Hall-Foster

Madelle Simpson Hall of Aiken became the bride of Paul E. Foster of Clinton at the A.R.P. Church in Clinton.

The Rev. Zeb Williams, pastor of the church, performed the double ring ceremony at three o'clock on Saturday, Dec. 13.

The bride is the daughter of the late L. Huckabee Simpson and the late Louise Patterson Simpson of Abbeville.

The groom is the son of the late Samuel C. Foster and Mrs. Bessie Foster of Clinton.

The bride wore a street length dress of blue silk lace over peau-de-sole with matching veil and shoes. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls. She carried a bridal bouquet of white mums and roses.

Mrs. Richard D. Watts, her only attendant, was matron of honor. Mrs. Watts is a sister of the groom. She wore a blue dress of pure silk with a jewel neckline. Her corsage matched that of the brides.

The groom chose for best man Richard D. Watts, his brother-in-law.

A reception was given in the couples home by Mr. and Mrs. Richard D. Watts.

Mrs. Phyliss Hunter, niece of the groom, presided at the punch bowl.

Mrs. Darrell Godfrey served at the bride's table, serving the three tiered wedding cake, with a miniature bride and groom to add to the decorations.

After a short honeymoon the couple will be at home to their many friends in Clinton Manor on Carolyn Drive.

UDC To Meet

The Stephen D. Lee Chapter of the U.D.C. held its December meeting at the Calvary Baptist Church.

Under the direction of Mrs. Eva Land, the Bell Ringers of Calvary most graciously entertained the group with Christmas music in the sanctuary of the church.

After the music, members were invited into the social hall of the church where a short meeting was held.

After the ritual, pledge to flags and prayers, Mrs. Hugh Bonds Workman gave the reading on Secession.

It was decided that the January meeting would be held on Friday Jan. 2, rather than on the usual Thursday date. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. M. C. Poole on E. Maple Street.

After singing Dixie the group enjoyed a social hour. Refreshments of sandwiches, cookies, cheese straws and Russian tea were served by the hostesses who effectively carried out the Christmas motif.

Hostesses were Mrs. Henry Young, Mrs. Nelson Dow, Mrs. Frank Miller, and Mrs. Rembert Truluck.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to express my thanks to my many friends for the flowers and cards and also to the doctors and nurses for the many acts of kindness shown me while a patient at Bailey Memorial Hospital.

May the Lord bless each of you.

Miss Delila Edenfield

Donald Lee Crain Wed

Miss Delila Louise Edenfield and Donald Lee Crain exchanged wedding vows on Sunday 28 at 3:30 p.m. at the First Baptist Church. The bride's pastor, Rev. Joseph H. Darr, officiated at the double ring ceremony. A special program of wedding music was presented by Brent Howard Holcomb of Clinton and Furman University.

Creating a nuptial setting in the sanctuary were tiered brass candelabra holding lighted white tapers on both sides of the pulpit. A mass arrangement of white chrysanthemums, gladioli and starburst pompons was used in the center. Magnolia foliage added effectively to the church decorations.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John David Edenfield of 701 Prather Circle in Clinton. A 1968 Mathematica - Secondary Education graduate of Meredith College in Raleigh, N. C., the bride is a former member of the faculty of Clinton Junior High School. Currently, she is a graduate assistant at Winthrop College, Rock Hill.

Given in marriage by her father, John David Edenfield, the bride wore a formal gown of candlelight silk peau-de-sole with bell sleeves and Victorian neckline. The gown featured illusion with alencon lace re-embroidered in seed pearls on the neckline and bell sleeves. The gown had a bell shaped skirt with alencon lace motifs. The train was chapel length. The bride's veil of candlelight French illusion was attached to a rosette of lace petals re-embroidered in seed pearls. The bride carried a modified cascade of white tulle roses and stephanotis interspersed with pearl sprays and tendrils of miniature English ivy. A strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom, was her only ornament.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wayne Crain of Duncan Chapel Road in Greenville are parents of the groom. A graduate of Travelers Rest High School, he attended Florida State University. After a tour of duty with the United States Navy in the Florida Keys, the bridegroom joined the South Carolina Highway Patrol. Previously stationed in Clinton, he is now serving as a patrolman in Rock Hill.

Attending the groom as best man was his father, Fred Wayne Crain of Greenville. Ushers for the service were the groom's brother, Douglas Wayne Crain of Greenville, the groom's brother-in-law, Kenneth Carl Coleman of Travelers Rest, and Billy Rhodes of Clinton.

Clinton. Miss Lindsay, a student at Converse College in Spartanburg, was presented by her father and escorted by Richard Tatum Lindsay Jr. of Bennettsville and James Pitts Martin of Columbia.

Hill-Hitt Parties

Parties prior to the marriage of Clara Belle Hill and Max Hitt included a linen and lingerie shower for the bride given by Mrs. Michael Williams of Greenwood, Mrs. Colie Dillehay of Clinton, and Mrs. C. V. Hipp and Mrs. Ollie Irwin both of Cross Hill.

by the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Hitt of Greer, at the Squire Inn in Chester. The groom also entertained the gentleman of the wedding party with a luncheon at the Squire Inn.

A miscellaneous shower was given by Mrs. Jerry Corwell and Mrs. Paul Mueller, of Clinton and Mrs. Alter Sprouse of Gaffney.

The bridal luncheon was given by Mrs. Perry Davis of Pinewood, S. C., cousin of the bride, at the Piedmont Club in Spartanburg. Places were laid for 21 guests around a lovely centerpiece of white snapdragons and pink rosebuds. The bride's place was marked with white bows and a miniature bride and groom atop a piece of her crystal, which was a gift of the hostess. She was also presented a corsage of white rosebuds. A delightful three-course luncheon was served after which the bride presented each of her attendants with a gift.
