If the man didn't know he wouldn't inspire the respect he does.

Keep to the right when riding or driving on a put-in highway. That is the law in South Carolina, and the penalty for violating it is a fine of ten dollars.

At one West last week Dr. Tidmarsh's first warning to the young men graduates was followed in multiplicity of occupations. An astrologer says a man can do only one thing well.

In view of rumors and reports of smallpox in various sections of the State, the State Hospital for the insane will require a recent successful vaccination of all patients before admission.

Thirty-Five Thousand Volunteers Needed.

A special to The Tribune from Washington says: As a result of a conference between the president and Secretary Alger, it has been decided to begin the enrollment of volunteers for two years service in the Philippines. It is proposed to arm an regiment, three brigades, or about 10,000 men, and then to continue the work until there will be 35,000 according to the law.

These will be sent directly upon the States. The regiments will be organized as United States volunteers. Officers will be appointed by the president, and assigned to regiments without regard to State lines.

In the enlistments for the United States volunteers, veterans of the late war, including those who did not get beyond the home camp, but were seasoned, will be given the preference, and the same will be true of the olders.

A brigadier general for every three regiments and a major general for each division of three brigades will be appointed. They will be part regular and part volunteers, and Gen. Joe Wheeler will be among the number.

Tillman's Letter.

There is quite a variety of views as to Tillman's letter to the penitentiary investigating committee. That is natural, for Tillman himself is very variously regarded by the people of South Carolina. Some are ready and anxious to believe on any evidence or no evidence at all that he is guilty of every sin in the catalogue and has broken each command of the decalogue. Others go far in the opposite direction and would not believe aught against Senator Tillman, no matter what the proof. Both classes are extremists and neither could be convinced against their will. But those who are interested will consider Senator Tillman's letter to the investigating committee as disposing of the reflections against him inferred from the testimony taken by the committee. Of course, A. B. Williams and other striking howlers against Tillman will continue to try and make political capital out of these reflections. That will be in keeping with the blind and fatuous way in which they have before fought him, often strengthening instead of weakening him.

Bolted down to a nutshell, the whole matter of the penitentiary investigation, as far as it refers to Tillman, amounts to this: W. A. Neal, who was Tillman's warm personal as well as political friend, did several small favors for him and made him a present or two. The entire cash value of these favors, extending over a number of years would be inconceivable. Tillman supposed, and there is no reason why he should not have supposed, that Neal paid for such of these things as had value. He did not, the fault is his, not Tillman's. The eagerness of the limit for political capital against Tillman is so apparent that it will defeat itself—Columbus Record.
