"LETTER SIGNED BY SIX YOUNG WOMEN."

Christ, who took His text from a flock of birds flying overhead, saying, "Behold the fowle of the air," and from the flowers in the valley, saying, "Consider the lilies of the field," and from the clucking of a barnyard fowl, saying, "As a hen gathered her chick ens under her wing." and from a crystal of sait ploked up by the roadside, saying, "Sait is good," will grant us a blessing M, lastead of taking a text from the Bible, I take for my tort this latter from Cincinnati, which is only one of many lotters which I have received from young women in New York. New Orleans, San Francisco, London, Edinburgh, and trom the ends of the earth, all implying that, having some months ago preached the sermon on "Advice to Young Men," I could not, without neglect of duty, refuse to preach a sermon on "Advice to Young Wo-

It is the more important that the pulpit be It is the more important that the pulpit be heard on this subject at this time when we are having such an ullimitable discussion about what is called the new woman, as though some new creature of God had ar-rived on earth or were about to arrive. One theory is that she will be an athlete, and box-ing glove and football and pugliistic en-counter will characterize her. Another theory is that she will superintend ballot boxes, sit in Congressional hall and, through boxes, sit in Congressional hall and, through improved polities, bring the millenium by the cylishe will extirpate and the good she will install. Another theory is that she will adopt masculine attire and make sacred a vulgarianism positively horrifle. Another theory is that she will be so assthetic that broom handle and rolling pin and coal seutthe will be pictorialized with tints from soft skies or suggestions of Rembrandt and Raphael.

Heaven deliver the church and the world from any one of these styles of new worand. She will never come. I have so much faith in the evangelistic triumph and in the pro-gress of all things in the right direction that rress of all things in the right direction that I prophesy that style of new woman will never arrive. She would hand over this world to diabolism, and from being, as she is now, the mightlest agency for the world's uplifting, she would be the mightlest force for its downthrust. I will tell you who the new woman will be. It will be the good woman of all the ages past. Here and there a different e of attire, as the temp rary custom may com-

Of that kind of wo-man was Christian Eddy, who, talking to a man who was so much of an unbaliever he had name_1-his two children Voltairs and Care Batter merchedes any him converted Tom Pathe, nevertheless saw him converted, he breaking down with emotion as he said to her, "I cannot stand you, you talk like my mother." And telling the story of his my mother." And tolling the story of his conversion to twelve companions who had been datant opposers of religion, thay asked her to come and see them also and tell them of Christ, and four of them were converted, and all the others greatly changed, and the leader of the band, departing for heaven, should: "Joyfull Joyfull Joyfull" from know any better style of woman than that. where is she? The world cannot improve on that kind. The new woman may have more knowledge because she will have no more books, but she will have no more common sense than that which tried to manage and discipling and edu; cate us, and did as well as she could with such unpromising material. She may have more health than the woman of othe days, for the sewing machine and the sani-tary regulations and added intelligence on the subjects of dict, ventilation and exercise and rescue from many forms of drudgerv may allow her more longevity, but she will have the same characteristics which God gave her in paradise, with the exception o e nervous shock and moral jolt of the fall she got that day when, not noticing where she stopped, she looked up into the branches of the fruit tree.

tianly. No good woman needs to be told what attire is proper and what behavior is right. If anything be doubtful, reject it. hoydenish, bolsterous, masculino; woman is the detestation of all, and every revolution of the wheel she rides is toward depreciation and downfail. Take care of your heatth, O woman; of your nerves in not reading the trash which makes up ninety-nine out of 100 novels, or by eating too many cornucopias of confectionery! Take care of your ears by stop-ping them against the tides of gossip that trash which makes up ninoty-nige out of 100 novels, or by eating too many cornucopias of confectionery! Take care of your eyes by not reading at hours when you ought to be sleeping. Take care of your ears by stop-ping them against the tides of gossip that surge through every ueighborhood. Health! Only these know its value who have lost it. The earth is girdled with pain, and a year properties of it is the price paid and a vast proportion of it is the price paid for early reckloseness. I close this thought with the salutation in Maxwells Now good digestion wait on app sing And health on both.

Advice the third: Approvate your in the while you have her. It is the almost and serial testimony of young women who have ost mother that they did not readize what lost mother that they do not reading a role she was to them until after her exit from this life. Indeed mother is in the apprecia-tion of many a young lady a his transe. The maternal inspection is often considered an obstacle. Mother has so many notions about that which is proper and that which is in-more it is actounding how much more proper. It is assounding how much more many girls know at eighteen than their mothers at forty-five. With what an elabetemper, the youngling tries to reverse the minion of the oldling. The sprinkle of gray on the maternal forchead is rather an indi-cation to the resent graduate of the female seminary that the circumstances of to-lay or to-aight are not fully appreciate i.

