

Women's World

Miss Wilhite Marries Carroll Duckett Copeland

Carroll Duckett Copeland and Miss Nancy Gayle Wilhite of Mableton, Ga., spoke their marriage vows Saturday at 8 p.m. at the First Baptist Church in Mableton.

Mr. Copeland is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Heath Copeland of 201 Calvert Ave., Clinton. His father served as best man.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Doyle Wilhite of 774 Alabama Rd. S. W. in Mableton. She was lovely in her bridal gown of light ivory silk organza and beaded peau d'ange lace. The fitted empire bodice covered in appliques of organza and a mandarin neckline of lace and long bishop sleeves of organza applied in lace. The skirt having a deep border of lace forming a scalloped hemline was also applied in matching lace. Her cathedral length wattleau train was scalloped in lace and motifs of lace were scattered over the entire length. Her fingertip mantilla fell from a Juliet cap of beaded peau d'ange lace. The bride's accessories were a strand of pearls and pearl earrings, gifts of the groom.

Wilhite-Copeland Bridal Parties

BRIDESMAIDS LUNCHEON

The bridesmaids' luncheon honoring Miss Wilhite was given in the private dining room of the Regency Hyatt House in Atlanta on Friday. Hostesses were her aunts, Mrs. Harold Blackmon and Mrs. Aloin Roberson. Mixed summer flowers were used on the tables.

Miss Wilhite presented gifts to the bridal attendants at this time.

REHEARSAL PARTY

Following the rehearsal of the Wilhite-Copeland wedding Friday evening, the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Heath Copeland, entertained the wedding party and out-of-town guests in the private dining room of the Holiday Inn. Carrying out the pink and white color theme, were arrangements of pink carnations and shasta daisies. Around sixty-four guests enjoyed the delightful affair.

DINNER-SHOWER

The bridesmaids and escorts of the Wilhite-Copeland wedding party were entertained with a dinner Thursday evening by Miss Mary Worsham of Annis-ton, Ala. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Wilhite.

Later the hostess presented the groom an array of gifts adding gaiety to the occasion.

LUNCHEON SATURDAY

Prior to the Wilhite-Copeland wedding which took place Saturday evening, the wedding party and guests were honored with a luncheon in the private dining room of the Holiday Inn in Marietta.

Hosts and hostesses for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. White, Mr. and Mrs. Richard White, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Heath, all of Chester; Mr. and Mrs. Alton Pate, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Pearce, Mr. Charles Louis Pearce, Mrs. Charles Vaughn, of Columbia; Mr. and Mrs. William A. White, Atlanta; Mr. and Mrs. L. M. White of Winston-Salem, N.C.

RIVERS

Mrs. John Rivers, daughter of Clinton announces the marriage of a son, Benjamin Rivers, to Miss Mary Ann Rivers on May 26 in Collo-

Cox-Moore Parties

BRIDESMAIDS LUNCHEON

Mrs. Robert Buchanan of Aiken and Mrs. Rupert Leary of Abbeville entertained for Miss Kayran Cox and her bridesmaids at a luncheon on Saturday at one o'clock at the Wilson home.

Miss Cox was presented a corsage of gardenias by the hostesses.

Juice was served in the living room, and guests were then invited into the dining room then invited into the dining room.

A large arrangement of pink carnations, white pom-poms, gypsophila and fern in a silver bowl centered the dining table, where luncheon was served buffet style. The livingroom was decorated with pink and white floral arrangements.

Miss Cox was given a crystal bowl by the hostesses, and she in turn presented each bridesmaid a gift of an engraved, silver nut bowl with spoon.

BACHELOR PARTY

Mr. James Holloway of Greenwood and Mr. Lee Saylor of St. Petersburg, Fla. had the bachelors party for Mr. John Isham Moore, Jr. at the Holloway cabin on Lake Greenwood, on Thursday night.

After swimming, the guests were served a picnic supper.

REHEARSAL PARTY

Immediately following the rehearsal for Cox-Moore wedding, Mr. and Mrs. John Isham Moore entertained at the Wilson Home in Clinton.

After guests were greeted by the hosts, they were invited into the dining room which was beautifully decorated with arrangements of white and pink snapdragons and white pom-poms.

Miss Cox was presented a white orchid.

