FIFTY-FIFTH CONGRESS. Report of the Proceedings from Day

SENATE. JULY 6TH. -- In the Senate it was deeided to limit the speeches on the tariff to the five minute rule, and that the final yote on the bill shall be taken before adjournment on the 7th. During the day the anti-trust question was dobated at length, and Pettus' amendment on the subject was defeated, 26 to 38. Allen, of Nebraska, again offered the amendment for a f cent bounty on beel sugar. It led to lively and somewhat personal speeches from the two Ne-braska Senators, after which the Allen amendment was tabled, 57 to 9. JULY 77H. By a decisive vote of 38 o 28, the tariff bill was passed in the One Democrat voted with the Republicans, while two Populists and one Silver Republicans voted with the Democrats. Nearly a thousand amend ments is carried back to the House and yet to be reconsidered by both branches of Congress. JULY STH. - The session of the Souate was uneventful. An invitation was accepted for the United States to participate in the Paris Exposition, and a special commission is to be appointed. The deficiency appropriation bill carrying $9,811,465 was commerced throughout the day. A new Committee amend mont was agreed to, appropriating $6,000 in full informaty to the hears of the Italians lynched in New Orleans, in 1896. Butler, of North Carolina, of fered an amendment limiting the cost of armor plate for new battleships to $300 per ton, and providing for a gov ernment armor plant, if private bids were not within $800. The amendment went over.

JULY Dru. - The Sonate met under the distressing influences of the death of Senator Harris, of Tennessee. Senator Bate paid a high tribute to the memory of the distinguished dead, and then resolutions were adopted for a public funeral funeral in the Senate chamber, to be held on the 10th, to which the President, Cabinet, Supreme Court and diplomatic corps were invited, after which, as a further mark of respect to the memory of the deceased, the Benate adjourned.

JULY 10rn. The conferees on the tariff bill suspended their labors long enough to attend the funeral coremon ies conducted over the remains of the Into Senator Harris, but resolved before dispersing for this purpose to reassem ble immediately after the conclusion of the obsequies, and to continue their work not only tonight, but all day, The decision to sit on Sunday was not reached without some hesitation, but was decided upon as necessary to ex-pedite the reporting of the bill. JULY 1970. A discussion of the Union Pacific atlairs occupied the attention of the Senate. Senator Morgan, of Alabama, introduced an amendment designed to prevent the consummation of an agreement made some time since for the settlement of the government's claim/ against the road, and he thinks the United States is in danger of losing $30,000,000 in the set tlement, and spoke for three hours upon the subject. Thurston briefly controverted the points of Morgan's argument, and Hale, in charge of the bilk claimed that his amendment was new logislation, and he withdrew his amendment, thus disposing of the en-tire subject. A resolution by Butler, of North Carolina, was agreed to, directing the Secretary of State to secure from diplomatic representatives abroad full information as to the oper ation of postal telegraphs, telephones and postal savings banks. The defi-ciency appropriation bill was taken up, but prot completed.

HOUSE July 7rm. The House met at noon, after a recess taken on the 5th, in anticipation of the possibility that the Sen-ate might pass the tariff bill. McMilhu (Dem.), of Tennessee, endeavored to suspend the rules and have the Senate Cuban beligerency resolution pass ed, but a motion to adjourn prevailed by a vofe of 131 to 101.

