

SHOCKING TRAGEDY.

Editor Gonzales, Unarmed, Shot Down on the Street by

LIEUT.-GOV. JAS. H. TILLMAN.

The Two Men Meet, and as Gonzales

Was About to Pass, Tillman

Paids a Pistol and

Shoots Him.

Mr. N. G. Gonzales, Editor of The State, was shot down on Main Street Thursday, at half-past one o'clock.

The shooting occurred on Main Street, just at the intersection of Gervais Street.

It was just a few moments before 2 o'clock when the cry was passed along the streets that Jim Tillman had

The excitement and indignation on the streets was intense. Policeman Boland immediately after the shooting

During the progress of that campaign Editor Gonzales in his fight to defeat Mr. Tillman had editorially

Editor Gonzales and Lieut. Gov. Tillman have passed each other in full view since the opening of the present

As to the shooting that is a simple story. Lieut. Gov. Tillman met

It was exactly two hours after the shooting that Mr. Gonzales was placed on the operating table.

In a statement Mr. Gonzales made it plain that he sought no difficulty.

The most serious wound is the cutting of the transverse colon for about an inch and a half.

There appears to be no conflict of testimony as to the essential features

FROM EYE WITNESSES.

There is apparently no desire on the part of the eye witnesses to talk of the tragedy for publication.

The meeting was just at the turn of main and Gervais streets on the north side of the street, just at the street car transfer station.

Mr. Gonzales himself gave a perfectly plain and explicit statement of the whole affair prior to being put

There was only one shot fired and that entered the right side between the eighth and ninth ribs and passed through the fore part of the body,

There was only one shot fired and that entered the right side between the eighth and ninth ribs and passed through the fore part of the body,

Tillman after the shooting walked out into the middle of the street where he was arrested.

It was exactly two hours after the shooting that Mr. Gonzales was placed on the operating table.

In a statement Mr. Gonzales made it plain that he sought no difficulty.

The most serious wound is the cutting of the transverse colon for about an inch and a half.

There appears to be no conflict of testimony as to the essential features

There appears to be no conflict of testimony as to the essential features

There appears to be no conflict of testimony as to the essential features

IN THE HOUSE.

Mr. Mendel L. Smith Elected Speaker Almost Unanimously.

ORGANIZATION OF THE BODY.

No Other Business Attended to On the First Day, the House Ad-

Journing Out of Respect to Judge McIver.

The house of representatives was called to order at noon on Tuesday, Jan. 13, by Col. Tom C. Hamer, clerk of the last house of representatives.

Nominations for speaker being in order, Mr. B. A. Morgan of Greenville, secured the floor and nominated Hon. Mendel L. Smith of Kershaw county.

On Thursday the Speaker announced the committees and several bills were introduced.

Mr. E. H. Aull introduced a bill of great importance, and a child labor bill.

The following clerical appointments were announced: J. Wilson Gibbs, clerk; W. Eugene Carter, reporter.

Gov. McSweeney's Tribute. His Official Announcement of the Death of Chief Justice McIver.

Gov. McSweeney announced Judge McIver's death to the general assembly on Tuesday in the following message:

It is my sad duty to announce to you the death of Chief Justice Henry McIver, which occurred at his home in Cheraw yesterday afternoon.

The record of his life, including as it does brave deeds in times of war, and a long and useful career in times of peace—a record made in the service of his State—is bright and stainless, and is now one of South Carolina's priceless heritages.

Yes, gentlemen of the house of representatives to preside over the deliberations of this body, the chosen, trusted, and commissioned representatives of a truly great people—great in character, great in achievement, great in tradition, and far greater yet in history.

Col. T. C. Hamer was re-elected clerk of the house and was sworn in by Speaker Smith.

THE STATE SENATE.

All the Former Officers of the Body Re-elected Without Opposition.

APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEES.

The Governor's Message Read.

Tribute to the Late Chief Justice.

Proceedings of the First Week.

Promptly at noon on Tuesday, January 13, Lieut. Gov. Tillman called the State Senate to order.

There were four nominations for chairman: Revs. Dr. O. A. Darby, Walter J. Herndon, M. Kinard and A. J. Harrison.

The following appointments were made by Lieut. Gov. Tillman: Wm. H. Sheppard, assistant clerk.

On motion of Senator Sharpe a committee of three, consisting of Messrs. Sharpe, Sheppard and Brown was appointed to notify the governor that the Senate was in session and ready for business.

