smith of Lawton, Okla.; Mrs. Myrtle Brewington, of Laurens; Mrs. Nellis Gray Motes, of Joanna; Mrs. Mary A. Kay of Clinton, 16 grandchildren, 5 sisters, Mrs. Sallie Craft, of Nashville, Tenn.; Mrs. Anne Woods, of Newberry; Mrs. Lula Lell of Laurens; Mrs. Ruth Cotran and Mrs. Nellie James; and 2 brothers, Pirl and James M. King, all of Newberry.

Funeral services will be conducted Thursday at 3 p. m. at Lydia Mill Baptist Church by Rev. Milford Sanders. Burial will be in Rosemont Cemetery.

The body is at the home.

JAYCEE-ETTES MEET 20TH

The Clinton Jaycee-Ettes will meet on the 20th with Mrs. James Barnes. All Jaycee-Ettes are asked to meet at the home of Mrs. Ted Prevatie, 507 Musgrove street, and then go to Mrs. Barnes' home.

Miss Lillie Mae Aughtry (foreground) and her mother, Mrs. T. S. Aughtry, of Lyman, are shown putting the final touches to the former's collection of dolls at the Joanna Hobby and Craft Fair on Friday.—Photo by John H. Hunter.