July Sen. The House sent the tariff hill to conference. Chairman Dingley, Payno, of New York; Dalzell, of Penn-sylvania; Hopkins, of Illinois, and Grosvenor, of Ohio, Republicans, and Bailey, of Texas; McMillan, of Tennessee, and Wheeler, of Alabama, Democrats, were appointed conferens The proceedings were in nowise sensational. Bailey's aliusion to Cuba was warmly applauded by the Democrats, who renewed their demonstration when he said that the President had found time to send a special ambassador 3,000 miles to attend the festivities in honor of a European monarch, but none to send even a message of sympathy to the people struggling for freedom at our very doors. Most of the afternoon was spent in enlogies on the life and pursuits of the memory of Wm. S. Holmm, of Indiana July 12rn. The House, on account of the death of Senator Harris, as soon as the journal had been read, on motion of Moon (Dem.) of Tennessee, as a nearly of respect to the memory of the deceased Semator, suspended business natil the Eith.

been identified with more of the history of the country than had Senator Harris. He had almost completed his 19th year, having been born in Februury, 1818, and first became a member of Congress in 1849. His congressional career thus began earlier than that of any member of either House, antedat ing Senators Morrill and Sherman by several years, and Hon. Galusha A. Grow, now a member of the House from Pennsylvania, by one year. Mr. Harris, when he was elected to the national become a man of State reputation in Tennessee, having the year previously served as special elector on the Demo

He was three imes in succession before the war elected (lovernor of his State, and was serving in that capacity when the war broke out. He took a prenounced stand for the Southern Confederacy, and was known as one of the Southern war Governors. The vicissitudes of conflict rendered a frequent change of residence necessary, and he often with the army in the field. He attached himself at different times to the staffs of General Albert Sidney Johnston, Joseph E. Johnston, Beaur egard and Bragg. Albert S. Parson Brownlow, who had become the military (lovernor of Tennessee, offered a large reward in a characteristically worded poster, for the capture of his predecessor, but the latter remained absent from the country until his return was safe. He remained in Mexico for several months, going thence to England, where he resided until 1867, when he returned to Momphis and re sumed his practice of law. Mr. Harris was allowed to follow the pursuits of Mr. Harris the private citizen until 1877, when he was elected to the United States Senate, defeating Hon. L. L. Hawkins, Republican. He remained a member of the Senate over since, and would have completed his 20th consecutive year in that body on the 4th of next March, if he had lived to that date. He had been about al to the Sanata the last time in 1895, and his term would not have expired until 1901. He had received almost all the honors the Senate could bestow. He was the President pro tem, during the 53d Congress, a leading member of the committees on finance and rules, and also of the Democratic advisory, or steering committee. He has long been awarded by common consent the front place on both sides of the chamber in parliamentary question, and in recent years he had been more frequently heard in expounding these questions than in the elucidation of other subjects. He was possessed of a very positive manner, and never failed to throw into his

> The Wilson Anti-Trust Section is Re-Enacted, and the Stamp Tax on Bonds Added to the Bill.

> > Washington, July 7. - (Special.) - By the decisive vote of 88 to 28, the tariff all was passed in the Senate shortly before 5 o'clock today. The culmination of the long and arduous struggle had excited the keenest interest, and the floor and galleries of the Senate chambers were crowded by those anxious to witness the closing scenes. Speaker Reed, Chairman Dingley and many of the members of the House of Representatives were in the rear area. while every seat in the galleries save hose reserved for foreign representaives was occupied.

The early part of the day was spent on amendments of comparatively minor importance, the debate branching into financial and anti-trust channels. By 4 clock Senators began manifesting their impatience by calls of "vote" and soon thereafter the last amendment was disposed of and the final vote began. There were many interruptions as pairs were arranged, and then at 4:55 the Viceresident arose and announced the passage of the bill, yeas 38, nays 28. There was no demonstration, but a few scattered hand clappings were given as the crawds dispersed. The vote in detail follows:

Yeas-Allison, Baker, Burrows, Car ter, Clark, Cullom, Davis, Deboe, El-kins, Fairbanks, Foraker, Gallinger, linle, Hanna, Hawley, Jones of Nevada, Lodge, McBride, McEnery, McMillan, Mantle, Mason, Morrill, Nelson, Penrose, Perkins, Platt of Connecticut Platt of New York, Uritchard, Proctor, Quay, Sowall, Sheup, Spooter, War renton, Wellington, Wetmore and Will

Nays-Bacon, Bate, Berry, Cantory, Cannou, Chilton, Clay, Cockrell, Faulkner, Gray, Harris of Kansas, Jones of Arkansas, Kennedy, Lindsay, Mallory, Martin, Mills, Muchell, Mor gan, Pasco, Pettus, Rawlings, Roach, Turner, Turpie, Vest, Walthall and White - 28.

