An Ordinance Repealing Ordinances Numbers Ninety-eight (98) And One Hundred Five (105) And Re-Enacting Certain Portions Thereof.

An Ordinance for the purpose of raising funds to pay current expenses and indebtednesses of the Town of Cheraw requiring the payment of a license tax by the year, month or day by persons or corporations engaged or intending to engage, in any calling, business or occupation, in whole or in part, in said town, as may hereinafter be specified and to provide a penalty for neglect or refusal to pay such license tax.

Whereas, the present revenue of the Town of Cheraw, from the taxation of property and other sources, is inadequate to pay all of the current expenses and demand obligations of the said town; and

Whereas, by an act of the General Assembly of South Carolina, the Town Council of the Town of Cheraw are authorized annually to require the payment of such reasonable sum of money as a license tax by any person, or persons, or corporations in whole or in part, within the said town, except Teachers and Ministers of the Gospel, and to pass such ordinances as are necessary to carry out the provisions of said Act and to put the same into effect;

Now, Therefore, in pursuance of the authority thus granted to us, and for the purpose of increasing the revenue of the said town to a sufficient amount, Be It Ordained by the Town Council of the Town of Cheraw, and

It is Hereby Ordained, That any person, or persons, firm or corporation, engaged in any calling business profession or occupation, in whole or in part, within the incorporate limits of the said town, as hereinafter specified in the Schedule contained herein, shall, on or before the first day of January, A. D. 1922, procure a license therefor in the manner hereinafter prescribed; and any person or persons, firm or corporation, commencing, or intending to commence or engage in any business calling profession or occupation on and after the said first day of January, A. D. 1922, shall, in like manner, procure a license therefor before entering upon or engaging in any such calling, business, profession or occupation in the manner hereinafter provided.

Any person, or persons, firm or corporation now engaged, of which hereafter engage, or intend to engage in any business, calling, profession or occupation, for which a license is required hereunder, shall apply to the Clerk of the Town Council of the Town of Cheraw for issuance of the same and shall, at the time of such application file with the said Clerk a signed statement, in writing, which statement shall contain:

1. The individual, firm or corporate name under which the proposed business is to be conducted;

2. The nature of the business proposed to be transacted, or that of the profession, calling or occupation in which it is proposed to become engaged;

3. The street address, or location where such business is to be conducted, or where such calling, profession or occupation is to be engaged in; whereupon, the said Clerk shall, upon the payment of the proper license fee, or tax, issue the license so applied for: Provided, however, that the license fees, or taxes, herein provided for to be paid annually shall be paid annually in advance on licenses applied for prior to July 1st, 1922, but on licenses applied for and issued subsequent to July 1st, 1922, only half of the annual rate shall be paid which payment, also, is to be in advance: And Provided Further, that nothing herein contained shall in any manner effect any other requirement of law elsewhere enacted, or ordained, in regard to any business, calling, profession or occupation.

All licenses issued under the provisions of this ordinance shall be and continue in full force and effect from date of issuance until the first day of January, 1922, at which time they shall automatically cease, determine and become utterly null and void.

GREATEST SCREEN SENSATION THE WORLD HAS EVER KNOWN

D.W. GRIFFITH

"WAY DOWN EAST"

Based on Wm. A. Brady's Famous Play by Lottie Blair Parker and Jos. R. Grismer

It's a simple story of plain folks—the greatest of all Griffith plays—uncommonly well done and with breath-taking effect.

Every audience has set spellbound through the unfolding of this great production.

With its humaneness and its story of unusual love, its thrills and its pathos, it stands alone in the field of spectacular pictures.

The all star cast which carries out the story quite eclipses any cast that ever appeared in this piece on the speaking stage.
