Sunday School Convention.

To the Sunday Schools and Christian workers of Waterloo Township:—Dear Friends:—The Waterloo Township Interdenominational Sunday School Convention meets with St. Paul Methodist Episcopal Church South the 27th and 28th inst. The committee has made up the program, copies of which will likely be sent to all the schools, and you are requested to contribute as largely as possible toward the success of this convention.

We, Presbyterians, Baptists, Methodists, etc., come together as Christian workers, laying aside all lines of denominational discrimination, to consider the importance of Sunday School work, and how we can accomplish the most good in this institution. Let the pastors, superintendents and teachers together with other representatives, attend as far as possible. There are some churches that have no Sunday schools in organized working condition. Let such churches send some of their most earnest and consecrated workers. Perhaps it is possible that reorganization in such places would be brought with an increased interest in Christian work and much good to the church.

Let me suggest that Sunday school secretaries furnish full and accurate reports of their respective schools; and that all persons attending this convention be present at the opening services.

Yours in Christian work,
J. E. Strickland,

A Very Sad Death.

The angel of death entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Dabney, Monday night, Oct. 1st and laid its hand on their bright and promising son, Mr. Lee, aged about 20 years. He had only been sick for a few days and his death was very unexpected and falls heavily upon his loved ones of that once happy home. He was a young and active young man, a brother and pleasant companion, and will be greatly missed in our midst. For some time he had been employed at the Workers' Hotel and had gained many friends in Camden who regret very much to learn of his sudden death. All we do is that loving hands could do to remove him to his home, but all to no effect. He had to go forth and answer to the call of his dear Lord, and as we feel assured that he is at rest, let us ask the Lord to comfort and comfort the broken hearted ones to whom we extend our deepest sympathies.

Learn more about this home in great detail and see what is offered. Details will be given.
