

Women's World

Theresa Lawson Bride Of William Jacobs, Jr.

Miss Theresa Ann Lawson, daughter of Mrs. William Wilburn Lawson and the late Mr. Lawson of Buffalo, South Carolina, and William Plumer Jacobs, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Plumer Jacobs of 200 Chestnut Street, Clinton, South Carolina, were united in marriage on August 16, 1970 at 3:30 in the afternoon at the Buffalo Baptist Church. Dr. Reginald Kirkland Smith, pastor of the bride, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

A program of pre-nuptial organ music was presented by Miss Joan Huskey of Buffalo. Mrs. Samuel Victor Elliott, aunt of the bride, sang.

The bride was escorted by her cousin, Maxie Rion Lawson, of Buffalo. Her formal length gown was of candlelight silk organza and peau d'ange lace designed with a high Victorian, lace-trimmed neckline, lantern sleeves with lace medallions cascading from the elbow to the cuff, and an empire lace and pearly-trimmed bodice. Lace appliques extended into the A-lined skirt. A semi-cathedral length train, bordered with peau d'ange lace, fell gracefully from the back yoke. Her elbow length veil of French illusion trimmed in peau d'ange lace fell from a pillbox covered in matching lace. She carried a bouquet of white pompoms, stephanotis, and a yellow-throated orchid.

Honor attendants to the bride were Miss Susan Wood Jacobs of Clinton, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Robert Wade Gantt of Columbia. Her bridesmaids were Miss Ruby Penny Elliot of Buffalo, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Ronnie Dean Kennett of Lancaster.

The attendants' formal length gowns were of yellow chiffon with an empire bodice of white Venice lace, a full flowing skirt, a ring neckline, and long full sleeves with deep cuffs banded in matching lace. Their headpieces were yellow chapel veils attached to a pillbox trimmed in daisies. They carried nosegays of yellow daisies with yellow streamers.

William Plumer Jacobs served his son as best man. Groomsmen included Roy Ernest Horton of Clinton, Michael Gregory McMillian, cousin of the bride, of Buffalo, John Earl Wharton of Laurens, Collie William Lehn of Clinton, and William Edwin Rogers, Jr. of Greenville.

The bride, a 1969 graduate of Winthrop College, Rock Hill, South Carolina, received a Bachelor of Arts degree in mathematics and has begun work toward her Master's degree at Clemson University. She plans to teach this fall in Charleston, West Virginia.

Mr. Jacobs graduated from Clemson University, Clemson, South Carolina, August 1970, with a Bachelor of Science degree in Chemical Engineering. He is presently employed as a chemical engineer for the Union Carbide Corporation in Charleston, West Virginia.

After a wedding trip, the couple will reside at 710 Colony Drive, Charleston West Virginia.

THE RECEPTION

After the wedding ceremony, the bride's mother entertained with a reception at the church social hall. Arrangements of yellow daisies and white pompoms decorated the hall. The buffet table held the wedding cake, decorated with yellow roses.

Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel N. Elliot, aunt and uncle of the bride, and by Dr. and Mrs. Edgar Nelson Sullivan of Clinton. Assisting in serving were Miss Ann Arrowood of Union, Miss Marolyn Montgomery of Lancaster, Mrs. Maxie Rion Lawson, Mrs. Gary Pegram, and Miss Rave Maess, all of Buffalo, Miss Cathy Sue Petty and Miss Valerie Simmons both of Union.

Miss Edna Jacobs, cousin of the groom, of Clinton, and Mrs. John Jenkins of Union presided at the register. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McMillian, Aunt and Uncle of the bride, said the goddyses.

REHEARSAL DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. William Plumer Jacobs, parents of the groom, entertained the members of the wedding party and special guests at a rehearsal dinner on the evening of August 15 at the Wilson Home, Clinton.

Guests were greeted by the host and hostess and invited into the living room.

Dinner was served buffet from the dining room. Centering the buffet table was a beautiful arrangement of pink roses and pink tapers in a silver espergne.

Guests were seated at individual tables which were decorated each with a single candle and espergne of pink roses and pink tapers. A nosegay and boutonniere of white marked the places of the bride and groom.

Gifts to the attendants were presented by the bride and groom at this time.

Legion Aux. Executives Meet Tuesday

The Executive Board of the American Legion Auxiliary will meet Tuesday evening, August 25 at 6 o'clock at the home of Mrs. R. P. Chapman on W. Walnut Street. At this time plans for the new year will be made, committees and hostesses appointed and year book completed.

