

The Clinton Chronicle

Vol. 64 — No. 4

Clinton, S. C., Thursday, January 24, 1963

Clinton Men Get Scout Awards

Recognized for outstanding service to Scouting at a District meeting Friday night were, left to right, Calvin Cooper, 10-year pin; W. C. Baldwin, 10-year pin; L. L. Stanley, chief executive of the Blue Ridge Council of Greenville, who presented the awards; and Dr. D. O. Rhame, 25-year pin.—Photo by Jimmy Cooper.

Mothers March Leader Named; Others Give Plans

Mrs. Herman Jackson was named this week to head up the annual Mother's March for the March of Dimes, according to drive chairman, Dr. Fred E. Holcombe.

The Mother's March has been scheduled for Friday, February 1, beginning at 7 p. m.

Mrs. Ralph Tedards will serve as assistant chairman of this event in the March of Dimes campaign.

The Teen-age Division, headed by Sister Blalock and Janet Hamer, have planned a dance at the Clinton High School gym for Saturday, January 26, at 8 p. m., for students of the high school and the junior high.

The dance promises many "surprises" according to the chairman and will feature hit tunes from WPCC.

Sandwiches and soft drinks will be available at the dance.

On February 2 the Teens will hold a car wash at various service stations in the area.

Betty Stroud and Kathy Salter are chairmen of the teen drive in Joana.

The Civitan Club, under the chairmanship of Gene King, will have a "Tunes for Tots" program in front of Efrid's on Saturday afternoon, beginning at 2:30 p. m.

John Burgess of Presbyterian College will be playing an organ, furnished by Vernon's of Clinton, in benefit of the March of Dimes. This event will be held the following Saturday in case of bad weather.

Clinton's Jaycees have scheduled a roadblock on Sunday afternoon, January 27 in the downtown area, to solicit funds

Asked To Return Music Material

Members of the Clinton Community Chorus who have failed to return music material used in the Christmas program are asked to bring it to the local post office to the librarian, W. S. Horne. It is requested that this be done as soon as possible in order that inventory records may be completed.

Adult Sewing Classes Begin On January 28

The adult sewing class will begin next Monday, January 28, at 7:30 p. m. at the Clinton High School. Instructions for beginners and advanced clothing construction will be given. There will be no charge for the classes. They are sponsored by School District 56 and the State Department of Education.

State Legislators Adopt Resolution Praising Whitten

The State House of Representatives adopted a resolution Tuesday commending Dr. B. O. Whitten of Whitten Village, for his work with retarded children.

Speaker Solomon Blatt and 20 other members of the House signed the resolution, which will be sent to the Senate for concurrence.

Dr. Whitten was commended for his "tireless efforts and valuable services" to the state and to "many of its unfortunate children."

The House endorsement of Dr. Whitten follows recent news features which questioned conditions at the school for retarded children here.

Members Assigned Prospects' Names

Prospects were assigned to members of the membership committee of the Chamber of Commerce at a meeting Monday morning at the Hotel Mary Musgrove.

The committee will be working until February 5 under the leadership of Francis Blalock. Members include: Thomas Baldwin, Charles Buice, Dan Orr, Davis Pitts, J. A. Orr, W. R. Pitts, Jr., D. O. Rhame, Wyman Shealy, Sloan Todd, Ray Pitts, and Jim Von Hollen.

MRS. HERMAN JACKSON

for the March of Dimes.

Lynn Cooper, Jr., chairman of the Advance Gifts committee, asked this week that all solicitors who have not turned in their reports to do so as soon as possible.

Teen chairmen Sister Blalock and Janet Hamer expressed their appreciation this week to everyone who cooperated in the presentation of the faculty-student basketball game Saturday evening.

"We had standing room only!" they said, "And everyone had a wonderful time. We sold out of doughnuts at 2 p. m. on Saturday."

Scouts Receive Awards In Monday Honor Court

Twenty-three local Scouters were given awards and promotions at the Laurens District, Blue Ridge Council, Court of Honor, held Monday evening at the Broad Street Methodist Church.

Ralph Tedards of Clinton, Advancement Chairman of the district, presided.

