The Circus.

A report is current that the Wallace Shows advertised to be here on to-morrow week will not exhibit here. We saw a representative of the shows yesterday, who is here with advertising car No. 2, and he assures us that there is nothing in the report.

The Hicks 1898 Almanac And Paper.

We are informed that the 1898 Almanac of Prof. Irl R. Hicks is now ready, and judging from its past history, it will not be many weeks in finding its way into homes and offices all over America. It is much larger and finer than any previous issue. It contains 116 pages, is splendidly printed and illustrated on fine book paper, having the finest portrait ever given of Prof. Hicks. It can no longer be denied that the publications of Prof. Hicks have become a necessity to the family and commercial life of this country. His journal, "Word and Works," aside from its storm, weather and astronomical features, has taken rank with the best literary, scientific and family magazines of the age. Do not believe hearsay and reports. See the Hicks Almanac and paper for yourself. You will then know why they are so popular. They are educators of the millions, and unrivaled safeguards to property and human life. It is matter of simple record that Prof. Hicks has foretold for many years all great storms, floods, droughts and tornadoes, even the recent terrible drought over all the country. The Almanac alone is 25 cents a copy. The paper is $1.00 a year with the Almanac as a premium. Send to

The Great Wallace Shows

The Washington Post, one of the most conservative newspapers in the United States, did a most unusual thing in devoting an editorial to the Wallace circus, which came to Washington unknown and went away with an established reputation. In part the Post said:
"The Great Wallace Show represents all that there is of legitimate worth in the circus business. It is in charge of men who aspire to elevate the tone and purify the atmosphere of the calling, and we believe the thousands who have attended the performances during the past two days will certify they have succeeded. Not only was the performance up to the highest professional and artistic standard, the menagerie large and varied, and the trained animals of the best, but there was not in connection with the Wallace Show a single one of those discreditable and demoralizing features which have done so much to give the circus a bad name and to discourage the true friends of that otherwise wholesome form of amusement. The managers of the Wallace Show keep all their promises, advertise nothing they do not expect to give and carefully direct their performances of anything and everything calculated to offend the nicest taste. We are sure the verdict of Washington will be most favorable and that the show can return to us sure of finding genuine admirers and friends."
This big circus institution will exhibit in Camden, Sat., Nov. 13.

Sore Throat.

In a letter to Dr. Hartman, dated Dec. 27, 1896, George A. Blanchard, of Washington, G. A., writes:
"My throat had been in the habit of getting sore every year for the last twenty years, and if any medical skill did me any good it was so little I did not know it. Two years ago my wife was down sick two months, tried two doctors, but the case was a stubborn one of female trouble. I found in Pe-ru-na not only a good, safe remedy for sore throat, but one for weakness and nervous prostration. I quit the doctors and purchased a bottle of Pe-ru-na, and in three days after my wife got up and she has been going ever since, and I have not been bothered with that had sore throat. It used to last at least fifteen or twenty days. Since we have used your medicine my wife has not lost a single day, and she has gained over fifty pounds."
In a later letter, July 22d, 1897, Mr. Blanchard writes: "All of the sickness we have in the family is when we cannot get Pe-ru-na. We people in the South think Pe-ru-na is a God-sent blessing. I recommend Pe-ru-na to friends of mine that had asthma and one bottle cured them. Whenever Pe-ru-na is used it speaks loudly for itself."
Dr. Hartman, the original compiler of Pe-ru-na, has a recent book on chronic asthma which will be sent free by The Pe-ru-na Drug Co., Columbus, O.

Frost was seen in this locality yesterday morning.

The small boy is in trouble about a report concerning the circus.

A meeting of the Co. Bd. of Commissioners was held on last Monday.

A protracted meeting has been in progress this week at Beaver Dam Baptist Church conducted by Revs. T. A. Dabney and John S. Croxton.

