The Busiest Man in Camden.

Contractor O. M. Fort is the busiest man in Camden. For the past few days he has been busily engaged in ceiling overhead in the dispensary, at the same time having a force of hands completing the hotel on the corner of Broad and DeKalb streets and has just taken the contract for building a church at the factory and a thousand dollars worth of repairs on the Young residence for Mr. Sevege.

NOTE—For the good of the church above referred to we wish to state that all the money for building it has not yet been raised and the work will progress only as the money comes in, and contributions for its erection is still solicited.—Ed.

WAS BORN IN CAMDEN.

The Dean of Princeton University Who Was Born in Camden Dead.

A press dispatch from Princeton, N. J., dated March 27th, says: "Dr. Jas. O. Murray, dean of the university, died this morning at 9 o'clock. He passed away quietly after an illness of several weeks. James Ormsbee Murray was born in Camden, S. C., Nov. 7, 1827. His father was a grandson of Philip Syng of Philadelphia, the well known associate and friend of Benjamin Franklin. Prof. Murray was graduated from Brown university in 1850 and from the Andover Theological seminary in 1854. He was pastor of the Brick church in New York city in 1865, from which in 1876 he came to Princeton as professor of English literature. He had been dean of the university since 1883."

Death of Little Leo Schenk

Leo, the interesting little son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Schenk, about four years of age, died yesterday morning about 2 o'clock of membranous croup. The little fellow was sick less than two days. His fond parents have the sympathy of the entire community.

Marked Improvement.

A very great improvement has been made in the residence near the west end of DeKalb street, recently purchased by Evans Collins. The house has been thoroughly overhauled and repaired, new tiling put around the entire place, floors, cornices, etc., making wise use of money and of comfort and attractiveness. This deserves credit for his efforts, and it is gratifying to note the success of the effort among the industrial class of our valued people.

Married.

Mr. Elton Hyatt and Miss Mollie Stokes were married on Sunday, March 19. The ceremony was performed by Notary Public R. N. Hall, of Lenkwood. The bride was of Sandy Grove and the groom was of Lenkwood.

In Memoriam of J. R. Raley.

On Oct. 9th, 1898, the dread summons came and Brother J. R. Raley was gathered to his fathers.

We, the members of Macedonia Lodge, No. 239 A. F. M., in joint assembly desiring to express our sincere regret and sympathy with the family and friends of deceased brother, do unanimously adopt the following resolutions:

Resolved 1st. That while we bow in humble submission to the will of the Most High, we deeply mourn the loss of our brother who is called from labor and affliction to rest.

Resolved 2. That in the death of Bro. J. R. Raley this Lodge loses a zealous and active member, and the community an esteemed, influential and patriotic citizen.

Resolved 3. That this Lodge tender its heartfelt sympathy to the family of our deceased brother in their sad affliction.

Resolved 4. That a blank page be left to his memory in our minute book, and that these resolutions be entered upon the minutes of this Lodge, also a copy be sent to the family of our deceased brother.

Resolved 5. That these resolutions be sent to the Chesterfield Advertiser and Camden Chronicle for publication.

J. A. Seegars, Wm. Hally, Committee. G. K. Sowell.

Bro. Raley was treasurer of Macedonia Lodge, was born in Kershaw Co., S. C., March 1, 1842. He joined Lynchwood Lodge, No. 197, was admitted to this Lodge, the 14th day of Nov. 1876. Died near the place of his birth Oct. 9th, 1898, and was buried with Masonic honors by this Lodge assisted by the Flat Creek Lodge No. 224 and Lynchwood Lodge No. 58, at Mt. Pisgah church in Kershaw Co., Oct. 11th, 1898. He was a faithful soldier during the last war, fighting for the "lost cause" in Co. F 7th S. C. Battalion. A Friend.

IN MEMORIAM OF BRO. C. C. SOWELL.

On the 28 of Sept., 1898, the All Wise Creator saw fit to remove from our midst our loved and much esteemed Bro. C. C. Sowell, and by his death added another gem to his glittering cluster of jewels and although we bow in humble submission to Divine will, we the members of Macedonia Lodge No. 239, A. F. M. take this method of expressing our sincere regret at his untimely death and deep sympathy with his bereaved family and friends.

Resolved 1. That we the members of Macedonia Lodge No. 239 A. F. M. do sincerely mourn the loss of Bro. C. C. Sowell.

Resolved 2. That in the death of Bro. C. C. Sowell, this Lodge loses a valuable member and the community at large a highly esteemed and respected citizen.

Resolved 3. That this Lodge extend its heartfelt sympathy to relatives and friends of deceased brother.

Resolved 4. That a blank page in our minute book be set apart to his memory and that these resolutions be entered in the minutes of this Lodge, also a copy be sent to the widow of our deceased Brother.

Resolved 5. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the Chesterfield Advertiser and Camden Chronicle for publication.

J. A. Seegars, Wm. Hally, Committee. G. K. Sowell.

Bro. C. C. Sowell was born in Pulaski Co. Ark., 19th of Sept. 1871. Joined the Lodge in 1896 and moved to Millwood, Ga., the latter part of 1897 and engaged in retail store business where he died Sept. 28th, 1898, and was buried with Masonic honors by the Abney Lodge at Kershaw, S. C., Sept. 29th 1898.
