SOUTH CAROLINA CO-EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTE, (Formerly known as the Williston High School.)

WILLISTON, BARNWELL COUNTY, SO. CAROLINA. Next Session Begins Thursday, September 26, 1895.

For the past four years this School has been known as the Williston High choole Year by year its patronage has steadily increased, during the past session students attending from almost every section of South Carolina, and also from Georgia. The patronage being so large the Board of Trustees at their last anmual meeting decided to put up larger buildings, increase the number of teachers, raise the standard of the School and change the name to the South Carolina Co-Ed cational Institute. The Institution has been granted a charter by the State and is the largest boarding school between Augusta, Ga., and Charleston, S. C. Last December our Dormitories were destroyed by fire. We take pleasure in announcing to the public that larger and commodious buildings of modern architecture are now being erected on a beautiful Campus of eight acres. These buildings will be completed and comfortably equipped in time to accommodate 150 boarding students by the opening of the session. Our boarding arrangements for the next session will be far better than ever before and will not be excelled by any school in the State. Separate buildings for boarding arrangements for the next session. any school in the State, Separate buildings for boyseard girls. Teachers I ve in same building with students. Our teachers are all specialists in their branches. Facul-