Miss Rinehart Weds Ray Woodrow Wilson

Miss Freddie Kaye Rinehart became the bride of Mr. Ray Woodrow Wilson, Jr. on August 1 at the Central Methodist Church, Newberry. Rev. John G. Linder and Rev. James H. Martin performed the 6:30 ceremony. A reception was given in the church social hall.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Carlisle Rinehart of 2715 DeLoache Avenue, Newberry, was given in marriage by her father. Her Juliet gown was of silk organza. The empire waist was accented by a velvet cord which formed a bow in the back. The Juliet neckline, bodice and bouffant sleeves were of Shiffli embroidery and lattice work. A full flowing chapel train of Shiffli embroidery formed at the empire waist. Her Juliet cap was also of Shiffli lace and seed pearls held an elbow length veil of illusion. She carried a nosegay of philanopsis orchids with streamers of satin ribbons.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Willard Montgomery Hines, Jr. of Columbia. Bridesmaids were Misses Martha Lu Byrd of Greenville, Emille Louise Mullins of Marion, Karen Dickert Boozer and Mrs. Richard William Perry of Newberry. They were all attire in identical Juliet dresses designed with a white silk organza bodice white and flame red bouffant skirt, high collar and French cuffs.

Each carried a white candle accented with red ribbon streamers. Cousin of the bride, Stacy Leann Dominick of Spartanburg was flower girl. Her short white organza dress was accented with rows of lace.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Mildred Wilson of East Carolina Avenue, Clinton. Robert B. Brock of Union served as best man. Ushers were Greg Stanley Long of Conway, Willard Montgomery Hines, Jr. of Columbia, Phillip Mason Wilburn of Union, Homer Darryl Epling of Florence. Ringbearer was Gregory William Dominick, cousin of the bride of Spartanburg.

Music was provided by Mrs. Beamen Mills, organist and Mrs. Larry Gilliam, soloist of Newberry.

Mrs. Wilson is a recent graduate of Columbia College, with a B. A. Degree in Elementary Education, and will teach in Columbia this fall. The groom received a B. S. Degree in Business Administration from the University of South Carolina and is employed by House Hold Finance Company in Columbia.

The couple is making their home at 3225 Colin Kelly Dr., Columbia.

BIRTHS

GIBSON
Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Gibson of Whitmire announce the birth of a son, Gerald Wayne, Jr. on August 5 at Bailey Memorial Hospital. Mrs. Gibson is the daughter of Mr. Clark Meadors of 510 Academy Street, and the late Mrs. Meadors.

McKINNEY
Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKinney of Williamston announce the birth of a son, Clifton Davis McKinney, on August 3.

Mrs. McKinney is the former Elizabeth Milling Davis of Clinton.

WALLACE
Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Wallace of Route 1, Laurens, announce the birth of a son, Kevin Derek on August 4 in the Laurens County Hospital. Mrs. Wallace is the former Margaret Senn of Laurens. Mr. Wallace is the son of Mrs. Ione Wallace and the late Mr. Wallace of Clinton.

YOUNG
Lt. Col. and Mrs. Frank C. Young, Jr. announce the birth of a daughter, Frankie Ruth, August 11 at Womac Army Hospital, Fort Bragg, N. C.

Mrs. Young is the former Joann Addy of West Columbia. The Youngs have two other children, Frank Coleman III and Jenelle Susan.

Moates-Pace

Mr. and Mrs. James Leroy Moates of Clinton announce the engagement of their daughter, Brenda Ann, to William Robert Pace of Gray Court, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Jackson Pace.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Clinton High School. She is employed by the Torrington company.

Mr. Pace is a graduate of Gray Court-Owings High School. He is employed by the Torrington Company.

The wedding is planned for September 6 at 4 o'clock at Bethel Temple Assembly of God Church.

No invitations will be sent. Friends and relatives are invited.

Celebrates Birthday

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sullivan entertained at their home on Fair Drive, Sunday evening, August 16th honoring their son, Stephen Anthony, on his first birthday.

The table was centered with a "tree" displaying pictures of Stephen during the past year.

Eighteen people attended. Party favors were given to everyone. Refreshments consisted of two birthday cakes. One was guitar-shaped and the other was shaped like a drum, also, assorted sandwiches, potato salad, potato chips, French onion dip, nuts, olives and soft drinks.

Stephen received many lovely and useful gifts. Among those attending from Spartanburg were his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Smith, Sr., Carey Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith, Debbie, Sandy and Chip. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith and Pam, Mrs. Grace Quinn, Mrs. Beulah Richardson, and from Clinton, Mrs. J. R. Kirby and Chris.

