Impersonator of Noted Authors at Chautauqua

By presenting speaking likenesses of a number of the greatest literary men of a century Sidney Landon, who will be a notable attraction at the coming Redpath Chautauqua here, has contributed new dignity to the art of impersonation. With wigs, grease paints and a precisely vivid imagination, he gives faithful reproductions of noted authors. He completely loses his own identity.

SIDNEY LANDON

In portraying the role of a famous writer, and quotes from the works of the author impersonated.

One of Mr. Landon's most popular presentations is of Mark Twain making his historic birthday speech. Edgar Allan Poe is pictured in his story of "Annabel Lee." A humorous reading from James Whitcomb Riley, Bill Nye's "American Boy" and a group of Longfellow's poems are favorites in his repertoire.

Many of the later-day writers Mr. Landon knew personally. Other writers in both England and America he learned to know through visits to their former homes and libraries, and through interviews with relatives and close friends.

Pain In Back & Sides

"FOR A LONG TIME," says Mrs. Dora Payne, of Huntington, Tenn., "I felt listless, tired and worn-out. I did not feel like doing my work, visiting or anything. I suffered much pain in my back and sides. My limbs hurt, my knees would tremble without apparent cause and I would have to sit down. I was very nervous. I would have a tired, dull headache. I had read so much about Cardui I asked my husband to get it for me. The very first bottle seemed to help me. After the second... I was better than I had been in months. I certainly can praise Cardui. I have taken three bottles. Now I hardly wait, when the sun shines, to garden. I am feeling fine." Similar results to those described above have been reported by thousands of other women. Cardui's 40 years of success should encourage you to give it a thorough trial for the relief of any common female ailments. For sale everywhere.
