Methodist Women Hold Joint Meeting, Contribute To Home

Meeting jointly in Hodges Hall on Monday evening the circles and Woman's Society of Christian Service of Broad Street Methodist Church made contributions to the Methodist Home for the Aging in Orangeburg. As the members arrived bills were pinned on a Christmas tree.

Mrs. Robert W. Anderson, president of the WSCS, presided over a short business session. The Christmas program, led by Mrs. J. B. Arnold, included Scripture, prayer; a Christmas story, "The Star," Mrs. B. B. Ballard; and "Let's Keep Christmas," Mrs. Arnold.

Miss Theda Sublett, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Joel E. Cannon, sang two solos and later the group joined in singing carols.

The fellowship committee, with several members from each circle assisting, entertained with a social hour following the program. Mrs. Cannon poured tea which was served with cheese biscuit, cookies, candies, and nuts. Lighted tapers in crystal holders flanked a centerpiece of berries, greenery and red gladioli. Elsewhere in the hall were arrangements of greens and berries.

UDC Members Remember Daughter

At the annual Christmas party of the Stephen D. Lee Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, members brought gifts for their adopted Confederate daughter, Mrs. Ida Price of Columbia.

Mrs. Frank Miller, assisted by Mrs. Henry Young, Mrs. Ralph Copeland; and Mrs. T. C. Johnson, was hostess for the meeting at her home on South Broad St. Gifts were exchanged during the evening and Mrs. Fred Holcombe read a Christmas story. Sandwiches, punch and cake were served.

For the occasion red berries, greens, red tapers, a miniature tree and lighted Santa were used.

Guy A. Tumblin, Jr., Celebrates Birthday

Guy Adair Tumblin, Jr., celebrated his 6th birthday Monday with a party at the First Baptist Church kindergarten.

The handsome birthday cake was baked by his grandmother, Mrs. Guy Tumblin, who assisted Mrs. J. A. Orr, kindergarten director, in entertaining and serving the little folk. Ice cream was served with cake squares. Souvenirs of party balloons and hats were given to the fifteen kindergarten friends enjoying the occasion.

PC Economics Major Speaks at Club Meet

Douglas McDougal of Anderson, a senior economics major at Presbyterian College, was the guest speaker on Tuesday afternoon for the December meeting of the Century Club which was held at the home of Mrs. T. Layton Fraser.

Mr. McDougal discussed job opportunities in leading industries in South Carolina. He gave statistics comparing South Carolina per capita income with other states, citing recent progress.

Group Continues Mission Study

Continuing a study on foreign missions, Mrs. J. B. Hart led the program for the December meeting of the Women of the Church, which was held Monday afternoon at the Parish House.

Mrs. Hart told something of the history of Liberia, its present political and economic status and of the Episcopal mission there.

Announcement was made of the annual Diocesan convention to be held at Grace Methodist Church in Anderson January 17 and 18. Mrs. James Macdonald was appointed to replace Mrs. Newton Jones on the library committee.

Club To Arrange Native Greens

The December meeting of the Yellow Jessamine Garden Club will be held on Thursday afternoon, December 15, at the home of Mrs. M. C. Duncan, York street, in Pitts Meadows. Mrs. John Madden will be co-hostess. Each member will bring an arrangement of native greens for the Christmas season. The arrangements will be on a religious theme and may include figurines.

Wednesday Club Is Entertained

Entertaining members of her Wednesday Club, Mrs. Samie Pinson was hostess for two tables of bridge last week at her home on Elm street.

A dessert course was served before the games. When scores were counted prizes were presented Mrs. Carl Wessinger and Mrs. Milford Smith.

Colorful fruit and dried arrangements made a pretty setting for the tables.

Miss Frances Webb, Ace W. Watkins Married November 19

Miss Frances Webb, a member of the Clinton Schools faculty, was married to Ace W. Watkins of Newberry, on Saturday, November 19, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon at the Chestnut Hill Baptist Church, Saluda.

The Rev. M. B. Webb of Ridge Spring, performed the ceremony. Music was furnished by Mrs. B. A. Webb and Johnny Goff of Saluda.

Since her graduation from Erskine College, Mrs. Watkins has taught in Saluda County and Aiken city schools and now teaches at Hampton Avenue School here.

Mr. Watkins, who attended Clemson College, is employed by the South Carolina Public Service Commission. They are now at home at 1701 Evans Street, Newberry.

Mr. and Mrs. Watkins Honored Saturday With Dinner Party

Complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Ace W. Watkins, of Newberry, who were recently married, Miss Agnes Davis, Mrs. J. B. Speake and Miss Ella Little McCrary entertained on Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Raymond Pitts with a dinner party.

Greenery with berries decorated the living room. Centering the table in the dining room where places were laid for twelve was a reflected arrangement of pink and white carnations in a silver container. These were placed on a delicate green cover.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Webb of Saluda, Miss Elizabeth Keith and Sunny Keith of Chappells.

The hostesses presented Mr. and Mrs. Watkins with a gift of silver.

Drop-In Honors Mr. and Mrs. Pitts

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Reid Pitts of Charlotte, N. C., who were recently married, were honored here on Sunday afternoon when the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Daniel Pitts, also Mr. and Mrs. Russell Braswell, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Donald Pitts, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee Edwards of Columbia entertained members of the two families at a drop-in in Hodges Hall.

Palms, urns of greenery with berries decorated the hall. Centering the beautifully appointed refreshment table was a white wedding bell with red gladioli used in spray effect. Coffee and fruit cake were served. Mrs. F. M. Boland poured coffee and Mrs. John Bell served cake.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Pitts greeted the guests and the register was kept by Mrs. W. C. Milam. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Pitts bade the guests goodbye.

B&PW Dinner and Christmas Program At Mary Musgrove

A lovely program on "Christmas In Other Lands," arranged by Mrs. Grace League Connor, was presented on Tuesday evening after the dinner meeting of the Clinton Business and Professional Women's Club at the Mary Musgrove Hotel.

The tables were arranged in a T shape and adorned with exquisite angels, candles, figurines, and antique ornaments from various countries. On other tables items from these countries were displayed, which Mrs. Grace Connor, program chairman, had collected from various countries.

A traditional German "grab bag" was opened and members were given candies which it contained. A gift from Hamilton's was also presented each member.

Countries featured on the program and those representing them in native costume and with stories were: Austria, Miss Essie Davidson; Germany, Mrs. Connor; Italy, Mrs. Margaret Lockett; France, Mrs. Jim Buzhardt; England, Mrs. W. W. Harris; Ireland, Mrs. R. G. Wenn; Holland, Miss Margaret Blakely; Switzerland, Mrs. Laura Mae Howard; Denmark, Mrs. P. M. Pitts; Sweden, Mrs. Frances Warner; Norway, Mrs. A. B. Davidson; Poland, Mrs. W. J. Crews; Russia, Mrs. J. K. Haselden; Syria, Mrs. D. A. Yarborough; Palestine, Miss Barnett Spratt; Spain, Mrs. R. W. Johnson; Mexico, Mrs. Jerry Wingo.

During a short business session announcement was made of the workshop which will be held January 28 and 29 at the Russell House in Columbia. This will take the place of the winter board meeting.
