ATTENDS NATIONAL CONVENTION

Mrs. Mary Francis Copeland and Mrs. Ruby Fowler attended the National Beautician Convention in Philadelphia, Pa., from July 27 - August 2. The trip was made by plane.

Earlier, they along with other beauticians of this city attended the State Beautician Convention in Columbia where Mrs. Copeland won second place in the "Miss Cosmetologist Contest" and Mrs. Fowler was crowned "Miss Courtesy Girl." Both are local beauty shop owners and operators.

OBSERVES GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Blakely observed their 50 wedding anniversary on Sunday. The couple were married on the first Sunday in August, 1919 at the bride's home by the late Rev. E. A. Adams. They are the parents of three children, all college graduates and 12 grandchildren.

Mr. Blakely, a retired Seaboard Railway employee is a patient at Bailey Memorial Hospital. Although he has been hospitalized for several months, he and his wife enjoyed the many cards, flowers and telephone calls that were received on this happy occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Blakely (the former Miss Gene Prather) lives on South Bell Street.

ADOPTIONS

Mrs. Mary F. Copeland and Mrs. Annie S. Watts recently adopted two boys - ages five months and two years respectively. They are named Robert Marvin and James.

MRS. BURNSIDE HONORED

Mrs. Osborne Burnside, a recent bride was honored on Saturday, Aug. 2 from 2 - 6 p.m., with a miscellaneous shower. Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Alfreda Gilliam Bodenhamer and Mrs. Pearl Cunningham. The setting for the affair was the recently remodeled home of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Gilliam on West Carolina Avenue.

A pink, green and white color scheme was carried out in the table decorations and refreshments.

Many friends of the bride were present to wish her much happiness. The gifts were numerous.

Mrs. Burnside is the former Miss Jeanne L. Floyd.