Receiving promotion to Second Class were the following members of Troop 111, Clinton: Jim Johnson, Gus Ramage, III, Jimmy Bedenbaugh, John L. Ledford, Rocky Gooch and Buzzy Tedards.

Promoted to First Class were Jeff O'Dell of Troop 75, Joana, and Ben Hammett, Troop 111, Clinton.

Tommy Lawson, Ronnie Davncourt, and Lloyd Altig, all of Troop 75, Joana, were promoted to Life Scouters.

Bill Williams and George Copeland of Troop 174, Clinton, received the promotion to Star.

Merit badges were awarded to Troop 75, Joana members as follows: Citizenship in the home, home repairs and swimming to Howard Marshall; Camping to Jim Abrams, Safety to Steve Lehman, and Hiking to Billy Byars.

Troop 90, Clinton, members and their merit badges were: Camping, First Aid, and Safety to Marion Waters; Athletics to Francis Cooper, and Camping to Frank Gaskins.

George Copeland, Troop 174, Clinton, received the First Aid merit badge.

Troop 111 members and their merit badges were: Public Speaking; Tom E. Baldwin, Jr., Business and Citizenship in the Nation to Harry Sullivan, Swimming to Dicky Fakkema and Gary Campbell.

Local Men Receive Scouting Awards

Presentation of service awards highlighted the meeting Friday of the Laurens District Committee, Blue Ridge Council, Boy Scouts of America.

The group met at the Carolina Steak House in Laurens. W. C. Baldwin, district chairman, presided.

L. L. Stanley, Scout Executive of the Blue Ridge Council, of Greenville presented awards to the following: Calvin Cooper, 10 years; W. C. Baldwin, 10 years; and Dr. D. O. Rhame, 25 years.

Operating committees of the organization will be headed in 1963 by: Avery Smith, Clinton, Organization and Extension; Phil Rogers, Clinton, Camping and Activities; Ralph Tedards, Clinton, Advancement; Dr. D. O. Rhame, Clinton, Health and Safety; Lawrence Edwards, Laurens, Leadership Training; and J. R. Noble, Laurens, Finance.

L. W. Gratz is District Commissioner, while S. S. Williams serves as vice chairman.

Services Today For Mrs. L. S. Henderson

Funeral services for Mrs. Blanche Adair Henderson, 69, will be held this (Thursday) afternoon at 2:30 at Gray Funeral Home, Dr. W. Redd Turner, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, will officiate. Burial will be in Rosemont Cemetery.

Pallbearers will be Francis Blalock, George H. Young, Henry M. Young, Jr., R. C. Adair, Jr., Duckett Adair and Ed Brown.

The family is at the home on North Woodrow Street.

Mrs. Henderson died suddenly Tuesday night.

She was the daughter of the late Frank and Donna Young Adair. Her husband, Lewis S. Henderson, died in 1944.

Surviving are two sons, Lykes S. Henderson, of Lake Greenwood, and Bee H. Henderson, of the U. S. Air Force, stationed in England; two daughters, Mrs. Fuller Reese of Clinton, and Mrs. Marion Brown of Lexington, N. C.; 15 grandchildren and one great-grandchild; five brothers, R. C. Adair and I. Mac Adair of Clinton, Rutledge P. Adair of Rock Hill, O. Duckett Adair of Columbia, and James F. Adair of Bethesda, Md.; and two sisters, Mrs. Paul H. Burroughs of Suncoek, N. H., and Mrs. C. E. Griggs of Arlington, Va.

2nd Shop-At-Home Contest Will Close On February 10

The second "Why I Like To Shop At Home" letter contest, sponsored by The Chronicle in connection with the Trade At Home page which runs every other week in this paper, closes on February 10.

Twenty-five dollars in merchandise certificates will be awarded to the letter chosen as best by a panel of judges.

Entries should be written on a card or letter telling in 50 words or less why you like to trade at home. Mail your entry to Trade At Home, The Clinton Chronicle, Clinton, S. C.

Every week that the page appears, ten names are to be found among the advertisements.

Every week the page runs, the names of ten people who will receive a free ticket. And don't forget to write your letter on why you like to shop at home — you may be $25.00 richer.

