West Clinton

MRS. CLIFTON HEATON

Correspondent-Representative Dial 833-3192

Melvin H. Brannon of 302 Melvin St., Laurens, is this week's winner of The Chronicle's football contest. Brannon correctly predicted the winner of 19 of the 20 games in the contest. His only miss was ulford's win over Presbyterian.

There was a tight battle for second place money as four people missed only two selections. However, Perry C. Parrish of 276 Locust St., Clinton, most nearly predicted the outcome of the Clinton-Hillcrest game to win on the tie-breaker. Parrish predicted the score to be 40-0. Clinton won 49-0.

The other three who missed only two picks were Gary Bodie of Joanna (who predicted the tie-breaker at 40-0); Kenneth Martin of 612 Bailey St., Clinton (46-6 on the tie-breaker); and John Paul McKee of 311 E. Florida St., Clinton (32-6) on the tie-breaker.

Brannon wins $25 first prize and Parrish wins the $10 second place money.

This week's contest is on page 20.

Six Attend Meet In San Juan

Six representatives of The Life Insurance Company of Virginia's Greenwood district office this week attended the company's Leaders' Conference at the Americana of San Juan, San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Qualified as a result of their outstanding sales and service to policy-owners were Walter W. Timms, manager; F. T. Reese and William C. Ross, associate managers; and James W. Traynham, Elza C. Padgett, Jesse S. Tollison, Jr., William R. Davis, Luther E. Gunnels, Morris W. Lawton, Fred H. McKinney, and Roy F. Caswell, agents.

Timms, Reese, Ross, Tollison, Davis, and Lawton attended a two-day conference at the Virgin Isle Hilton in St. Thomas, Virgin Islands just prior to the meeting in San Juan to receive special tribute as members of the President's Club of Life of Virginia. The President's Club is an honorary organization of the company's leading producers and managers.