Dinner was served buffet style from a lovely appointed table which was overlaid with linen and centered with a silver Paul Revere bowl filled with white tiger lilies, glads, baby's breath, sweet peas and fern.

Guests were seated at tables decorated with small silver and baby's breath. Silver candelabra with white net and pink snapdragons were also used.

Mr. Moore presented his attendants their gift of an engraved knife.

The flower girls and ring bearer were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Moore on Blalock Drive in Joanna. Each received a gift from the bride and groom.

Birthday Party Given By Club

Nine members of the Clinton Newcomers Club held a birthday party for the children of Cottage A-26 at Whitten Village on Monday, June 1 at 7:30.

Mrs. Vinton Smith lead the children in songs and favorite games. Three of the children celebrated birthdays this month.

Refreshments of punch and cupcakes were served.

Newcomers Club Plan Bridal Fashion Show

The Clinton Newcomers Club will present a Bridal Fashion Show on June 16 at 8 o'clock in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Marc C. Weersing. The display of bridal gowns will date back several decades.

The public is invited.

TEMPLETON REUNION

The 42nd annual reunion of the Templeton Clan will be held Sunday, June 14, at Rocky Springs Presbyterian Church in Laurens County. The church is located northeast of Laurens between highways S.C. 48 and U.S. 76. After the regular 11 a.m. worship service of the church, the fellowship hall and grounds will be available to the clan.

Miss Cox, Mr. Moore Married On Saturday

Miss Kayran Leary Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Robert Cox of Clinton, was united in marriage with John Isham Moore, Jr. The double ring ceremony was performed at the First Baptist Church of Clinton by the Reverend Joseph Haynsworth Darr and Alfred Blaker at half after eight o'clock on Saturday, June 6.

The bride, given in marriage by her father was lovely in a full length candelight gown of silk organza and re-embroidered alencon lace. The fitted bodice was fashioned with organza yolk and a scalloped lace, Camelot neckline with long bishop sleeves applied with motifs of lace encrusted with seed pearls. The controlled A-line skirt was hand applied with lace and pearls. A deep border of scalloped lace highlighted the dress. The full Cathedral train was also applied with lace and pearls. The Cathedral length veil was attached to a rose design headpiece of silk organza with a lace edge.

Miss Cox carried a bouquet of white roses with cascades of ribbon and white rose buds.

Miss Linwood Cox, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a full length gown of lilac chiffon. The bodice was designed with a Camelot neckline and long, full sleeves. Tiny white satin bows complimented the bodice. She wore a matching headpiece of streamers, tiny bows and a butter fly veil. She carried a miniature white garden basket filled with lavender pom-poms, gypsophila and fern.

The bridesmaids wore dresses identical to that of the maid of honor and also carried baskets. The bridesmaids were: Miss Robbie Kate Cox, sister of the bride; Mrs. George Williams III and Mrs. Robert Scales of Columbia; Miss Mary Ellen Moore, cousin of the groom; Miss Elizabeth McArver of Florence; Miss Donna Ann Rice of Columbia and Misses Edna Jacobs, Julia Sadler, and Nora Oeland, all of Clinton.

Junior bridesmaids, also dressed like the maid of honor, and carrying baskets, were Misses Michelle and Jane Etta Cox, sisters of the bride.

Flower girls, in lilac gowns, carried baskets of white satin and lace from which they dropped rose petals. They were Miss Alicia Leigh Cox, sister of the bride, and Misses Patti Buchanan and Leslie Leary, cousins of the bride.

Master Joseph Lewis of Columbia, cousin of the bride, served as ring bearer.

Mr. Moore was attended by his father, John Isham Moore, as best man, and by the following groomsmen: Mr. William Bishop, Mr. Randolph Thompson of Joanna; Mr. Thomas Moore, cousin of the groom; Mr. Robert Coffey of Camden; Mr. Lee Saylor of St. Petersburg, Fla.; Mr. Larry Graves of Jacksonville, Fla.; Mr. Carey Prater, cousin of the groom, Columbia; Mr. Rupert Leary, uncle of the bride; Abbeville; Mr. Geddes Marvin Cox, III, cousin of the bride; Abbeville, N.C.; and Mr. Gary Dupuis of West Palm Beach, Fla.