On motion of Senator Sharpe a committee of three, consisting of Messrs. Sharpe, Sheppard and Brown was appointed to notify the governor that the Senate was in session and ready for business.

On motion of Senator Sharpe a committee of three, consisting of Messrs. Sharpe, Sheppard and Brown was appointed to notify the governor that the Senate was in session and ready for business.

On motion of Senator Sharpe a committee of three, consisting of Messrs. Sharpe, Sheppard and Brown was appointed to notify the governor that the Senate was in session and ready for business.

On motion of Senator Sharpe a committee of three, consisting of Messrs. Sharpe, Sheppard and Brown was appointed to notify the governor that the Senate was in session and ready for business.

On motion of Senator Sharpe a committee of three, consisting of Messrs. Sharpe, Sheppard and Brown was appointed to notify the governor that the Senate was in session and ready for business.

On motion of Senator Sharpe a committee of three, consisting of Messrs. Sharpe, Sheppard and Brown was appointed to notify the governor that the Senate was in session and ready for business.

On motion of Senator Sharpe a committee of three, consisting of Messrs. Sharpe, Sheppard and Brown was appointed to notify the governor that the Senate was in session and ready for business.

A FATAL WRECK.

A Wrong Signal Caused the Death of Three Men

ON THE BALTIMORE AND OHIO

A Careless Messenger Boy Pushed a Lever Showing a White

Board Instead of a Red

Board.

Through the care and indifference of a messenger boy a wreck was caused on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad east of Cumberland Md., early Friday morning in which two employees of the road were killed and three men were injured and the fourth was a resident of Cumberland.

The wreck was due to the displaying of a false signal giving a clear track for eastbound passenger train No. 10, when in the next block ahead there was standing on the track a passenger train.

The messenger boy who was in the block tower when No. 10 came along hearing the locomotive whistle for clear tracks pulled a lever which set a red signal.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is charged that a messenger boy named Turner who was in the block tower when No. 10 came along hearing the locomotive whistle for clear tracks pulled a lever which set a red signal.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is charged that a messenger boy named Turner who was in the block tower when No. 10 came along hearing the locomotive whistle for clear tracks pulled a lever which set a red signal.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is charged that a messenger boy named Turner who was in the block tower when No. 10 came along hearing the locomotive whistle for clear tracks pulled a lever which set a red signal.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is charged that a messenger boy named Turner who was in the block tower when No. 10 came along hearing the locomotive whistle for clear tracks pulled a lever which set a red signal.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is charged that a messenger boy named Turner who was in the block tower when No. 10 came along hearing the locomotive whistle for clear tracks pulled a lever which set a red signal.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is charged that a messenger boy named Turner who was in the block tower when No. 10 came along hearing the locomotive whistle for clear tracks pulled a lever which set a red signal.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is charged that a messenger boy named Turner who was in the block tower when No. 10 came along hearing the locomotive whistle for clear tracks pulled a lever which set a red signal.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is charged that a messenger boy named Turner who was in the block tower when No. 10 came along hearing the locomotive whistle for clear tracks pulled a lever which set a red signal.

A FATAL WRECK.

A Wrong Signal Caused the Death of Three Men

ON THE BALTIMORE AND OHIO

A Careless Messenger Boy Pushed a Lever Showing a White

Board Instead of a Red

Board.

Through the care and indifference of a messenger boy a wreck was caused on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad east of Cumberland Md., early Friday morning in which two employees of the road were killed and three men were injured and the fourth was a resident of Cumberland.

The wreck was due to the displaying of a false signal giving a clear track for eastbound passenger train No. 10, when in the next block ahead there was standing on the track a passenger train.

The messenger boy who was in the block tower when No. 10 came along hearing the locomotive whistle for clear tracks pulled a lever which set a red signal.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is charged that a messenger boy named Turner who was in the block tower when No. 10 came along hearing the locomotive whistle for clear tracks pulled a lever which set a red signal.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is charged that a messenger boy named Turner who was in the block tower when No. 10 came along hearing the locomotive whistle for clear tracks pulled a lever which set a red signal.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is charged that a messenger boy named Turner who was in the block tower when No. 10 came along hearing the locomotive whistle for clear tracks pulled a lever which set a red signal.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is charged that a messenger boy named Turner who was in the block tower when No. 10 came along hearing the locomotive whistle for clear tracks pulled a lever which set a red signal.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is charged that a messenger boy named Turner who was in the block tower when No. 10 came along hearing the locomotive whistle for clear tracks pulled a lever which set a red signal.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is charged that a messenger boy named Turner who was in the block tower when No. 10 came along hearing the locomotive whistle for clear tracks pulled a lever which set a red signal.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is charged that a messenger boy named Turner who was in the block tower when No. 10 came along hearing the locomotive whistle for clear tracks pulled a lever which set a red signal.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is charged that a messenger boy named Turner who was in the block tower when No. 10 came along hearing the locomotive whistle for clear tracks pulled a lever which set a red signal.

