Bride-Elect Is Entertained Here

Mrs. Roy Gasque of this city, Mrs. Harold Martin and Mrs. John Hill of Ware Shoals entertained on Saturday with a luncheon in honor of Miss Mary McDaniel December bride-elect, of Hickory Tavern, at the Cecil Wilson Home on Ansel Drive.

A Fall motif prevailed in floral decoration throughout the home. The honoree was remembered with a corsage of yellow chrysanthemums and a gift of silver by the hostesses.

Hollis Speaks To Women-of-Church

The Women of the Church held its monthly meeting Nov. 16 at the First Presbyterian Church, with Mrs. George H. Brockenbrough presiding.

The speaker was Thomas F. Hollis, ruling elder in the church and recent co-chairman of neighborhood stewardship meetings.

Hollis spoke on Christian stewardship as the "practice of systematic and proportionate giving of time, ability and material" to the Lord.

After the talk members present were served refreshments in the recreation room by Mrs. Roy Suber's circle.

Power-Huey Rehearsal Party

Immediately following the rehearsal on Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Huey entertained the members of the Power-Huey wedding party with dinner at the Clinton Community Center.

Dinner was served buffet style from a prettily appointed table overlaid with a pink and white cover caught at intervals with tiny pink rosebuds. Centering the table was an arrangement of fugi mums and pink chrysanthemums flanked with lighted tapers.

Guests were seated at individual tables which were similarly decorated.

Assisting in entertaining was Mrs. Ray Bragg of Joanna. Among the guests were the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Ray Power and grandmother, Mrs. Burdette, of Laurens.

American Legion Auxiliary Hears Talks On Civil Defense

The November meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. P. M. Pitts. Mrs. L. O. Thornley, Mrs. L. Ray Pitts, Mrs. Joe Terry and Miss Florrie Burdette were assistant hostesses.

Mrs. P. M. Pitts, president, presided over the short business session after the meeting was called to order. S. Carl Chaney introduced Charles Gray, Paul Burnette and James Kinard of the Laurens County Rescue Squad who talked on Civil Defense.

It was announced that the gift shop would be open from December 7 to 11 at the Veterans Hospital. Anyone interested may go to assist during these days.

The meeting adjourned with "America," recited by the group. Hot punch and party dainties were served by the hostesses.

Miss Smith Given Bridal Parties

Miss Frances Smith was entertained Saturday morning, Nov. 14th, with a morning coffee given by Mrs. Elden Bullington at her home on Lansdown Road, Charlotte, N. C. between the hours of 10:30 and 11:30.

Miss Smith, who will be married to George Richard Wells on November 27th, was presented a corsage of yellow mums.

Bouquets of yellow and white daisies were used throughout the receiving rooms.

Each of the 20 guests received miniature rice bags wrapped in yellow tulle.