Mrs. Stroud, of Whitten Village, led an interesting discussion on Baptist work in Southeast Asia. The leader, Mrs. Setzler conducted the business session. Mrs. Edgeworth, Sec.-Treas. took the offering and gave report on finances. An added feature was making a movie of the evening.

Senior ushers were: Mr. Thomas Moore, Rembert and Mr. Richard Adams of Clinton, uncles of the groom; Mr. Geddes Marvin Cox, Jr. of Fayetteville N.C., and Mr. Julius Leary of Greenwood, uncles of the bride.

Mrs. James Von Hollen was organist and Mrs. John Franklin was soloist.

Mrs. Moore is a 1967 graduate of Clinton High School and a 1970 graduate of Columbia College, where she was a member of the Phi Beta Phi, honorary fraternity, and the Purple Seal.

Mr. Moore, a 1966 graduate of Clinton High School, graduated from the Citadel where he was a distinguished military student, and was listed in "Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges."

They will reside at 214 South Woodrow St. in Columbia. They plan to enter graduate school at the University of South Carolina, where they hold an assistantship.

RECEPTION

Immediately following the ceremony, the parents of the bride entertained with a reception at their home on Chappells Highway.

Miss Lucille McSween kept the bride's register on the porch. The table was overlaid with white organza and held silver candelabra with white net and snapdragons.

An arrangement of white tal container decorated the Georgian mantel of the living room, and a large Paul Revere bowl held an arrangement of white tiger lilies glads, lavender snapdragons with fern and gypsophila on the dining table where the refreshments were served. A mirrored table held the bride's cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Buchanan greeted guests at the door. Assisting in the entertaining and serving throughout the home were Mrs. Reese Young, Mrs. George Cornelison, Mrs. Ruhus Sadler, Mrs. Edward Ferguson, Mrs. Rupert Leary, Mrs. Hart Coker, Mrs. Larry Barwick and Mrs. Benjamin Ivey.

Study Group Enjoys Supper

Mrs. S.B. Loftis and Mrs. Betty Barrett were hostesses on Monday evening at a supper with all members of the West Study Group as guests.

A chicken supper, with all the accessories was served, followed later in the sitting room with cake and coffee.

Mrs. Stroud, of Whitten Village, led an interesting discussion on Baptist work in Southeast Asia. The leader, Mrs. Setzler conducted the business session. Mrs. Edgeworth, Sec.-Treas. took the offering and gave report on finances. An added feature was making a movie of the evening.

Showers Honor Miss Copeland

On Friday, May 29, the ladies of the Hopewell WSCS honored Miss Susan Copeland, recent bride of Stewart O. Brown, Jr., with a miscellaneous shower. Miss Copeland was presented a corsage after which several games of bridal bingo were played. After the games, the bride was remembered with many nice gifts.

Delicious party dainties were served from a table bedecked with a pink cloth, adorned with a lovely arrangement of varicolored roses.

Among the special guests of the evening were the bride's mother, Mrs. Don Copeland, Sr., her sister, Mrs. Clyde Smith and the groom's mother, Mrs. Stewart O. Brown, Sr.

Miss Copeland was also honored with a lovely shower on May 23 which was given by Mrs. James Copeland, Jr. and Miss Joy Copeland.

Debutante Tea Set Saturday

The 1970 Debutante Season will open with a tea at the home of Mrs. George H. Cornelison on Saturday afternoon, June 13. At the time the names of this season's debutantes will be announced.

The Debutante Committee are as follows: Chairman, Mrs. Reese Young, Jr., Secretary & Treasurer, Mrs. J.B. Arnold; Invitations, Mrs. George Blalock; Supervisor of Debutantes, Mrs. Robert Grube; Decorations for presentation, Mrs. Dan Orr; Floor and seating Chairman, Mrs. Chris Adair.

Jr., Calendar Chairman, Mrs. William Jacobs, III; Refreshments, Mrs. Lewis Stephens; Presentation chairman, Mrs. James Von Hollen; Publicity Chairman, Mrs. Thomas Hollis.

Lady Nancy Langhorne Astor, who was born in Greenwood, Va., but went to England in 1903, was the first woman member of the British House of Commons.

Miss Copeland Wed At Duncan Creek Church

Miss Susan Dean Copeland became the bride of Stewart Orville Brown, Jr. on Friday, June 5, at 8 o'clock. The wedding was held in historic Duncan Creek Presbyterian Church with the Rev. Leland Rhinehart officiating. Lovely organ music was presented by Miss Kathy Foster.