Scout Training Sessions Set For Laurens

The First Methodist Church of Laurens will be the scene of a Boy Scout Leadership training session beginning Monday, January 28, at 8 p. m.

Sessions will continue on the following two Mondays, at the same site and time.

The course will be conducted by Bill Brackett of Clinton, district Scout executive.

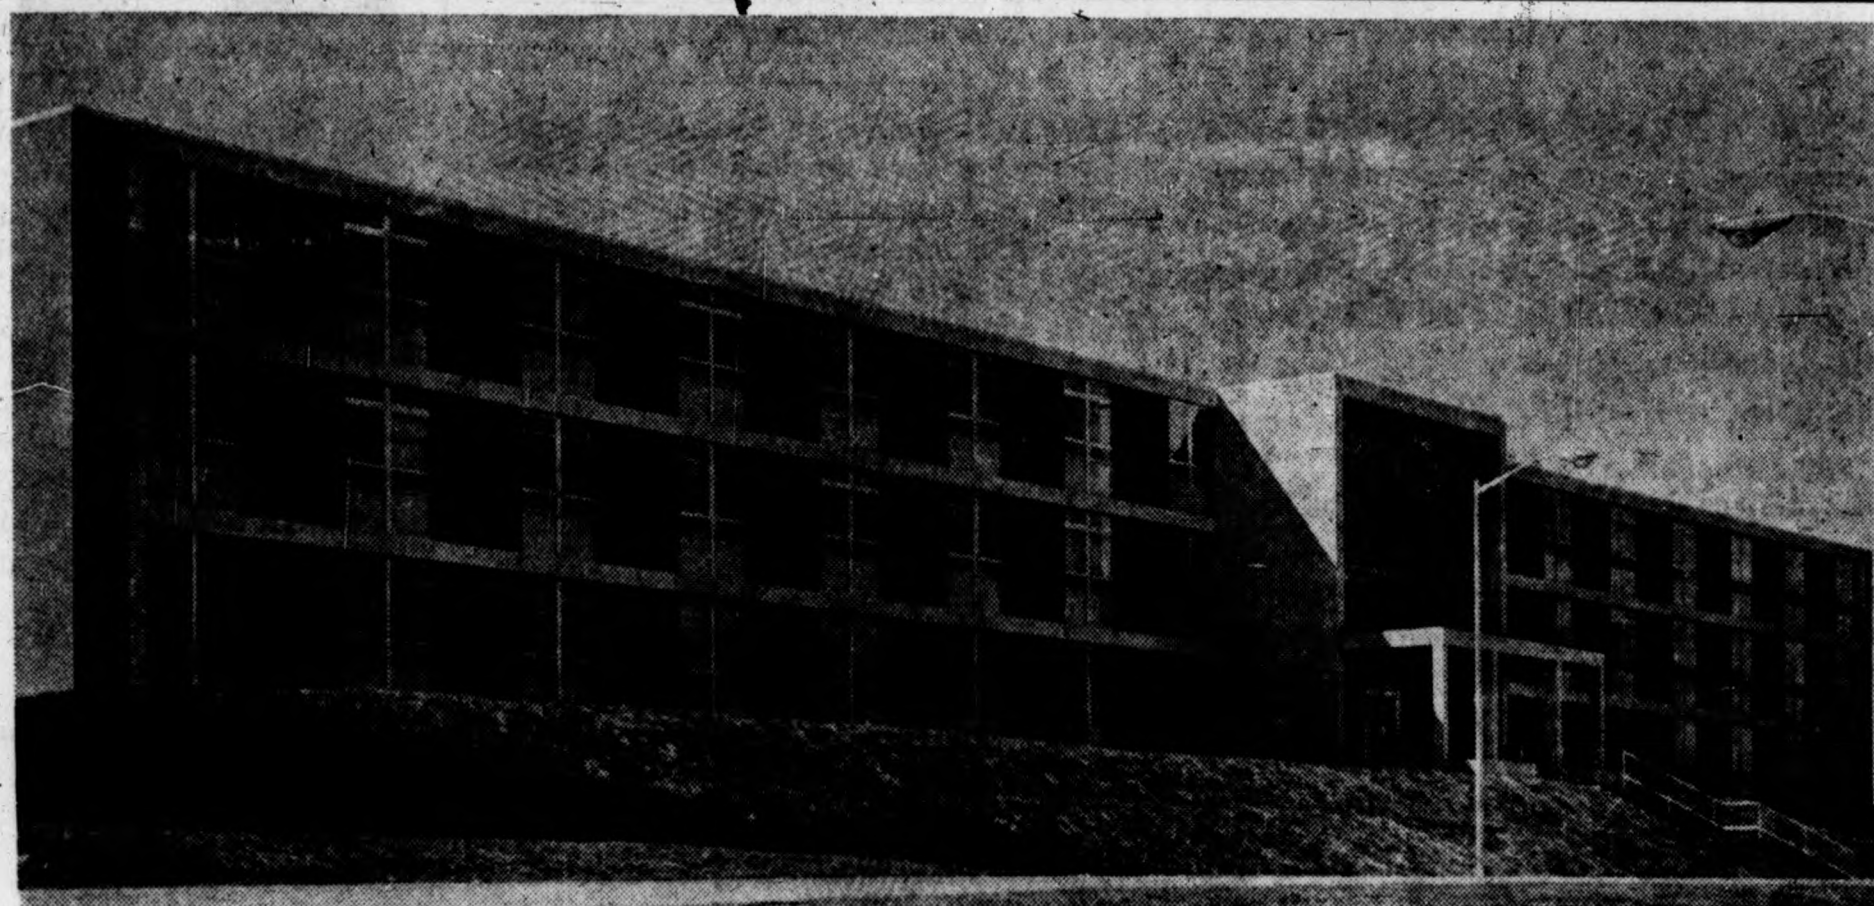

He invited all persons working with Scouting to attend the training meets.

Mountville Grange Holds January Meet

Mountville Grange No. 632 held its regular monthly meeting on January 17, 1963 at the Grange Hall.

Following the opening of the meeting with the Grange ritual the lecturer, Mrs. A. J. Finley presented a program on "Know Your Grange". She was assisted by Mrs. P. H. Miller and Mrs. Bob Adams.

During a social hour delicious pound cake and soft drinks were served.