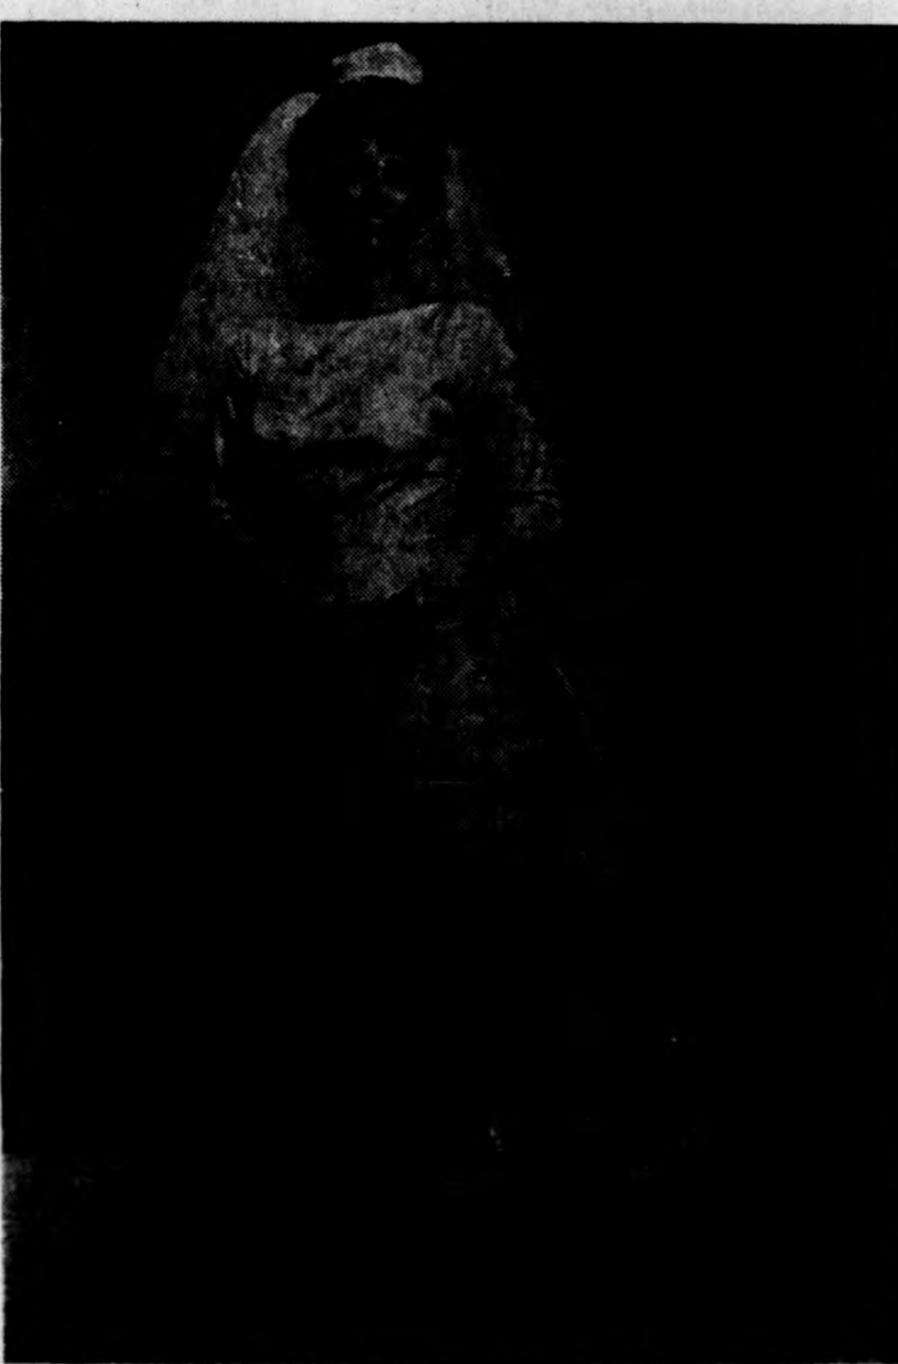

The bride-elect received a gift of crystal in her chosen pattern. Out of town guests included the honoree's mother, Mrs. Horace C. Smith of this city and her sister, Miss Laura Smith.

BRIDAL SHOWER

On November 7th, Miss Smith was entertained at the Clinton Community Center with a bridal shower. Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Richard Dillingham of Greenville; Mrs. George Thompson, Mrs. Clarence Brookshire and Mrs. Ronnie Brookshire of this city.

Upon arrival the honoree was presented a corsage of white carnations. Following several bridal games selected for the occasion, Miss Smith was presented many useful gifts by the guests.

Dainty party sandwiches, cake squares, mints and spiced tea were served buffet style from the dining room.

MRS. EDWIN CLYDE MCGEE

New Hope Church Scene of Wedding

New Hope Baptist Church of Bryan, Dr. William P. Hood, both of Charleston, William D. Robinson of Clinton, brother of the bride, and William M. Ellison, of Spartanburg, brother-in-law of the bride. The groom's father served as his son's best man.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bishop of Clinton, organist, and John Buchanan of Florence, vocalist, furnished music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of satin and pearl embroidered Chantilly lace. The pleated skirt ended in a chapel train, and her hand tailored lace mantilla veil was the handwork of her sister, the matron of honor. Her flowers were roses and small orchids.

