SAY VOWS ON SATURDAY

On Saturday, October 8 in the presence of relatives and close friends of Miss Brenda Joyce Sandford became the bride of William Alvin Bagwell at 7 p. m. at the First Baptist Church in Joanna.

Rev. James B. Mitchell officiated using the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Bagwell chose for her wedding dress white lace over taffeta with full gathered ballerina length skirt. The bodice featured a high cowl neckline in front forming a low V in the back. The sleeves were three-quarter length ending in points. Her head piece was lace ruffles with shoulder length veil. The corsage she wore was blue and white carnations with matching ribbons.

Mrs. Bagwell is the daughter of Victor Basil Sandford and the late Mrs. Sandford, of Joanna.

After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Bagwell are now making their home in Joanna.

OBITUARIES

Miss O'Dell, dressed in a black sheath frock featuring a cerise cummerbund and matching shoes, graciously acknowledged the courtesy as she opened and passed around for all to enjoy the many lovely and useful gifts for her new home in Charlotte, North Carolina.

Bridal bingo was enjoyed, following which the guests were invited into the private dining room of the club. From a prettily appointed table covered in green with an overlay of white organdy, iced punch was served by Mrs. Carter and bridal cake squares by Miss Moseley. Green and yellow mints and assorted nuts were passed by Misses Mary Beth Stroud and Mary Lou Simpson. Further carrying out the color scheme of yellow and white was a handsome center arrangement of snapdragons in a silver container.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. C. D. Pitts, Mrs. W. C. Milam, Mrs. Jack Pitts, Mrs. Jimmy Braswell, Mrs. Kenneth Hasekien, Mrs. Frank Boland, Sr., Mrs. Frank Boland, Jr., and Mrs. Frank Simpson, Sr., all of Clinton.

Miss O'Dell's approaching marriage to Jerry Pitts, of Clinton, has been announced for November 19 at Epworth Methodist Church. She has been honored with a number of pre-wedding courtesies.

ELIMINATE NERVOUSNESS GET WELL AGAIN

Yes, you can eliminate those jumpy, anxious days that play havoc with your stomach, give you headaches, and leave you wide open for ulcers, heart trouble and other serious ills.

No longer will the cold sweats, the butterflies and burning leave you with a ruined digestion and an all-over "sickish" feeling. You will find yourself meeting situations with unshakable calm when the nervous system is functioning smoothly.

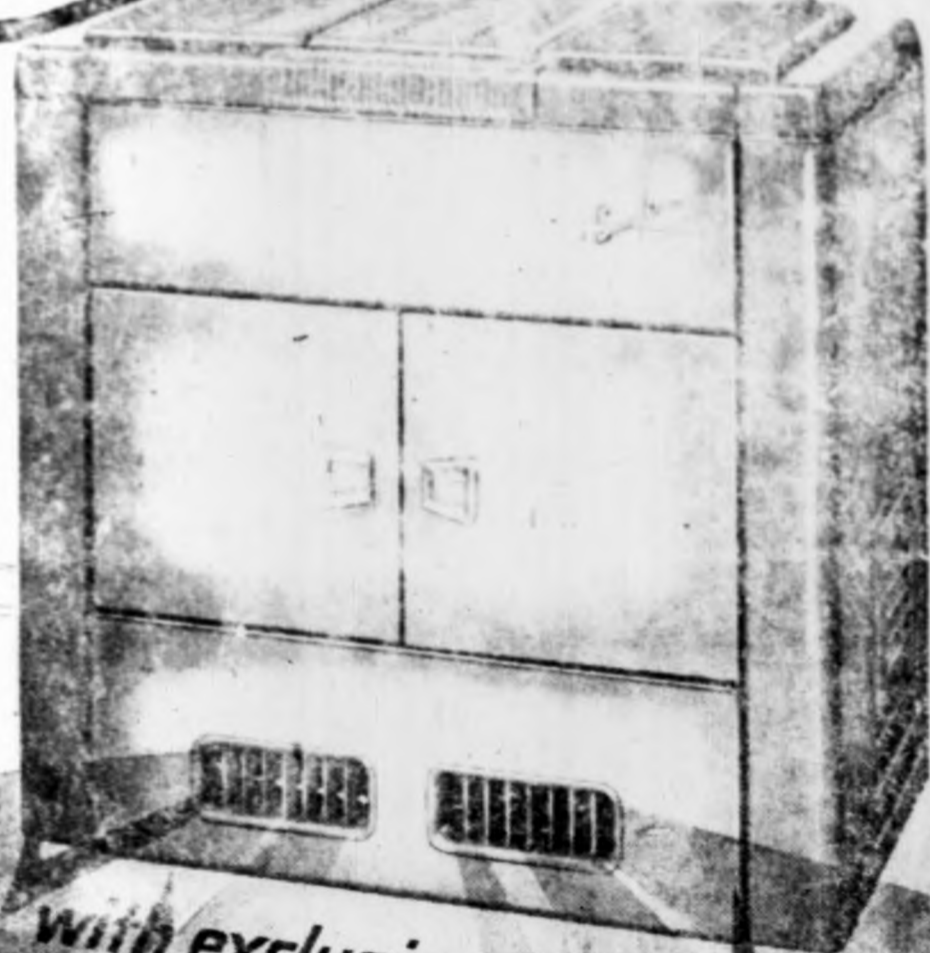

Simply call 22501 or 2723 or go to the Hart Clinic at 205 Church St., Laurens, S. C., for a consultation without obligation or charge. There you will find a method of correcting nervousness based on unassailable facts and logic.
