MAY 31, 1895.

For Rent.

My residence on Lytleton street. Terms reasonable, and possession given immediately.

Miss S. A. Gibbs.

Crowded Out.

Several communications and other matter are unavoidably crowded out this week. They will appear next week.

Lost.

On Wednesday, 29th inst. on DeKalb St., between Hampton Park and 3rd St., a small gold baby breastpin, with the initials 'F. W.' engraved on front. Finder will confer a favor by returning same to the Wateree Messenger office.

Sudden Death.

Mrs. Hannah Yates, widow of Jesse L. Yates, died very suddenly at her home near Remberts on last Sunday morning. She was attended by Dr. Osteen who was to see her about 12 o'clock the night previous. Thinking that she was better she was left for the night, and parties returning the next morning found her dead. An inquest was held and the verdict of the jury was that she came to her death from organic heart trouble. The following gentlemen composed the jury of inquest: W. J. Young, D. V. Keiss, W. E. Ammonds, S. W. Young, R. S. Prescott, Manning Dorrity, John Gillis, C. W. Young, T. D. McLeod, D. J. Gillis, C. B. Gregg and A. J. Wingate.

Secretary Carlisle's Speech Dissected.

A Mass of Gold-Bug Heresies Subjected to the Searchlight of Truth. Agreeably to the programme as mapped out by Messrs. G. Cleveland & Co., Gold-Bugs and U. S. Bond Brokers, if not at the express command of the head of that august firm, Secretary Carlisle at Covington, Ky., on the 20th inst., opened the financial campaign of 1894 by the delivery of the ablest and most thoroughly comprehensive speech from the single gold standard side of the question that it has ever been the pleasure of the writer to see in print. No man after reading that effort will dare to accuse Mr. Carlisle of insincerity. The man is beyond doubt honest to the core and believes implicitly that every word he uttered at Covington is as true as holy writ.

Unfortunately however for the tenability of his arguments, the distinguished speaker is color-blind, everything appertaining to the subject of finance assuming in color to us defective vision a rich, golden yellow. In fact on this subject of finance, Mr. Carlisle reminds me of the old citizen who remarked yesterday that he had never seen such a weather in May, when the fact is that on May 16th of last year we had a very damaging frost. So when in the opening paragraph of his address proper, he states that the depreciation of prices and financial depression began five years ago and not twenty years as stated, the facts most positively refute his statement, as any wage-earner, producer or mortgage-riding farmer can abundantly testify.

Equally as fallacious is the assertion that the crisis was precipitated by the experiment by the Argentine Republic of a cheap and inflated currency. The idea is preposterous that a little South American Republic could even remotely unsettle values and shake the financial system of a universe when every financier of note predicted years previous to its actual occurrence the collapse of the Argentine system of finance.

Did space permit I would like to give in detail that system, but I must pass on to other features of this exposition of gold-bug heresies. After devoting about a half column to abuse of the Harrison administration and laying at its door all the ills which now afflict us, Mr. Carlisle settled down to business and began to reason with his audience on the inadvisability of establishing a new unit and measure of value unless the change could be positively shown beforehand to be beneficial.

Now, why didn't Mr. Carlisle tell the people that the true unit and measure of value is even now the same as has prevailed since the passage of our first coinage law of 1792? Instead of using the expression "the institution of a new unit or measure of value etc.," why didn't he say "the resumption of the old laws providing for the free coinage of gold and silver the unit or measure of value upon which was computed the value of all other coins being the silver dollar containing three hundred and seventy-one and one fourth grains of pure silver?" The answer to these questions is—color blindness.

Mr. Carlisle then took up and expounded the most important coinage laws of the country and asserted that in the law of 1792, silver was over-valued by the establishment of the legal ratio of 15 of silver to 1 of gold, consequently silver was driven out of circulation, which circumstances necessitated and brought about the law of 1834 and 37 changing the ratio to 16 to 1, the result of which change was a silver famine, silver in this case being undervalued, its bullion value upon the markets of the world being greater than that stamped upon its face.