The church was beautifully decorated in green and white, using an arch in the center with a large arrangement of white chrysanthemums on each side and tall candelabra in the rear.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, W. Don Copeland, Sr., wore a formal gown of heavy candlelight silk, embroidered with Alencon lace, and a train which fell from the shoulders. Her veil of silk illusion was attached to a head-dress of lace flowers outlined in seed pearls. She carried a Bible topped with a white orchid.

The bride's cousin, Miss Joy Copeland served as maid of honor. Mr. Stewart's best man was W. Don Copeland, Jr. Usher-groomsmen were Clyde Smith, Jr. and David Stewart, brother of the groom.

Mrs. Stewart is employed by Ascoe Felts Co., working in the laboratory department.

Mr. Stewart is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart O. Brown Sr. of the Hopewell Section, and is employed by H.D. Payne and Co.

After a wedding trip the couple will live near the home of the bride's parents on Whitmire Road, Rt. 2, Clinton.

A rehearsal party was given by Mrs. Stewart O. Brown, Sr. for the wedding party on June 4.

Chaney-Ellison

Miss Bonnie Chaney of Conway and Richard Ellison of Clinton were united in marriage on June 5 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl S. Chaney in Conway.

Rev. G.G. Lovell performed the ceremony. Miss Doris A. Darden of Conway was maid of honor. Darrell G. Godfrey was best man.

Miss Bleese Honored

Friday night, June 5, Miss Nancy Jean Bleese, July bride-elect of William Pearson Bond, was honored with a miscellaneous shower. The affair was held at the Clinton Community Building. It was a memorable occasion.

The refreshments of mixed nuts, mints, chips, cake squares and punch were served buffet style.

Nancy was presented a white carnation corsage and a host of lovely and useful gifts.

Hostesses were bridesmaids, Miss Dixie Simmons and Mrs. Shirley Bond.

Brides To Be Honored

On Monday afternoon, June 1, the Windsor Elementary School of Columbia honored three of their teachers, summer bride-elects, with a party. They were Miss Betty Black, Miss Linda Cooper and Miss Rascel Fellows.

A mixture of spring flowers decorated the cafeteria where party refreshments were served.

Each honoree received a silver compote as a gift from the school. Faculty and staff were honored guests.

Remnants of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. James Rutledge Jacks, Sr. on Saturday evening at the Greenville Dining Hall of Presbyterian College.

Roses were used in the decoration on the tables.

The bride and groom presented their gifts to the attendants at this time.

Byars-Jacks Vows Spoken On Saturday

The wedding of Miss Virginia Ione Byars, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Eugene Byars, and James Rutledge Jacks, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James Rutledge Jacks, Sr., took place Sunday, June 7, at 4 p.m. at the First Baptist Church, Clinton. Reverend Joseph H. Darr performed the ceremony.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Fowler of Newberry was organist. The bride's sister, Mrs. Gerald P. Johnson, sang "The Lord's Prayer" as the benediction.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of Alencon lace applied on organza over French net. The molded bodice with abbreviated sleeves featured re-embroidered lace and seed pearls. Self-buttons fastened the elongated back bodice from which soft fullness extended and formed a chapel train. The skirt was fashioned with a back panel of hand-clipped lace. Her triple-tiered veil was held with tied silk organza flowers.

She carried her sister's white Bible which was topped with white rose buds.

Mrs. Gerald P. Johnson was her sister's matron of honor. Miss Polly Ann Adair and Mrs. Donald R. Adams, sister of the groom were bridesmaids. They were attired alike in dresses of mint green georgette over taffeta. They carried yellow rose buds.

The father of the groom served as best man. Groomsmen were Donald R. Adams, Phillip W. Rogers, Gerald P. Johnson, William E. Adair and Thomas L. Copeland.

The parents of the bride entertained the bridal party and their guests at a reception in the social hall of the church.

Returning from a wedding trip to Gatlinburg the couple will be at home on Old Laurens Road. The bride is a teacher in Laurens County District 56 schools. The groom will be graduated from Gardner-Webb College in December.

REHEARSAL DINNER

The rehearsal dinner for the wedding party of Byars-Jacks wedding was given by the pa-