The following pairs were announced the first named would have voted for the bill and the last named against it: Aldrich and Murphy, Chandler and McLaurin, Frygand Gorman, Gear and Smith, Hansbrough and Daniel. Hoar and Harris of Tonnessee, Thurston and Tillman, Wolcott and George.

An analysis of the final vote shows the affirmative was cast by 35 Republicans, 2 silver Republicans, Jones of Ne vada, and Mantle, and one Democrat McEnery; total, 88. The negative vote was cast by 25 Democrats, two Popu lists, Harris of Kansas, and Turner, and one silver Republican, Cannon;

Eight Republicans were paired for the bill and eight Democrats against it. The Senators present and not voting were: Populists, 5; Allen, Butler, Heitfeld, Kyle and Stewart; silver Republicans, 2, viz., Teller and Petti Following the passing of the bill a resolution was agreed to asking the House for a conference, and Senators Allison, Aldrich, Platt, of Connecticut; Nevada: Vest urrows Jones, of Jones, of Arkansas, and White were named as conferees on the part of the Senate. The tariff debate begun on May 25, on which day Mr. Aldrich, in behalf of the finance committee, made the opening statement on the bill. The actual consideration of the bill began the next day, May 26, when schedule A, relating to chemicals, was taken up. The debate has been continuous since then, covering six weeks, and one day. It has been notable in some respects, although it has lacked many of the dramatic and erratic features marking past debates. From the outset the advocates of the bill refrained from set speeches, and the discussion was narrowed to a consideration of rates and schedules rather than general debates. Mr. Aldrich's illness took him from the chamber after the first day, and since then the bitt has been in immediate charge of Mr. Allison. The opposition has been directed in the main by Mr. Jones of Arkansas, and Mr. Vest of Missouri, while Senators White, Caffery, Gray and Allen have frequently tigured in the debate. The bill, as it goes back to the House, re-enacts the anti-trust section of the Wilson act, while the reciprocity and retaliatory provisions are substitutes for those of the House. One of the most important provisions added by the Senate is that placing a stamp tax on bonds, debentures and certificates of stock. Asido from these more important changes, the bill, as it goes back to the House, has 874 amendments of various degrees of importance which must be reconciled by the two branches of Congress The tariff bill was then taken up and Mr. Allison proceeded to perfect its

Now came the final yote which has been so eagerly awaited. The keenest interest was manifested throughout the crowded chamber. It was 4:37 p. m. when the Vice President announced that the bill was on its final passage, and the roll call began. At 4:55 p. m.

the Vice-President announced: "Senators, on this vote the yeas are 38. the nays 28, and the bill is passed. It was arranged that the bill as passed should be printed with the sections and paragraphs renumbered.

upon mothers the necessity of the infants' education beginning at their mothers' knee, and thinking of this has led me to the invention of the bables' crawling rug. It is a large floorpicture of animals, birds and domestic figures, made of real skin, swansdown, and other materials sewn on to flannel, and is quite in harmony with Prochel's

For as soon as baby is put on the rug the first thing that the mite does is to begin to kick and stretch out its/limbs; then it begins to roll over and look about, and tries to clutch at the pretty animals on the rug. Then baby finds it beyond its reach, and the first attempt to crawl is after puss, or some other equally familiar form which it sees on

The kicking, the stretching out the hand, the observation, the crawling, and so on, are all what Froebel calls education.

As baby grows older it learns, with the help of mother and nurse, to imitate the different sounds which the animals make, to pick out one from the other, and to learn their names.