This explanation would have been convincing and correct had Mr. Carlisle stated that in the first instance too little gold was contained in the gold coin to preserve or maintain its parity with silver, while in the latter there was too much, and that silver was not over or undervalued in either law, the number of grains of pure silver contained in the silver dollars coined or authorized to be coined under both laws being precisely the same. Thus I give you another example of the effects of color-blindness.

Had I the time or the inclination to trespass further upon the kindness of the editor I could fill a dozen columns with criticisms more or less pertinent of other weak features in this remarkable speech, but I will conclude by calling attention to the statement that the free coinage of silver means that sixteen pounds of silver shall by legislative enactment be declared equal in value to thirty-two pounds of that metal as measured by our present standard or unit. There is absolutely no truth in this statement. The gold dollar of unit is a dishonest unit or measure of value as it has a constantly rising monetary value, and it was fastened upon this country only after long and unscrupulous effort by the money-kings.

The silver dollar containing three hundred and seventy-one and one fourth grains of pure silver is our natural unit of value, and the effect of the free coinage of silver will be to loose forever the deadly grip of gold, forcing it into its proper place in our monetary system, divesting it of its fictitious value and reducing it to or near its natural parity with silver at the ratio of 16 to 1.

When this is accomplished prosperity will return. The winner of our financial discontent with all its blighting influences will pass away, while every hill-top and mountain-side, even to the uttermost parts of our grand domain will echo and re-echo the glad acclaim of "America for Americans." No English domination in matters mundane or spiritual, financial or commercial.

Respectfully,
W. A. SCHROCK.

From Our Correspondents.

Boykins.
Mr. Editor:—I again claim my space in the columns of the dear Chronicle.

The frost we had on 22nd did considerable damage. We also had some snow recently.

Misses Maggie and Fannie Gaskins, of this place, are visiting friends and relatives at Beulah.

The Misses Burgess, of the McLeod neighborhood, were visiting here last Sunday.

Mr. T. L. Dixon, of Beulah, was visiting in our burg last Sunday.

To L. L. C. (The first representative legislative assembly was held at Jamestown, Va., July 30th, 1619, and Gov. Yearly presided.)

Lucknow.
I come again and claim my space in your valuable column.

We are having lots of rain now and Gen. Green is about in the lead.

What few stalks of cotton the frost left are looking red and hearty. Some of the farmers are speaking of ploughing their cotton up and planking corn.

I think Bro. "L. L. C." of Lynchwood has made a good suggestion. I think the history question club will be of great benefit to the readers as well as to the correspondents.

DeKalb.
Dear Chronicle:—A Sunday School was organized at Cook's Church recently, with the following officers in charge: Mr. Robt. Mickle Supr., Mr. L. McL. Brown Ass't Supr., Mr. Charlie Lorrick sec'y and treas. We believe Mr. Mickle to be the right man in the right place and with the valuable aid of the Ass't we predict them a long and useful career.

Excuse me, Dutch, but our letter was written the week before it was printed, and if one of your citizens was not at DeKalb then we were certainly misinformed. We think it would be more convenient for you to head your articles from your community, as we deem one correspondent quite enough for this neighborhood at least.

Miss Mattie Turner, of Westville, is spending some time with Mrs. J. F. Clarke, of this place.

Shaylor's Hill.
Dear Editor:—Since my last writing we have had lots of rain and cold weather. It is raining now. What will the farmer do?

Mr. J. E. Watkins is the guest of Mr. R. L. Smyl. We are glad to see him. We think he is on professional business. Come as often as you can "Eddie," we always welcome thee.

I think Children's Day will be observed at DeKalb some time soon. Would be glad to be there.

Mrs. Arledge has not returned home yet. We trust she is having a pleasant time.

Mr. W. D. Entzenges has a good school at Gantley's. He is teaching vocal music in connection with the other branches.

Wheat and oats have begun to ripen. Some of our farmers will be glad to see it.