NEW HOSPITAL AT INSTITUTION

—Yarborough Photo

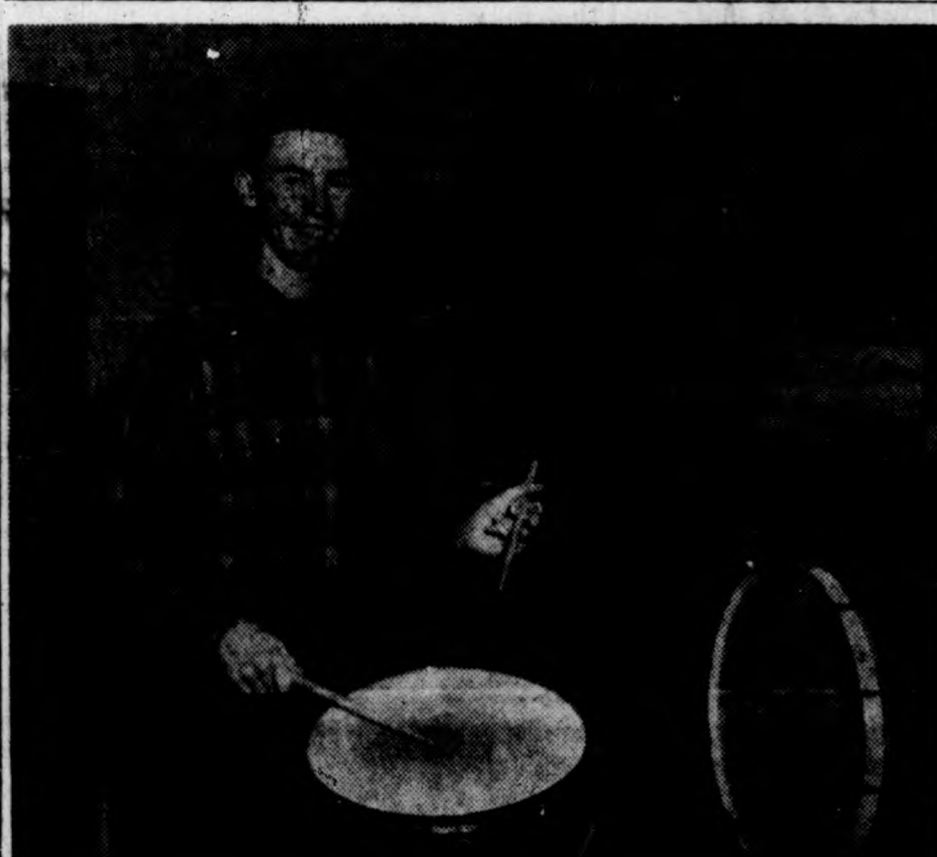

Lions Club To Hear H. J. Neal of ETV

Guest speaker at the January meeting of the Lions Club will be H. J. Neal, assistant director of the South Carolina Educational TV Centre. Mr. Neal will tell of South Carolina's leadership in this new medium of education.

The meeting will be at 7:00 p. m. at the Hotel Mary Musgrove Friday, January 25.

Brotherhood Meeting At Pleasant Grove

The Quarterly Associational Brotherhood meeting of the Laurens County Baptist will be held Tuesday evening, January 29 at 7:30 p. m. with the Pleasant Grove Baptist Church, located about three miles from Fountain Inn to Gray Court on the frontage road. Max Rice is to be the guest speaker. All men are cordially invited to attend.

CHS Drummer Captures First Place In the State

Jim Adair of Clinton, has been named as first drummer in the Senior All-State Band, making him South Carolina's top high school drummer.

The Clinton high student was selected from a group of more than eighty of the state's finest drummers. He is the first Clinton High School band member to be selected for the Senior All-State Band.

Auditions for the Junior and Senior All-State Band were held earlier this month at the A. C. Flora High School in Columbia.

Hap McSween, Tommy Sanders and Ricky Sanders all received places in the clinic band, while Bobby Powell made the Junior All-State Band.

Harry Bouknight, band director at Clinton High, served as auditioner in the reed section.

The All-State Bands will have practices on January 25 and 26 at Furman University, Greenville. After rehearsing for two days, the three bands will climax the event with concerts on Sunday, January 27.

Whitten Village Volunteers To Hear Dr. Kilgore Tuesday

Dr. Samuel R. Kilgore, director of the Spartanburg Mental Health Clinic, will address the Whitten Village Volunteer Service on Tuesday, January 29, at 9:30 a. m.

The meeting, scheduled for the Whitten Village School auditorium, is open to the public. A thirty-minute bus tour of the village is planned following the meeting.

Dr. Kilgore, a psychiatrist, became director of the Spartanburg Mental Health Clinic in August of 1949. He is a native of Woodruff and a graduate of The Citadel and Duke Medical School.

He had three years residence in psychiatry at Duke two in Army psychiatry, and two years as a fellow in psychosomatic medicine at Duke.

Certified by the American Board of Psychiatrists, Dr. Kilgore has taught in the psychiatric department of the University of Miami.

Sunday Afternoon

Whitten Village To Dedicate Hospital

Balladeer Next In Concert Series

Clinton's second concert attraction of the current season, under the sponsorship of the Community Concert Association will be William Clauson, balladeer.

The program will be presented on February 4 at 8:15 in Belk Auditorium.

The mid-January concert, listed on the back of membership tickets, will be held on April 18, when Robert Hamilton, pianist, will be presented in concert. The change was made due to conflicting dates.

Elections Slated At TB Annual Meet Here On Wednesday

Invitations to the annual meeting of the Tuberculosis and Health Association of Greenwood-Laurens Counties are being issued this week by mail and by telephone, according to John Drummond of Ninety Six. Drummond is serving as chairman of the Attendance Committee.

He stated that this is the first annual meeting of the bi-county group which formally combined on April 1, 1962.

The meeting will be held at the Mary Musgrove Hotel in Clinton at 7:30 on Thursday, January 31.

Dr. Martin M. Teague of Laurens will discuss "The Association's Role in Respiratory Diseases". Dr. Teague is currently serving as president of the South Carolina Thoracic Society.

Seventeen directors and an Executive Committee will be elected.