What a wise loarding school that would beif the mothers were the pupils and the daughters the teachers! How well the teens could chaperon the fifties! Then mothers do not amount to much anyhow. They are in the way and are always asking questions about postage marks of letters, and asking, "Who is that Mary D.?" and "Where did you form that acquintance, "flora?" and "Where form that acquiring allows to far a whole dil you get that ring. Myra?" For mothers have such unproce lented means of knowing overything—they say "it was a birl in the fift" that told them. Alas, for that birl in the air! Will not some out lift his gun and shoot it? It would take whole libraries to hold the wishes which the daughter knows hold the wislom which the daughter knows more than her mother. "Why cannot I have this?" "Why cannot I do that?" An the question in many a group has been, al-though not plainly stated: "What shall w do with the mothers, anyhow? They are so far behind the times.", me to suggest that if the Per-nit hat given more time to looking after horsel an I less time to looking after you sho would have been as fully up to date as you, in music, in style of gall, in esthetic factors and in attracts of information. I expect that while you were studying bottuy as 1 chom-istry and embroidery and the new opera sho was studying household economies. But one day from overwork, or sitting up of night, with a neighbor's sick child, or a bl st of th west wind, on which pneumonias are horse mother is sick. Yet the family think s' will soon I e well, for she has been sick s often, an I atways has got well, and the phy sician comes three times a day, and there is a consultation of the dectors, and the new is gradually broken that recovery is impose ble, given in the words "While thare is if there is hope." Tall me, mon and woman young and old, did any of us approxime how much mother way to us mutil she was gone. Young woman, you will probably never have a more disinterested friend than your mothor. When she says anything is unsafe or im pru lent, you had better believe it is unsite or imprulent. When she declarat it is something you ought to do, I think you had better do it. She has seen more of the better do it. She has seen more of the world than you have. Do you think she ould have any mergenary or contemptibl motive in what she a lyisas you? She would give her life for you if it were called for. Do you know of auyone else who would do more than that for you? Do you know of anyone who would do as much? Write it out in a plain hand, not like the letters which Josephine received from Napoleon in Italy, the writing so serawling and seathered that it was sometimes taken as a map of the seat of war. Pat the plan on the will of your room, or write it in the opening of a Water book, or pat it where you will be compelled often to soo it. A thousand questions of your coming ille you cannot sottle now, but there is one question you can sottle independent of man, women, angel and devil, and that is that you will be that you will be God's woman now, henceforth and forever. Chasphands with the Almighty. Pythypera-represented life by the letter Y, hectures it rarly divides into invo ways. Look out for o opertunities of chaoring, inspiring, resen-ing and saving all the people you can. Makes a league with the eternities. I seek your present and everlasting safety. Oaxil Browster said that a comet helping to our system called Lexill's comet is lost, as it ought to have appeared thirteen times and has not appeared at all. Alas, it is not only the lost comets, but the lost stars, and what were coasidered fixed stars. Some of the most brilliant and steady souls have disappeared. The world wonders at the charge of the Light Brigale, remortalized by Tennyson. Only a few of the 690 get back from the gharge, under Lord Carligan, of the Muscovite guns, and all the havee was done in twenty-five minutes, the charge beginning at ten minutes past 11 o'clock, and closing at thirty five minutes past 11, and yet nothing left on the ield but dying and dead mun, dying an dead horses. But a smaller propertion of the men and women who go into the battle of life come out unwounded. The staughter has been an t will be terrifle, as t we all need Gol and we need Him now an Iwe need Him all the time. And let me say there is a new woman, as there is a new man, and that is the regenerated woman made such by the ransacking, transforming, upbuilding, triumphant power of the spirit who is so su-perior to all other spirits that He has been failed for ages the floty Spirit. INTERESTING ITEMS FROM ALL the General Assembly on the issues of the day at such a date as he may find conventent. Ex-Speaker Crisp spoke in the hall of the House Wednesday night in response to a similar invitation.

Mr. Grisp confined himself almost exclu-sively to the financial question and in the course of his remarks declared himself une-quivocally in favor of free, unlimited and independent coinage of silver, at a ratio of 16 to 1. His argument was confined to a contradiction of the statement made by the dvocates of a gold standard to the effect that free coinage would result in silver mon-ometallism, and that values would be dereased.
