PERMAPS no one measure would be more potent in freeing us from oppreseive taxation of the past thirty years as the passage of the income tax. This tax is right as a matter of equity. The war trriff was so laid as to hear most beavily on the poor, being heaviest on cheap goods. Thus the poorest have for thirty vente born an undue burden of taxatien. Even as equity and good conscience it is right now to getting together in the end. shift the hurden and place the tax on those most able to bear and who suggested is one that appears to be get most protection from the government. It is not unlikley that Congress will take some positive purchase of 4,500,000 ounces of zotion in the matter.

Since stock taking finds remnants of various and odd lots which we wish to convert into money, and realizing the hardness the times, and of course perfecting money to the goods, we have placed the price within the reach of all. To mention every thing in which we offer real bargains would be an impossibilit as four times the space allotted us would not suffice, and feeling confident that the mention of a few will serve as an index to the whole, we deem it unnecessary to fill this space with names.

Trip to the State Ailiance Meeting.

On Tuesday the 18th day of July 1898. we boarded the train at Heath Springs for Lancaster. We spent a pleasant evening in the town, and at 6 a. m. took passage on the Narrow Guage for Richburg where we met kind relatives and friends at our ancestral home.

Next day we had the pleasure of at. tending an Alliance picnic at Wylie's mill in the eastery part of Chester coupirs. - This was one of the most enthuisstic meetings of Alliancemen we have ever witnessed. Not less than one thousand persons were present. And the announcement of dinner.

After spending a few days with relatives and friends, we in company with our friend Hon. J. H. McDaniel boarded a car on the G. C. & N. for Fort Hill. We arrived at Calhoun at 5 p. m. where we were met by conveyances and carried safely to Clemson College. Here we were met by the Faculty and as signed to places for the night-mostly to the Dormitory with the students.