Mrs. McGee's residence is Route 1, Clinton. She is the daughter of William W. Robinson and the late Mrs. Ruth Donnan Robinson. She was graduated from Woodruff High School, Winthrop College with an AB degree, and is a second year student at the Medical College of South Carolina holding a grant for further study in Pathology.

Dr. McGee is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Pratt McGee of West College Avenue, Hartsville. He completed his public school education as valedictorian at Hartsville High School, and completed work for his BS degree from Wofford College, Magna Cum laude. He received his MD degree from the Medical College of South Carolina in 1959, and completed his internship the following year at the Medical College Teaching Hospital. He served as lieutenant, Medical Corps, USNR, with the Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean and the Middle East. He is currently in the third year of a General Surgical Residency at the Medical College.

Following a reception in the church's social hall, the bride and groom left for their honeymoon trip to Ocho Rios on the North Shore of Jamaica. For travel, Mrs. McGee wore a light blue woolen dress with white lizard shoes and bag and white mink hat, carrying on her arm a white light weight woolen dress coat.

After December 1, the couple will be at home at 658 Windermere Boulevard, Charleston.

Ushers were Terry Campbell and Ned Handback of this city; Maxey Snow and Robert Nelson of Laurens; and Billy Burdette of Greenville. Master Michael Eugene Tollison of Laurens was ringbearer.

The lovely brunette bride was given in marriage by her brother, Carroll West Power of Laurens. She wore a formal length gown of peau-de-sole and angel lace featuring a Florentine neckline and long contour sleeves. The bodice and A-line skirt were appliqued with angel lace embroidered in pearls and crystals. The chapel train began at the back of the waistline bow and ended in a scalloped lace border. Her triple fingertip veil fell from an open crown pillbox of peau with Alencon lace edged with seed pearls and crystals with a teardrop in the center front. She carried an orchid with feathered carnations atop her Bible given to her by the Y. W. A. of her church.

Her dress was a sapphire blue velvet with scoop neckline, long sleeves and bell skirt. Her headpiece was a small pillbox with short veil. She carried long stem Better Times roses with matching streamers. James Ralph Stroud, Jr., and Miss Joann Smith of Laurens, Miss Barbara Burdette, the bride's cousin, was junior bridesmaid. Their dresses and flowers were identical to the matron of honor. Little Miss Pamela Power of Greenville, was flower girl. Her dress was similar to the bridal attendants and wore in her hair a flat velvet bow.

Following the ceremony the bride and groom received guests in the church vestibule.

For a wedding trip to Florida, the bride changed to a turquoise wool suit trimmed with braid. She wore a matching hat with black accessories.

After November 22, they will be at home at 103 Copeland St., Clinton.

The bride is a graduate of Laurens High School and a 1964 graduate of Anderson College. She is presently employed as a secretary at Clinton Cotton Mills.

The groom is a 1958 graduate of Clinton High School and is employed at the Torrington Company.

Harry Bouknight were score winners for the afternoon.

Bridal Luncheon For Miss Power

Mrs. Gene Tollison, Mrs. Carol Power and Mrs. Lee Gunter were hostesses at a bridal luncheon given Saturday at the home of Mrs. Cecil Wilson for Miss Glenda Rae Power and her bridal attendants.

The table, set for 15 guests, featured attractive wedding bell place cards and an artistic centerpiece of pink daisy chrysanthemums.

The hostesses presented the honoree with a crystal pitcher.

Mrs. Young Hostess To Bridge Club

Mrs. Andy Young was hostess to the members of her bridge club on Friday afternoon at her home on N. Adair Street.

As members arrived they were seated and enjoyed a dessert course with coffee before play. Mrs. Robert Johnson and Mrs.
