WASHINGTON, March 15 .- Secretary Morton of the Agricultural Department has found time to familiarize himself with the duties of nearly all the employees of the office. There are several places that are regarded by him as sinecures, and he does not propose that the incumbents shall much longer draw large salaries without giving the government a fair return. He has concluded that several of these positions are not essential to the success of the department, and will shortly notify the incumbents that their places are vacant. They will not be filled. SHE WANTS A HUSBAND. A Rose Hill Girl Who is Anxious to Marry. ATLANTA, March 17 .- Upon dainty, sweetly perfumed paper, nicely embellished with pretty pictures in the upper corner, Chief Connolly received a letter from a young lady who is anxious to marry, yesterday.

In his official career the chief has never received such a unique epistle as that which came in his mail yesterday. He has received many communications calling upon him to aid in running down and locating some desperate criminal, but he has never yet been requested to find a husband 11 o'clock, when the cabinet meeting for a young lady who wants to marry some nice young man, who has no home, and who would make her a good husband.

The young lady is Miss Bessie Starnes, of Rose Hill, S. C., and she gives a very graphic and at the same time a very flattering description of herself. If she measures up to the picture she draws of herself, she ought to meet the ideas of even the most fastidious young men.

Miss Bessie intimates that she plentifully supplied with this world's goods, and that the man who applies for the place of husband to her will have nothing to do but enjoy life.

Chief Connolly was greatly amused yesterday when he received the letter, and began running over in his mind the young men of his acquaintance, with a view of placing some of them at Miss Bessie's disposal. He will endeavor to fill Miss Bessie's request. Her letter was as follows:

THE SENATE COMMITTEES

AS ARRANGED BY THE DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS.

Every Democrat Gets a Chairmanship. The Republicans Given the Same Representation They Gave the Democrats.

Washington, March 14. - The Democratic caucus finished its labors to-day, so far as the re-organization of the committees of the Senate are concerned. The session of the caucus was not so long as was anticipated, despite the fact that there was some discussion on the subject of the re-organization of the elective offices of the Senate. There was a prevailing sentiment in favor of a speedy re-organization of the clerical and executive force of the Senate, and that sentiment took tangible shape immediately after the adjournment of the caucus, when the caucus committee met in Senator Ransom's room for the purpose of considering the subject. Up to this time, the committee has been so busily engaged with the revision of the committee lists that the other matter has been referred to only in an informal manner. This important branch of the work of the majority is now, however, well under way, and it is probable that by this time next week, if not earlier, the elective officers of the Senate will have been changed. It will be seen that the committee provided chairmanships for Senator Peffer and Kyle, the Populist members, and permitted Mr Stewart to retee on mines and mining, which held under the Republican organiza-

This list is complete, with the exception of the assignment of the Senator from Wyoming, and that place has been left vacant untill the member is sworn in. At conclusion of caucus Senator Gormen sent a copy of the list to the Republican committee, which was in session in the room of the committee on appropriations. The Republicans decline to giva out anything fonight, but will report to the Republican caucus to-morrow. It is said that there has been quite pressure brought to bear upon the caucus committee to remove Mr. Stewart from the Republican representation of the committee on appropriations and it is not unlikely that this will be done, in view of the fact that he has been kept by the Democrats as chairman of the committee of mines and mining. The Northwestern Senators are urging that this section of country is entitled to representation upon this important committee, and will insist that some one of their number be given the place. Mr. Dawes's retirement from the Senate leaves the minority representation as it would be under the reorganization, but if Mr Stewart is removed, there will be a vacancy, and it is this probable vacancy, that the men from the northwest are demanding should be given to them. The committee changes probably receive the sanction of the Senate to-morrow by resolution, and the old chairmen will then give up the room they have occupied, and Democrats will be in possession of that important branch of the government. Nominations will then be influence to secure his nomination. received and promptly acted upon.

THE PATRONAGE QUESTION

CHOICE OF CONSERVATIVES Ben Perry, for Collector, Encounters Stron.

Opposition—Earle Makes an Inglorious Attempt to Entrap Senator WASHINGTON, D. C., March 15. Special.—There is nothing absolutely certain here so far in regard to the appointment of Federal officials for South Carolina, although it seems morally sure that President Cleveland will select men who are loyal to Democratic principles, support the platform of the party and are of his way of thinking on financial questions -which will necessarily mean the choice of Conservatives. All his appointments so far indicate this. The mominee for Assistant Attorney General, whose name was sent in today, was a prominent Anti-Snapper and no one has yet been recognized who, is not sound on the silver question. I have very little doubt of the outcome, the chief point of dubiqueness being whether the Conservatives represented here can agree as to the men to be appointed.

