

Funeral Services For Mrs. Boyette Held On Monday

Mrs. Lois Rogers Boyette, 51, died at 11:30 a. m. Saturday afternoon in a fire that destroyed her home near Clinton.

She was a native of Spartanburg County, but had lived in or near Clinton for the past 20 years. She was a daughter of Mrs. Fannie Rogers Massey of Salisbury, N. C., and the late John Rogers. She was a member of the Fairmont Methodist Church in Spartanburg.

She was married twice, first to Sam Thomas Bradley. Surviving from this union are a son, Frank Bradley of Florida, and a daughter, Mrs. Marie Roberts, of Kansas. Also surviving are her husband, L. A. Boyette; and another son, William E. Boyette of the U. S. Army in Texas; her mother; three step-daughters, Mrs. Margaret Ross of Phenix City, Ala.; Mrs. William Partridge of Meridian, Miss.; and Mrs. Pauline Smith of Leakesville, N. C.; two step-sons, Eddie Boyette of Gaffney; and Russell E. Boyette of Memphis, Tenn.; a sister, Mrs. Sally Nichols of Spartanburg; three brothers, A. A. Rogers and D. L. Rogers of Spartanburg; and Johnny Rogers of Hendersonville, N. C.; 18 grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted Monday at 3:30 p. m. at the Fairmont Methodist Church in Spartanburg by Rev. Robert Robinson, Rev. J. W. Spillers and Rev. Harry McAbee. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Pallbearers were Arthur Davis, Fred Shelton, Arthur Sanders, Tom Smith, George Price, Dewey Lawrence, Robie Chandler and Leo Riser.

Bell Street School Homecoming Set For Tomorrow

The Bell Street High School football team will observe its homecoming Friday, November 4, at Henry-Young Stadium at 8:00 p. m. The homecoming activities will include a parade which will feature floats from the various merchants and schools. Included also will be Miss Bell Street High, Judith Young, and Miss Homecoming, Linda Kinard. A special feature of the parade will be bands from Bryson High of Fountain Inn, Gallman High of Newberry, Sims High of Union, Sanders High of Laurens, Lexington-Rosenwald High of Lexington, and Bell Street High. The parade will start promptly at 4:30 p. m.

The halftime activities of the homecoming football game will include shows and performances by Lexington-Rosenwald High School band and Sims High School band of Union.

The Wildcats will go into this game with a 2-0 record in conference competition. A win will give them the undisputed District 1 championship. The starting lineup for the Wildcats will be: Floyd Nelson, LE; John (Bop Daddy) Gibbs, LT; Willie Richey, LG; Roger Griffin, C; Augusta Simpson, RG; Jimmy Jenkins, William Martin, R. T.; Ronnie Simpson, RE; Samuel Cromer, RH; Willie Golden, LH; James Boyd, FB; and Frank Bartee, QB. The coaches are Willie E. Little, head coach, and C. Davenport, assistant coach. Kickoff time is 8:00 p. m.

Brenda Sharpe, a 4-H member for six years, and Clara Belle both received recognition at the achievement luncheon in Columbia October 21. Kathy Snelgrove, Sandra Mills, and Norma Davidson went to the Golden Jubilee in New York October 29. As they spend a week in New York, they will be representing the Horizon Clubs of the Clinton District.

Included in their visit will be visits to the United Nations building and the Rockefeller Center.

Wayne Morgan and Linda Barron, president and vice-president of the CHS student council, represented Clinton High October 31-November 2 at the State Student Council Convention at Daniel High School, Clemson. Mrs. S. A. Timmons, who is the Student Council sponsor, accompanied Wayne and Linda.

Last week-end the Mighty Red beat the Newberry Bulldogs only to draw us near the Eastern AA championship title. David Estes, Gary Sprouse and Judge Vaughan, three senior players who had not been dressing out because they were injured, returned to help defeat Newberry.