A FATAL WRECK.

A Wrong Signal Caused the Death of Three Men

ON THE BALTIMORE AND OHIO

A Careless Messenger Boy Pushed a Lever Showing a White

Board Instead of a Red

Board.

Through the care and indifference of a messenger boy a wreck was caused on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad east of Cumberland Md., early Friday morning in which two employees of the road were killed and three men were injured and the fourth was a resident of Cumberland.

The wreck was due to the displaying of a false signal giving a clear track for eastbound passenger train No. 10, when in the next block ahead there was standing on the track a passenger train.

The messenger boy who was in the block tower when No. 10 came along hearing the locomotive whistle for clear tracks pulled a lever which set a red signal.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is charged that a messenger boy named Turner who was in the block tower when No. 10 came along hearing the locomotive whistle for clear tracks pulled a lever which set a red signal.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is charged that a messenger boy named Turner who was in the block tower when No. 10 came along hearing the locomotive whistle for clear tracks pulled a lever which set a red signal.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is charged that a messenger boy named Turner who was in the block tower when No. 10 came along hearing the locomotive whistle for clear tracks pulled a lever which set a red signal.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is charged that a messenger boy named Turner who was in the block tower when No. 10 came along hearing the locomotive whistle for clear tracks pulled a lever which set a red signal.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is charged that a messenger boy named Turner who was in the block tower when No. 10 came along hearing the locomotive whistle for clear tracks pulled a lever which set a red signal.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is charged that a messenger boy named Turner who was in the block tower when No. 10 came along hearing the locomotive whistle for clear tracks pulled a lever which set a red signal.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is charged that a messenger boy named Turner who was in the block tower when No. 10 came along hearing the locomotive whistle for clear tracks pulled a lever which set a red signal.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is charged that a messenger boy named Turner who was in the block tower when No. 10 came along hearing the locomotive whistle for clear tracks pulled a lever which set a red signal.

A FATAL WRECK.

A Wrong Signal Caused the Death of Three Men

ON THE BALTIMORE AND OHIO

A Careless Messenger Boy Pushed a Lever Showing a White

Board Instead of a Red

Board.

Through the care and indifference of a messenger boy a wreck was caused on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad east of Cumberland Md., early Friday morning in which two employees of the road were killed and three men were injured and the fourth was a resident of Cumberland.

The wreck was due to the displaying of a false signal giving a clear track for eastbound passenger train No. 10, when in the next block ahead there was standing on the track a passenger train.

The messenger boy who was in the block tower when No. 10 came along hearing the locomotive whistle for clear tracks pulled a lever which set a red signal.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is charged that a messenger boy named Turner who was in the block tower when No. 10 came along hearing the locomotive whistle for clear tracks pulled a lever which set a red signal.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is charged that a messenger boy named Turner who was in the block tower when No. 10 came along hearing the locomotive whistle for clear tracks pulled a lever which set a red signal.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is charged that a messenger boy named Turner who was in the block tower when No. 10 came along hearing the locomotive whistle for clear tracks pulled a lever which set a red signal.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is charged that a messenger boy named Turner who was in the block tower when No. 10 came along hearing the locomotive whistle for clear tracks pulled a lever which set a red signal.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is charged that a messenger boy named Turner who was in the block tower when No. 10 came along hearing the locomotive whistle for clear tracks pulled a lever which set a red signal.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is charged that a messenger boy named Turner who was in the block tower when No. 10 came along hearing the locomotive whistle for clear tracks pulled a lever which set a red signal.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is charged that a messenger boy named Turner who was in the block tower when No. 10 came along hearing the locomotive whistle for clear tracks pulled a lever which set a red signal.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is charged that a messenger boy named Turner who was in the block tower when No. 10 came along hearing the locomotive whistle for clear tracks pulled a lever which set a red signal.