Farm Fire Damage
NEW YORK—For such reasons as lack of fire-fighting facilities, less rigid wiring and construction standards and poorer heating equipment, fires in rural areas cause three to six times more damage on the average than fires in the cities, says the Insurance Information Institute. Farm fires caused a record $214 million damage in 1968.

Arthur Watson Is Featured In New Album

Arthur M. Watson, well-known Washington baritone soloist, is featured artist on a stereophonic album consisting of four religious selections.

The selections on the recently-released record are:

"I Am So Grateful," "The Lord's Prayer," "Lord I Adore Thee," and "No One Ever Cared For Me Like Jesus."

A native of Clinton, Mr. Watson began singing publicly at an early age and was widely known as the boy with the golden voice. He is a member of the radio choir of Bibleway Pentecostal Church and has been presented in numerous recitals throughout the metropolitan Washington area.

Mr. Watson studied under the talented Madame Mattie Shelton, the dramatic coloratura; William Webster Vocal Studio and Dr. Franz Hetzel, former conductor of the Vienna Symphony Orchestra. He is a member of the D. C. Teachers Alumni Choral Group.

"Remember walking out on me this morning when I was lecturing you? Well, here's a tape recording of the balance of it!"

Clinton WOTM Largest In S.C.

The Auxiliary of the Loyal Order of Moose is called "The Women of the Moose" and it is the aim of the Auxiliary to aid the Loyal Order of Moose, child city, "Mooseheart" and "Moosehaven" home for the aged.

The Clinton Chapter of The Women of the Moose is the largest of two chapters in South Carolina. The other chapter is in Georgetown.

The women assist the men at the social and family gatherings such as family dinners, games and dances. They also help with money making projects such as steak suppers on dance night, making stews, and fish fries as well as money making projects of their own. It is not unusual to see the Clinton Women of the Moose gathering clothing and conducting rummage sales. They also sell items ranging from napkins to candy and the newest item this year are candles.

Any women, over 21, who has a husband, son, father or brother who is a member of the Moose is eligible to apply for membership in the Women of the Moose.

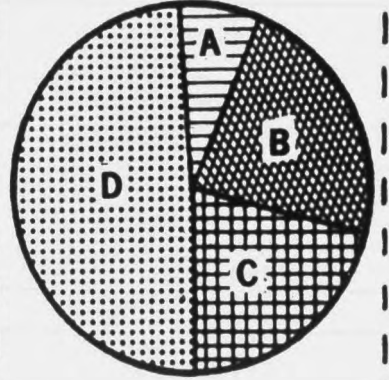

Rice - A teaspoonful of lemon juice added to water when boiling rice will keep grains separate and give rice a better flavor.