Packages of The Chronicle which failed to reach Westville and Dekalb two weeks ago turned up the following Monday. They were already at these post offices when our informant stated the fact to us but he did not know it. As we suspected, they were mislaid by the R. R. postal clerk, as will sometimes occur.

Priest—Pat, there's a hole in the roof of the church and I am trying to collect enough money to repair it. Come, now, what will you contribute? Pat—Me services, sor. "What do you mean, Pat? You're no carpenter." "No; but if it rains next Sunday, O'll sit over the hole."

LAWYERS' CONTEST.

During the months of September and October The Chronicle will conduct a voting contest upon the most popular lawyer of the Camden Bar. The contest will be conducted in the same way as was the farmers' contest except as to the length of time—sixty instead of ninety days. For the successful lawyer we will publish for twelve months free of charge the following card:

In The Chronicle voting contest
MR.

was declared to be the most popular member of the Camden Bar.

The following is the coupon. See to it that the name of your favorite lawyer heads the list:

Lawyers' Contest.

I consider _____ Editor Chronicle _____
the most popular lawyer of the Camden Bar.

Cut out the above, write the name of your favorite lawyer on the dotted line and bring or send it to this office.

How The Vote Stands:

M. J. Smith,	1579
J. T. Hay,	1477
C. L. Wicker,	1057
W. D. Freeman,	1011
T. J. Kirkland,	967
W. M. Shannon,	918
L. A. Witherspoon,	885
B. B. Clarke,	885

Say, Look At This.

Do you want your Shoes mended? If so you should go to Jones' shoe shop and you can get them fixed cheaper than you can get them any where in town, for he has cut the price, for the next 30 days, so you had better take advantage of this. Big Shoe Shop.

Rudy's Pile Suppository

Is guaranteed to cure Piles and Constipation, or money refunded. 50 cts. per box. Send for list of testimonials and Free Sample to MARTIN RUDY, Registered Pharmacist, Lancaster, Pa. For sale by all first-class druggists everywhere, and in Camden, S. C., by Frank M. Zemp.

Advertised Letters.

For week ended Oct. 31, 1897: M. Allen, Thomas Alexander, Hattie Brown, Adam Clarke, Hettie Clarke, Arrie Davis, Kizzie Davis, Robt Dunham, Ned Goodwyn, Mrs J. H. Johnson, W. F. Owen, Maggie O'neal, Flora Robinson.
G. J. Shannon, P. M.

The Winner.

As will be seen by the vote in the lawyers' contest Mr. Mendal L. Smith is the winner by the handsome vote of 1573, a majority over the next highest, Mr. Hay, of 96. Mr. Smith is a young man of marked ability which fact is rapidly being recognized as his complimentary vote shows. Considering the ability and popularity of the other members of the Camden bar the vote received by Mr. Smith is doubly complimentary. Before him we predict lies a brilliant career.

CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED.

T. A. Slocum, M. C., the Great Chemist and Scientist, Will Send Free to the afflicted, Three Bottles of His Newly Discovered Remedies to Cure Consumption and all Lung Troubles.

Nothing could be fairer, more philanthropic or carry more joy to the afflicted than the offer of T. A. Slocum, M. C., of New York City.

Confident that he has discovered a reliable cure for consumption and all bronchial, throat and lung diseases, general decline and weakness, loss of flesh aptly, all conditions of wasting, and to make its great merits known, he will send free, three bottles to any reader of The Chronicle who may be suffering.

Already this "new scientific course of medicine" has permanently cured thousands of apparently hopeless cases.

The Doctor considers it his religious duty—a duty which he owes to humanity—to donate his infallible cure.

He has proved the dreaded consumption to be a curable disease beyond any doubt, and has on file in his American and European laboratories testimonials of experience from those benefitted and cured, in all parts of the world.

Don't delay until it is too late. Consumption, uninterrupted, means speedy and certain death. Address T. A. Slocum, M. C., 98 Pine Street, New York, and when writing the Doctor, give express and postoffice address, and please mention reading this article in The Chronicle.
