Five debbs and their mothers, especially honored were Miss Joy Gault, Mrs. Cally Gault, Miss Ginger Gault, Mrs. Carter Gault, Miss Ginger Crocker, Mrs. Claude Crocker, Miss Lynwood Cox, Mrs. Robert Cox, Miss Mary Bailey Vance and Mrs. Robert Vance.

Special guests were Mrs. Bob Beckman of California and Mrs. John William King and Mary Elliott King of Summerville, Ga.

Yellow and white mums were used in combination with yellow candles throughout the Hollis home, carrying out the theme of "Deb Glow".

Juice was served in the den, and guests were served brunch from a buffet table covered with linen and lace. It was enhanced by a centerpiece of yellow and white mums and yellow tapers. Each table was also decorated with yellow candles and place cards were held in yellow rose holders.

Debs Enjoy Harvest Dance

Bar-B-Ranch on Laurens Highway was the scene of a "Harvest Dance" on Friday evening, November 27. The dance, given by Mr. and Mrs. Brook's Martin Mills, Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Carson Nabors', in honor of their daughters, Rhonda Elaine Mills and Gloria Dale Nabors, was enjoyed by the 1970 Debutantes, dates and friends.

The barn furnished a perfect setting for the occasion complementing a blazing fireplace was a pot-bellied stove, bales of hay and table and bench combinations.

Covering the tables were red checked cloths, while candles furnished the illumination for the tables. The buffet table was decorated by an arrangement of fall flowers.

The guests were dressed in country attire and each deb was given a cowboy hat to finish her costumes. "The Original Uniques" of Union furnished the music for the dance. Midway through the evening the band broke out into country and western music and a square dance was enjoyed by all.
