IT'S RIPPING GOOD NEWS

The dumbbells are not all dead yet; a new furniture clerk in a nearby town, when told by a prospective lady customer that she wanted something nice in OIL for her dining room, replied: "Certainly Ma'am—would you like a landscape or a box of sardines?"

Another bit of Ripping Good News is the announcement of KREAM KRUST BREAD. Those who have not tasted this bread cannot appreciate its superiority in flavor and quality. Its rich brown goodness is scientifically baked into every slice.

TAX EXECUTIONS

State of South Carolina,
County of Kershaw,
City of Camden.

By virtue of an execution directed to me by W. H. Haile, Clerk of the City of Camden, against the Camden Drug Company, defaulting taxpayer, for taxes for the City of Camden for 1928, I have levied upon the goods and chattels of the said Camden Drug Company and will sell same at public outcry, during the legal hours of sale, at the former place of business of the said Camden Drug Company, on the North side of De Kalb Street, of Camden, South Carolina, on the 2nd day of December, 1929, sufficient of goods and chattels of the said, the Camden Drug Company, to satisfy the execution, together with cost and charges thereof.

H. D. HILTON
Chief of Police of the City of Camden,
South Carolina.

TAX EXECUTION SALE.
Under and by virtue of sundry tax executions to me directed by Treasurer of Kershaw County, I have levied upon and will sell in front of the Court House door at Camden, S. C., between the legal hours of sale on the first Monday in December, 1929, being the 2nd day thereof, the following described property, to wit:
All the goods, merchandise and fixtures in the store room in the town of Camden, S. C., belonging to Camden Drug Company, Inc., or as such as necessary to satisfy the taxes of Camden Drug Company, Inc., for the years 1927, 1928 and 1929.
J. H. McLEOD,
Sheriff of Kershaw County
November 12, 1929.

COUSIN OF LATE R. J. REYNOLDS LAUDS IT.

"I wish I could tell everyone of my friends over the South how much I've been benefited by Sargon.

"I was in a street car wreck eighteen months ago and the shock completely undermined by nervous system. It was impossible for me to get a good night's rest, there was such a ringing noise in my head, and my legs ached so bad. I was losing weight and strength steadily when I started Sargon.

"Five bottles built me up from 130 pounds to 143 and every pain I had disappeared! That ringing noise in my head cleared up, I sleep fine and my strength and vitality have been completely restored. I used the Sargon Pills along with the tonic and the two medicines together are the finest I ever took in my life."

The above statement was made by William Reynolds, of Clarkston, Ga., who is Atlanta District Sales Manager for the Texas Oil Company and a cousin to the late R. J. Reynolds, Tobacco magnate.
