The Chronicle as an Advertising Medium.

Those blinded by prejudice can easily see the worth of The Chronicle as an advertising medium. The following unsolicited testimonial as to The Chronicle's worth was sent us a few days ago from the Georgia Business College, of Macon, Ga., which has been advertising with us for some time.

Dear Sir:—We beg to hand you herewith copy of our monthly reading notice. Numerous inquiries from your station give conclusive proof of the value of your paper as an advertising medium, and certainly merit the liberal support of your home people.

Cordially Yours, The Georgia Business College, J. R. Goodale & Son.

Strong Resolutions.

After the school trial in Camden on the 24th ult. the citizens of Shamrock met and passed the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we consider Messrs. J. N. McCaskill and J. R. Thorn as indebted to this school in the full and just sum that they have so unjustly deprived us of and that we demand immediate payment of the same.

Resolved, That we most solemnly declare that we no longer recognize Mr. J. R. Thorn or Mr. J. N. McCaskill as our "Boss" or our servant either, but that in the future we will run our schools independent of these trustees, even if we have to "pay the piper" out of our own pockets.

Resolved, That we most emphatically deny that we got the benefit of the last month of the said school as appears in the statement of the Board of Examiners in the Waters Messenger; but that we proved to them to the contrary, and we reassert that only a very few scholars enjoyed the benefit of this school.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to The Camden Chronicle for publication.

Resolved further that we intend to educate our children even if we have to go bare-footed and eat cow-pose; and that we employ a teacher as soon as possible and open a school for the Fall and Winter, and even longer if we can find any teacher who happens to read these resolutions and wishes to teach for us to be fully instructed to call on us at 1255 N. E. Johnson, Camden, S. C. for particulars.

Mr. Oliver. Sept. 17.

Mr. Editor:—As we have finished washing the dishes, and have a few leisure moments to spend before time to "tip and tear" we will give you a few dots.

Cotton is opening rapidly, if the weather continues warm it will soon be all harvested. As the result of the meeting here, six connected themselves with the church. They will be baptized some time in the near future.

Prayer meeting will be held at Mt. Olivet next Saturday night. It meets one week at Beulah, the next at Mt. Olivet.

Rev. Peter Stokes met his congregation at Beulah last Sunday and as usual, preached a fine sermon. He will hold another meeting here sometime in October. We would be delighted to meet "Well Wisher" at Bro. H. T. J.'s and would promise to do our part by that token.

We think the barbecue would be just splendid and if Bro. H. T. J. succeeds in securing the service of J. E. to mind the dogs, we will help him steer the pig. But wouldn't it be nice for J. E. if he could steal the pig for the barbecue? We are so doing. Then Bro. H. T. J. you might get a fifty cent job.

If the "moon don't change" we will have an important notice for next week, so look out Mr. Editor. With best wishes to all, and love to the sister correspondents, we close. P. M. H.

Mr. Editor:—As we have been silent so long we will come again claiming our space among your bright correspondents.

Cotton picking is the order of the day. Cotton crops are very good in this section. Late corn is good considering the dry weather. Rice crops are not so good as was expected.

We are glad to say that Mr. J. L. Sanders who has been sick for some time is now improving. Tobacco crops are good in this community.

We are sorry to say that Mr. Revelle had a very fine house of tobacco burnt up not long ago. D. B. Bernhart also got a very fine house of the valuable weed burnt up.

Mr. A. W. Reese has opened up a very fine store at Boykins. We trust he may make a grand success.

Well Mr. Editor as our correspondents have gotten tired of asking history questions I will ask one as it may be of interest to your many readers. Who was the 13th President of the U. S., where was he born and what date, who did he marry and what year, what year was he installed into office and how old was he when he went into office, how long did he serve, where did his death take place, date of death and how old was he when he died?

Well Mr. Editor this is somewhat a long question but I hope your correspondents will not find

We are having some right nice weather for cotton picking. A fellow going to picking not long ago had a bad accident to happen to him his mule fell down with him and he happened to the luck of getting his gourd skinned.

Bro. W. J. W. passed through here last Sunday with his best girl. He looked as pleased as dad's old-house cat when he had just rescued a mouse.

AS IN YOUTH Ayer's Hair Vigor CORDIALLY INDORSED.

RESTORES Natural Growth OF THE HAIR—WHEN ALL OTHER Dressings FAIL.

"I can cordially indorse Ayer's Hair Vigor, as one of the best preparations for the hair. When I began using Ayer's Hair Vigor, all the front part of my hair—about half of it—was bald. The use of only two bottles restored a natural growth, which still continues as in my youth. I feel several other people who have tried it, and they all say Ayer's Hair Vigor is the best."—Mrs. J. C.
