Yellow Jaundice Cured.

Suffering humanity should be supplied with every means possible for its relief. It is with pleasure we publish the following: "This is to certify that I was a terrible sufferer from Yellow Jaundice for over six months, and was treated by some of the best physicians in our city and all to no avail. Dr. Bell, our druggist, recommended Electric Bitters; and after taking two bottles, I wrs entirely cured. I now take great pleasure in recommending them to any person suffering from this terrible malady. I am gratefully yours, M. A. Hogarty, Lexington, Ky." Sold by F. Leslie Zemp, druggist.

Among the Churches.

Last Sunday morning Dr. Pate read and commented upon the rules of the Methodist Church. His remarks were pointed and practical, and we wish that every young man in the community could have heard his remarks upon profanity. None ever hear Dr. Pate without feeling that they have been benefitted.

There was no preaching in the Baptist Church last Sunday morning owing to the absence of Mr. Jamison who was in Manning. The pulpit at night was filled by Mr. Willie Mills, of the Presbyterian Church, and his friends have reason to be much gratified at the progress he is making in his chosen profession. His sermon was delivered in a most easy and interesting manner.

"If by easy work you win,
Who the more will prize you?
Gaining victory from defeat—
That's the test which tries you."

A Good Joke on Gen. Wheeler.

A special from Sibboney to the New York Journal says: 'To the splendid generalship of Gen. Joe Wheeler, as much as to any other cause, is due the repeated successes of the American forces around Santiago. The camp here is ringing with praise of Wheeler, and at the same time a good story of his words during a desperate charge last week is going the rounds. As he was leading the Seventy-first New York, Roosevelt's Rough Riders and a strong force of regulars up a high hill at San Juan, storming a large body of Spaniards, who were strongly intrenched, the attacking party began to waver under a fierce fire from Gatling guns and strong field pieces. Wheeler saw his men wavering and began shouting at the top of his voice, while the guns were roaring and small arms rattling:

"Steady, boys! Come on, now! The Yankees are giving way! Look, there they go! The Yankees are leaving their guns!" Suddenly catching himself he cried out, even more vigorously, "Damn it, I mean the Spaniards are running. Go for 'em boys!"

Despite the hail of Mauser and Springfield bullets, the rain of Shrapnel and Gatling fire, the soldiers laughed at their old generals absent minded memory of other days. But they did "go for 'em." Instantly the wavering line took on new confidence, the gap closed, and in 20 minutes San Juan was ours.

For the Factory People.

Owing to the fact that many of the Factory people cannot attend the campaign meeting in Camden and they all want to hear the candidates, it has been suggested that the candidates address them some night at the Factory, and Mr. Creed thinks that on Saturday night of the day the candidates speak in Camden will be a suitable time to go out there, and in all probability the candidates will talk to the Factory people on Saturday night, the 20th.

The Werrior Brave.

"Where are you going, Johnie?"
"I m going to the war:"
"Whom will you fight there, Johnie?"
"The same I've fought before!"

"Is it the mighty Turk, Johnie,
The Spaniard or the Greek?"
"I do not have to sail abroad
My bitter foes to seek,

"I fight them in the pasture,
I dare them in the lane;
I've cut the heads off hundreds,
Ten thousand I have slain.

"They rally in the garden
Among my rarest seeds."
"Who are there foes, brave Johnie?"
"I 'spect you'd call them weeds."

"Saved From the Horrors of Nervous Prostration" by Dr. Miles' Nervine.

A COUGH does not always indicate consumption. Mr. W. H. Palmer, of Waterloo, Iowa, writes: "I was taken with a nervous stricture of the bronchial tubes, which developed into nervous prostration. I was so weak I could not sit up. I got no sleep for days except when under the influence of opiates. For four months I suffered agonies and prayed [illegible] and be as rest. One physician said I had consumption, for I had a cough that gave me no rest. But a friend [illegible]