Disappearing Islands

A few authentic cases are known of islands disappearing. When the volcanic island of Krakatau blew up in 1883, it completely disappeared below the sea. Islands have appeared and disappeared again in the Aleutians.

Keller-Philipsen Vows Spoken On Saturday

Miss Elizabeth Marie Keller and Mr. Charles Richard Philipsen were married on Saturday, August 15 at 7:30 p.m. in the First Presbyterian Church, Clinton, S. C. The Reverend Alfred Lyon Bixler officiated at the double ring ceremony. Wedding music was provided by Mrs. James Von Hollen.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rae Keller of Sunset Blvd. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Claus Philipsen of 115 West Oveshem Road, Ashland, New Jersey.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a gown of silk organza styled with an empire waist, the gown was accented with lace having a high neck and see through yoke. The short sleeves and skirt hem were scalloped with lace appliques. The chapel train was enhanced with lace appliques. She wore a silk illusion mantilla edged with lace. She carried a nosegay of daisies with an orchid center.

Miss Susan Keller, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her gown had a white embroidered bodice of silk organza and the skirt was of deep aqua. She carried a large nosegay of daisies.

The junior bridesmaids were Miss Kathleen Kennedy and Miss Janine Kennedy of Philadelphia, Pa. nieces of the groom. They wore identical gowns of deep aqua with white lace trim and carried nosegays of daisies.

Dwight Pfening of Long Branch, New Jersey was best man. Ushers were Robert Rae Keller, Jr. brother of the bride; Thomas Kennedy, nephew of the groom; Robert Abel of Ashland, New Jersey, cousin of the groom and Horace Pinkney Horton Jr. of Clinton.

Following the wedding a reception was given by the brides parents in Fellowship Hall at the Church. Pouring punch was Miss Bonnie Gitts of Del Haven, Villas, New Jersey. Serving cake was Miss Claudia Waldron of Milledgeville, Georgia. Miss Pam Overton of Columbus, Ohio presided at the guestbook. Also assisting were Mrs. Horace Horton of Clinton and Miss Ann Parker of Mountain Lakes, New Jersey.

After the reception the wedding party stopped at the Bailey Nursing home to see Elizabeth's grandfather, Gus F. Keller. Cake was served to all there.

Attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Denzil Crowe, Sr. the brides maternal grandmother from Bowling Green, Ohio. Other out of town guests were from Michigan, Tennessee, Ohio, New Jersey, New York, Virginia, Delaware, Pennsylvania, and Florida.

The bride is a 1970 graduate of Tusculum College, Greenville, Tennessee in Elementary Education and plans to teach in the Johnson City, Tennessee area. The groom will continue his studies at East Tennessee State University. They will reside at 805 Hamilton Street in Johnson City, Tennessee, following a honeymoon to Sea Island, Georgia.

REHEARSAL DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Claus Philipsen of Ashland, New Jersey entertained the wedding attendants of the Keller-Philipsen wedding Friday evening with a steak dinner in the newly decorated private dining room at the Wrangler. Thirty attended. The bride and groom presented their attendants with appropriate gifts.

Brain's Growth

According to scientific studies, the size of the human brain has remained virtually unchanged during the past 100,000 years. Earlier, it had tripled in size during a period of 400,000 to 500,000 years.

We Deliver Young's Pharmacy

The Old Reliable
833-1220

Draperies

By
Tri-County Draperies

H & R Block Bldg.
N. Broad St.
Custom Draperies • Cafes • Swags, Etc.
Reasonably Priced
Telephone 833-4100

Davenport-Kramm

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Howard Davenport of 425 Browning Ave., Joanna announce the engagement of their daughter, Judith Carol to Mr. Boldan Remig-uss Kramm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Kramm, 413 Laurens Street, Joanna.

Friends and relatives are invited to attend.

PLAZA FURNITURE MART

OF JOANNA, S. C.

"THE FINEST IN AMERICAN TRADITIONAL FURNITURE"

THE PLAZA FURNITURE MART

OF JOANNA, S. C.

COMPARE OUR PRICES BEFORE YOU BUY — IT COSTS LESS HERE — COME SEE

STORE HOURS

Monday 8:30 to 5:30
Tuesday 8:30 to 5:30
Wednesday 8:30 to 5:30
Thursday 8:30 to 6:00
Friday 8:30 to 6:00
Saturday 8:30 to 5:30

QUALITY MERCHANDISE—DISCOUNT PRICES