Ben Perry undoubtedly has Senator Butler's endorsement, and is actively working against Tillman. There is the strongest opposition to him, howeyer, and it is exceedingly unlikely that he will be nominated. Judgment as to Senator Butler's action in this matter may well be suspended await results. The Senator is running his campaign in his own way, and is said to have a very ingenuous programme. I anticipate the nomination of a third party as a consequence "precisely equal division" of the leadof disagreement between Senato Butler and Irby as to the collector- such offices should be given to Demoship. Irby is deeply aggrieved at crats in accord with the President Perry's desertion and would undoupt and that they should be the ones to edly fight his confirmation.

The number of applicants for position is legion, and the uew and old members of the South Carolina delegation are literally buried in applications South Carolina will be young and for office. My belief is that young and active men will get the best appointments-men who understand politics and have not had their turn at the crib, who can do good and will try to build up the party in a practical way

Col. Earle came here yesterday and lodged at the National, with Senator Irby, with whom he went around today. He called on Senator Butler this morning and asked him whether he would oppose his confirma-tion if he should be nominated. Senator Butler desired him to put his inquiry in writing. When he did so, sending it to the Senator by the hands of D. A. J. Sullivan of Charleston, Senator Butler replied, with great terseness, that as that was matter pertaining to the executive sessions of the Senate, it would be improper for him to say what he would do in such a session, and he therefore flatly declined. It was a very simple device entrap an old hand at politics. I may add, personally, that there is not a chance for Col. Earle. He will fall between two cools .- Special Cor. the

The First Appointee to a Postoffice a News paper Man.

Washington, March 15 .- President Cleveland to-day sent to the Senate his first batch of Presidential postmasters, and the first was that of Robert B. Brown, to be postmaster at Meadville, Pa. Mr Brown, in addition to being the first appointee to a postoffice, has at the outset broken the rule said to be laid down by the Postoffice Department—that newspaper men should not be appointed to office. Mr Brown is owner and editor of the Messenger, a Democratic weekly published at Meadville.

Mr Brown has already shown his ability as a "hustler." The Republican incumbent of the office who was appointed almost four years ago by President Harrison was removed about three weeks before his term was out, and Mr Harrison sent the name of W. S. Rose, to the Senate for the place. Mr Brown, heard of this, and came down to Washington post-haste, armed with letters of introduction to Democratic Senators. He succeeded in having the nomination held up un-til the Republican sembistration went out of power, and then used his

President Cleveland said to day that he had presented endorsements more numerous than those of any other cardidate for the District Attorneyship, and as he seemed inclined to let the Tillmanites have something of no great conse-

THE FEDERAL OFFICES.

A Suggestion as to Hew to Find the Right Kind of Men.

COLUMBIA. March 13.-To the Editor of the State: A great deal has been written and said on the subject of the Federal patronage in this State lately, and as an anti-Tillman Democrat, interested in the ultimete success of pure Democracy, I have heard and listened with care. An idea has occurred to me in regard to the matter which it seems to me would tend to a solution of the problem, if it could be carried out. and would obviate all unseemly wrangling on the subject. It is this: Let the original Cleveland Democrats who are not applicants for office, meet in the various counties and prepare a statement of the condition of politics in this State, as shown by the records -official actions of conventions, both county and State, public utterances of the political leaders, and any other facts which can be substantiated and submit it to Mr Cleveland for his information, it being understood that no man or set of men are to be recommended or "bounced" by their action. and no request to be made of Mr Cleveland except that he inform himself as to the Democracy of all applicants for office in this State, particularly as to their recent attitude towards the Third party and other issues, and then leave the matter with him. Incidentally the information might be extended to those members of Congress who have been or are now considered "conservatives," that while they are at liberty to recommend any applicant for office whom they may choose, their action will be carefully noted and they will be left strictly to the care and devotion of their triends in any future contest for office they may themselves make. There can be no question that distribution of the offices will have much to do with the future Delige racy here, and we should do all the self-respecting men can'do to secure its
