Several months ago the Japanese Ten Guild seat to this country a special commission to investigate the condition of the Japanese tea trade in the United States and Canada, and to co-operate with its American representatives in giving publicity to the merits of Japan ose teas and the best methods of proparing thom.

Ton bazaars are to be opened in many of the principal cities in the United States and Canada, where ladies can enjoy a cup of fine Japanese tea made by exports, and at the same time receive instructions which will enable them to make it equally well at home. Moro'than half the tea consumed in the United States and Canada is of Japanese growth, yet most Americana apparently lo not understand how to prepare it so as to develop its delicious qualities.
The Japanesa Government has appropriated a large fund to aid in prosecuting this educational work. The Jap anese Tea Guild has issued this official cecipe for making Japanese tea: First. - Uso a small, dry and thor oughly clean porcelain teapot.

Second. - Put in one temporal of tea leaves for each cup of tea desired. Third. - When using Japanese teas, pour on the required quantity of fresh policed water, and let stand with closed lid from two to three minutes. Never boil the leaves. In order to retain the natural flavor, Japaneso tea leaves should be kept in tight can or jar, free from moisture.

Note.—To thoroughly enjoy the natural, delicate and sweet flavor, neither sugar nor cream should be used.

The Past Week Marked by the Increased Activity in Wool, Etc. Bradstreet's Commercial Report for the past week says in part: Gereral trade is marked by the increased activity in wool, hides, iron and steel, and their manufactured products, but business in the quarantined districts renains at a standstill, and at all except few northwestern distribution centers in spring wheat Etstes, where business a relatively most active, there is a check to the demand for dry goods, hats and clothing. COLLECTORS AND DEPUTIES.

An Opinion by Assistant Attorney-General Boyd

WHICH RENDERS CIVIL SERVICE

Null and Vold, So Far as Protecting the Men Now in Office Are Con-

The Washington Star prints the following: Assistant Attorney-General Boyd is writing an opinion, which will probably receive the sanction of Attorney-General McKenna, sustaining the collectors of internal revenue and the United States marshal who have discharged a large number of deputies. The opinion is really in the case of Collector Brady, of Virginia, but will cover the cases of a number of Southern collectors of internal revenue, who have followed the precedent set by Collector

Brady.
It is said these dismissals and the attitude of the attorney have been talked over at cabinet meetings, with an agreement that the opinion of My. Boyd shall represent the views of the President and administration. It will be carefully worded, so that the spirit and letter of the civil service law will be upheld. The position to be taken by the decision is, that the tenure of office of a deputy collector or deputy marshal runs with that of the chief vho appointed it i. It will be held that the position is one of an administrative character and that no position of this kind can be considered permanent. No official of the government, it will be held, can be compelled to do anything more than is expressly required of his and it is not required that collector and marshals re-appoint the deputies of their predecessors. Mr. Boyd will/hold that the collectors and marshals can appoint whoever they please and do not have to call upon the civil service commission for an eligible list. It is held by the civil service commissioners that the collectors and marshals have to make temperary appointments if they have no eligible list, and if they have an eligible list, they must select their deputies from that.

WHEAT, CORN AND OATS.

Good General Yield of Wheat; Corn Falls Short.

The Orange Judd Farmer in its final estimate of the year's wheat crop, says that figures based on actual threshing returns indicate a total yield of 589,000, -000 bushels, of which 373,530,000 bushels is winter and 215,470,000 bushels spring wheat.

With the exception of Illinois and Missouri, the winter wheat yield represents the full capacity of the soil. The spring wheat yield in Minnesota and the Dakotas has proven a disappoint-ment, the aggregate being only 129,-090,000 bushels. The shortage there is in a measure counterbalanced by the good yield in Nebraska, Oregon and Washington. The report says the corn crop is exceedingly disappointing, at an outside estimate of 1,750,000,000 bushels. Drought during the past two months reduced the average con-dition from $2.3 a month ago to 78.9 on Miller, of South Carolina, recently applied to Eastman College for admission for his daughter, but, on account of the large number of young men from the South in the institution it was thought by President Clement C. Gaines inadvisable to give her public instruction. A letter to that effect was sent to the young woman's father, with an offer to give her private instruction. This was not agreeable to ex-Congressman Miller and he sent his daughter to a school in Brooklyn. She is very light in color and would not be suspected of having negro blood. Her father is a lawyer, is well educated and was recently chosen president of the South Carolina Negro Normal and Industrial College.

Nervous Depression of Women.

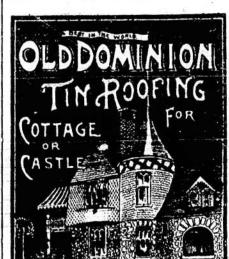

A woman will often without knowing it commit slow suicide for her family. Suo will think, toll and worry for her children. Too often they do not approviate it. Her tired nerves and weary body at last reach a stage when sho is almost powerless for any kind of mental or physical work, and she is depressed and worried over the consciousness that she is unable to perform her accustomed duties. Her organs of digestion are disordered and although there is a constant disposition to rest, wakefulness and loss of power to sleep are serious indications of nervous depression. What she needs is a course of Dr. Simmons Aquay Vine Wine to restore a healthy functional activity and give tone and vitality to her nervous system. After reaching malurity, and especially after passing through the experience of maternity most women find their health scriously damaged, if not entirely impaired. The painful and weary dragging and bearing down sensation in the back almost every woman has at times experienced. Sometimes those are from oterine displacement, but often they are simply from weakness. Women who have to bear heavy burdens, to undergo severe fatigns or to endure crushing disappointment, are subject to this and many other diseases. We cannot too strongly recommend the use of Dr. Simmons Squaw Vine Wine, the great female tonic and regulator.
