Local News.

Hotel Rented.
The Russell Hotel, corner Main and DeKalb streets, has been rented by the late proprietor of the Congaree Hotel in Columbia, who will take charge of it in a few days.

Cottages Completed.
Mr. Allen Medina has just completed a beautiful set of cottages for Mr. Savage on the Hill place, just above the northern limits of the town. Their neat appearance adds much to that neighborhood.

Fine Strawberries.
Mr. G. H. Baum has a strawberry patch of about 1 of an acre from which he has sold over 300 quarts at 15 and 20 cents per quart. The berries are of a most delicate and delicious flavor—we know whereof we speak. You could not do better than buy your strawberries from Mr. Baum.

For Ice and Cold Storage.
Mr. E. E. Ma. derville has rented the Wolfe store on Main street near DeKalb and is having it neatly fixed up for an ice and cold storage store. This is a step in the right direction. Mr. Mander-ville is doing much for Camden's advancement and deserves the hearty support of the people.

Piano Tuner in Camden.
Mr. J. J. Stone, an experienced and very skillful piano tuner, is in Camden and will be here for only a few days. Old pianos and organs made over as good as new at reasonable prices. The following insinuated testimonial from Mrs. J. P. Hunter, wife of U. S. Marshall Hunter, of Lancaster, where Mr. Stone has just come from, is taken from last week's Lancaster Ledger:

I take pleasure in recommending Mr. J. J. Stone as a piano tuner, and workman along this line. He repaired my piano, and from being a G. pan, so far as musical chords are concerned, it has become quite another tune under his skillful touch. He is painstaking and I believe conscientious.
Mrs. J. P. Hunter.

Arr. 25, '99. Lancaster, S. C.
The following is from Mrs. S. L. Hughes, of our town:
This will introduce Mr. J. J. Stone, whom I cheerfully recommend as a tuner and repairer of Pianos. His work is strictly first class, and his charges most reasonable.
Sally L. Hughes,
Teacher of Music.

Camden, May 11th, 1899.
P. S.—Mr. Stone is also a vocalist of superior ability.

Some Samples of Spelling.

A Jersey City druggist is making a collection of the queer orders he receives from people who send children to the store for things. Here are a few samples of them:
"This child is my little girl. I sent you five cents to buy sitless powders for a grown up adult who is sick."
Another reads: "Dear Doctor, please give my five sense worse of Auntie Toxyne for to gargle baby's throat and oblige."
An anxious mother writes: "You will please give the little boy five cents worth of opium for to throw up in a five months old babe. N. B.—The babe has a sore summick."
"This one puzzled the druggist: 'I have a cute pain in my child's diaphragm. Please give my son something to release it.' Another anxious mother wrote:
"My little baby has cut up its father's parish plaster. Send an antedote quick as possible by the enclosed little girl."

This writer was evidently in pain; I had a hot time in my insides and which I would like it to be extinguished. What is good for to extinguish it? The enclosed quarter is for the price of the extinguisher. Hurry please.—New York Sun.

Uncle Willie, have the caps for the Kershaw Guards come—Waterloo Messenger, 5th inst.
Yes; and they are just the thing to the K. G. boys say. You will all so find some lovely—Gentlemen's Jewel Cases for ladies only. See top of column for cut and where to buy.

Our Ladies Column.

Guess what two young ladies were doing with a certain young man and his horse? They were out in a field and they had to get out of the field and they had to get out of the field and they had to get out of the field.

Guess what your man got "awful hot" when he read in the press a rumor about the boy that tied around his dog's neck when a certain girl married.

Guess what preacher was called to baptize a body and went to the wrong church and waited from 3 to 5 o'clock.

Dr. J. A. Keith, who for many years has been practicing medicine in Richland county, is expected with his family to arrive in Camden today to locate here, for the practice of his profession. He is a brother-in-law of Mr. J. F. Hay.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Kirkley, who have been on a visit to the latter's relatives near Charleston, have returned home.

Judge W. F. Russell, who with a good many others from this section went down on Tuesday evening to attend the Confederate reunion in Charleston, returned yesterday and gives a glowing account of the trip. He says the reunion was all that could be desired and words are inadequate to properly describe it.

Mr. Robin Zemp, who has been taking a pharmaceutical course in Baltimore, has returned home for the summer.

Mrs. Caldwell, mother of Mrs. A. E. Jamison, is critically ill with pneumonia.

Dear Chronicle:—I will try to scribble you a few dots from this community.

The grain crop in this community is looking very promising.

Owing to the cold Spring cotton and corn is very progressive.

Mrs. A. M. Dunn is very ill at this writing. We hope she will soon be up again.

Mr. J. M. Hall has created a corn mill near this place. He is ready to grind your corn.

Dear Chronicle:—Death has again saddened the home of one of our citizens. On the last day of April, Mr. Jesse P. Fouse, who has been for the past nine months suffering intensely with a cancer on his face, passed through the dark valley of death to meet his children and his Maker. He had been a follower of Lee's legion, undergoing such hardships incident to the Confederate soldier. His suffering is beyond description, but he bore it calmly and willingly breathing with his fast-departing breath, that he was ready to meet his God. He leaves a wife and two little babes. May she, who was his guardian angel in his sickness, be blessed temporally and spiritually.

At a meeting of Camp M. C. Butler, U. C. V., a few days ago, Messrs. T. J. Campbell and Gabriel Dennis were elected to represent that Camp at the Reunion. The camp is the recipient of a handsome flag, to be presented to them by Gen. Butler. The camp receives the flag on the 9th inst. at the State House.

The farmers are crying out "Dry times!" now. Some are chopping cotton. I hope to give you a few Remond dots of my return from the city by the sea.

The Sumter Union of the Santee Association met with Antioch Baptist Church, Friday night the 25th ult., confining until Sunday. The program was very interesting and the Union was decidedly the best we have ever had. Among the many visitors with us during the Union we were glad to have Rev. and Mrs. A. T. Jamison and their sweet little daughter, Sarah, of Camden, Rev. John H. Graves, pastor of the Southville circuit, and Rev. R. T. Marsh of the Bishopville Baptist Church. The Union will meet with Pisgah on Friday night before the next 4th Sunday.

Respectfully,
W. Geisenheimer,
Proprietor.

To My Patrons & Friends:
This is the beginning of another season with cotton at 4 and 5 cents per pound. This means cheap goods or no sale. I have got the goods and they have got to be sold and as I have always said I never allow any one to undersell me, the money is what I want and that I am going to have if you come in my store. I have a big stock as usual, fresh and nice; never have and old stale stock.
FRESH GOODS

coming in every day. I went in business in 1891 when cotton was about the same price it is now and I am still here doing my share; some predicted that I would not pull through that season. Low priced cotton don't frighten me. I have gone through a hotter battle than this. I sold my goods for such small profits, I find that it pays to make small profits and quick sales. I have kept it up and I don't want to change it. I will say to those who have stores in the country to come in I will divide the profits with you as I have always done. Some business houses may tell you they carry a larger stock than I do; you can say to them you get more for a dollar than you get from them, it make but little difference to you how much stock they carry. What you want is all you can get for your money. I am satisfied with the past and I know I will be with the future for I am working just as hard for your trade as I ever did. Come in you will find me at the same place.
AT HINSON'S

Yours Respectfully,
D. E. HINSON.