I will close by saying goodbye for this time.

Mr. Oliv.
Dear Chronicle:—Again we seek a small space among your many correspondents. As a great many others we have to complain of scarcity of news.

We had the unlimited pleasure of attending the "Children's Day" exercises at Beulah last Saturday. Notwithstanding the disagreeable weather a large crowd was present and it was in every way a success.

Addresses were delivered by Rev. Mr. Waddell, Mr. David McDowell, Mr. C. W. Birchmore and the pastor, Rev. Peter Stokog.

A nice little sum was raised which as we said before, would go for missions.

Then came the dinner. Oh, so delicious. Everyone seemed to enjoy it and have a jolly good time. The church was beautifully decorated.

Miss Maggie Gaskins, who has been spending some time with friends in this vicinity, has returned to her home at Boykins.

A certain young man in this neighborhood dressed in his best and went to see his girl, came back in the rain and said he would give up the idea of being a "sport."

Chesnut Grove.
Girls Who Like Mulberries.—"Locus Hull" Rapped.

Mr. Editor:—As we see nothing from here in your valuable paper we will, with your permission, try and give you a few dots.

Farmers are having some beautiful weather for working, but it is very uncertain how long it will continue.

Picnics are all the amusement we hear of at present. We heard of a crowd of girls in this vicinity amusing themselves by riding each other in a road cart, and climbing.

We guess we better not tell about the Mulberry tree; those girls might not like for us to.

"Locus Hull" must think he is the only one of your many readers that ever read the piece of poetry he contributed last week. Any one who has read "Reynolds" reader will remember it. He must think that by changing it a little it will appear original. Poor "Locus Hull."

As this is our first we will close. If it is not consigned to the waste basket we will come again soon.

An Odorless Refrigerator.
We are making an odorless refrigerator in Chattanooga, under letters patent, in which you can put onions, bananas, strawberries, in fact all kinds of vegetables, fruits, meats, fish, cheese, or anything that has an odor, together with milk or butter, leaving the latter in open vessels, without contamination. It consumes from one-third to one-half less ice than other refrigerators and needs no washing out. Money refunded if it will not do all we claim. Send for delivery prices and testimonials. Refrigerators for hotels, grocers, butchers and dairymen built to order on short notice. Keyser & Co., sole manufacturers, Chattanooga, Tenn., U. S. A.

New Society.
Camden is to have a new secret society. Mr. Edmund Bacon, of Spartanburg, P. G. C. C. of the K. of P. and State Councillor of the Jr. O. U. A. M. will come to Camden next Friday for the purpose of organizing here a group of the Jr. O. U. A. M. to be known as Camden Council No. 9. This is a fraternity order which is comparatively young in this state, but which has within the past few months gained strength rapidly. Those who have allied their names to the application for a charter, and any others who may wish to unite with them, are requested to meet at the Opera House at 8:30 p. m. sharp, Friday, May 31st.

REGISTRATION NOTICE.
The Books of Registration will be opened in the County Commissioner's office in the Court House, between the hours of 10 a. m. and 2 p. m., as the law directs on the first Monday in each month, until the first Monday in July, 1895, when the law requires them closed. This is for the purpose of registering all persons who have become of age or entitled to register since last election; to transfer persons from this to another county, and from one township to another, or from one residence to another. All this must be done before or on the first Monday in July, 1895. Lost certificates may be renewed within 30 days of the election, and those who become of age between 1st of July and the election may register at any time before election.

Those who refused or neglected to register before the last election cannot register until the law is changed.

W. R. HOUGH, Supervisor of Registration for Kershaw Co.

DISH WASHER.
I wish to announce that I am agent in this county for the Climax Dish Washer. Everybody in the county should have one. It washes the dishes perfectly in two minutes without putting your hands to them by simply turning a crank. It is one of the greatest inventions known. A sample of this Washer can be seen at the Chronicle office. Call there and examine it, or call on me for particulars.

O. L. TURNER, Boykins, S. C.