Others serving on the Attendance Committee with Mr. Drummond include: Mrs. C. Bruce Barksdale of Greenwood, Dr. R. S. Cooper and Mrs. R. H. Roper of Laurens, Miss Inez Tucker of Clinton and W. K. Waits of Joana.

J. Allen Thompson, Jr. of Laurens is general chairman for the annual meeting.

Marjorie Arnold Honored At CHS

Marjorie Arnold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Arnold, has been chosen Student of the Month. She has been a member of the FHA for four years and has attended two national FHA conventions—one in St. Louis, Mo., and one in Salt Lake City, Utah. Last June she was a delegate to Palmetto Girls State and this year she is a member of the National Honor Society, district president of the FHA, and co-editor of the Clintonian, and a National Merit Scholarship semifinalist.

Whitten Village's new $1,000,000 hospital will be dedicated in ceremonies to be held Sunday afternoon. The public is invited to view the structure and its facilities at an open house from 3:30 to 5:30, according to Dr. B. O. Whitten, superintendent of the state school.

The new hospital is the third facility on the campus to provide hospitalization for the more than 2,000 residents of the Village.

The three-story building is located to the left of the drive to the Circle at the north end of the front campus. Of concrete, steel and brick construction, it contains 73 beds. Cost of equipment came to $70,000, and the new unit is modern in every respect. In addition to patients' rooms, it contains treatment rooms, laboratory and X-ray facilities.

A dentistry section is also provided, together with offices for physicians and the administrator, S. Cantey Gordon.

Charles J. Craig Construction Co. of Columbia was the general contractor. Baker and Gill, architects of Florence, designed the structure and supervised construction.

Those attending from Clinton will include Mrs. Grace Conner, Mrs. R. W. Johnson, Mrs. P. M. Pitts, Miss Essie Davidson, Mrs. Tan Ray, Mr. Margaret Lockett, Mrs. Dessie Jean Roberts, and Mrs. Robert Johnson.

The conference will feature outstanding speakers and discussion groups, climaxing with a banquet program when the South Carolina Woman of the Year will be named.

"Action Today — Effective Tomorrow" is the theme of the conference.

B&PW Members To Attend Conference

The third annual Educational Conferences sponsored by the South Carolina Business and Professional Women's Clubs in cooperation with the University of South Carolina, will be held on Saturday at the University.

Those attending from Clinton will include Mrs. Grace Conner, Mrs. R. W. Johnson, Mrs. P. M. Pitts, Miss Essie Davidson, Mrs. Tan Ray, Mr. Margaret Lockett, Mrs. Dessie Jean Roberts, and Mrs. Robert Johnson.

The conference will feature outstanding speakers and discussion groups, climaxing with a banquet program when the South Carolina Woman of the Year will be named.

"Action Today — Effective Tomorrow" is the theme of the conference.

Mayor Cornwall Is Patient At Hospital

Mayor J. J. Cornwall of Clinton is a patient in Bailey Memorial hospital. Admitted last week, he is receiving medical treatment and also has an infected foot. He is expected to be confined to the hospital for an indefinite period.

He is not yet receiving visitors, it was stated.

Cornelson Presented Award By Jaycees

George Cornelison, center, admires the Distinguished Service Award for 1962 presented to him Tuesday night by the Jaycees. At left is Ralph Tedards, winner of the award in 1961 who made the presentation, and Russell Emerson, president of the Clinton Jaycee, is at right.

judges to choose the young man between 21-36 years old who has rendered outstanding service to his community.

The award was made following the third annual Bosses Night banquet held at Vernon's of Clinton. John Holland Hunter was the guest speaker of the evening.—Photo by Yarborough.

Faculty, Students Have Fun For MOD

Fun reigned Saturday night at the Clinton High gym during a faculty versus student basketball game for benefit of the March of Dimes, sponsored by the Teen-Age Division.

At left Sandra Huggins, Mary Nettles and Mrs. Ben Hay Hammet gaze wonderingly at the ceiling, but are actually going for a rebound.

At right, spoofing first aid to an "injured" player, "Doctor" Billy Sullivan, with the assistance of referee Ralph Tedards, try to get Belinda Leonard on the "operating table." Mrs. Robert Johnson lies on the floor following her turn at medical aid.