EARL THOMASON

Thomason Buys Riddle Jewelers

Earl Thomason of Waycross, Ga., a native of Fountain Inn, has purchased Wilbur Riddle Jewelers in Laurens from Mrs. Hugh Williams of Clinton and Monday took over the operation of the business, according to an announcement made by Mrs. Williams.

Thomason has many relatives in this area and is a nephew of Clifton Thomason who is with T. E. Jones and Sons in Clinton.

Thomason, who completed watchmaking school in Columbia, has been associated with the chain jewelry firm of Friedman's for 22 years and was with the firm in Waycross until resigning to come to Laurens and take over the business here.

In Waycross he was active in many community affairs. He was a member and past president of the Waycross Lions Club, was a member of Trinity Methodist Church where he served as president of Methodist Men and his Sunday School class.

He was a member of the Chamber of Commerce board of directors and served as chairman of the Merchants Committee during 1969. He was cited for his work with the United Fund. He is a veteran of the U.S. Navy, having served in the Pacific.

He is married to the former Miss Carolyn Parkman of Columbia and they have two children, Jeffrey and Beth.

Tricentennial Brochure Available

COLUMBIA — A colorful brochure containing a list of events to be held in South Carolina in 1970 is now available free from the state's Department of Parks, Recreation and Tourism.

In April, South Carolina will begin a year-long observance of its Tricentennial. Each county and many communities in the state are planning special events and programs throughout the year as part of the observance.

This is reflected in this year's brochure, which is being printed for six months period. The cover has full color drawings of the state's three Tricentennial Exposition Centers.

The brochure now available has 255 events listed for the first six months. The brochure for events during the last half of the year will be printed in late spring.

A copy of the brochure may be obtained by writing: Travel Division, P. O. Box 1358, Columbia, S. C. 29202.

Meeting the Minter's Needs

Nickel meets the minter's demand for ductility, wear and corrosion resistance, and for the ability to reproduce the detail of the dies. Because of the metal's toughness and high melting point, it is very difficult to counterfeit.

1970 AUDITOR'S NOTICE

Miss Jennie V. Culbertson, Laurens County Auditor, wishes to urge all taxpayers to make their property tax returns in her office before March 1.

Miss Culbertson pointed out that it is absolutely necessary that returns be made on real and personal property, including motor vehicles. The proper listing and paying of your taxes on your motor vehicles may save your driver's license.

Any change made in real estate during 1969-transfer of lands, new buildings and improvements on buildings, also any building destroyed by fire or for any other cause should be reported.

It is also necessary that we have the correct mailing address of all taxpayers if you are to receive tax notices at the proper time, saving yourself costs and penalties.

We will be glad to assist you in any way that we can.
