

Wanted.
A position as nursery governess or companion for lady by a young lady of refinement. References given. Address Miss "M. W." care of The Chronicle.

His Body Found.
The body of Willie Kelly, the negro boy who was drowned on the Mulberry plantation during the last high freshet was found a few days afterwards about fifteen feet from where the boat overturned. His body was hanging by the side of a huge oak tree and his hand was still firmly grasped to a limb, he having drowned in that position.

Advertised Letters.
The following is a list of letters remaining unclaimed for in the Camden post office for week ending April 27, 1901:
Male—Carey Ballot, E. W. Mickler, Belton Reed, D. Poultney, Geo. D. Rodgers, J. S. Strickland, Joe White, Willie Strong, O. Adams, 2.
Female—Jane Auther, Elzbie Anderson, Hattie Hanard, Lullie Sarie, Annie Perkins.
Parties calling for these letters will please state what week they were advertised.
G. G. ALEXANDER, P. M.

Personal.
Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Gardner, of Ashland, S. C., spent Tuesday in the city.
The many friends of Mr. John C. Man will be glad to learn that he is better.
Mrs. J. T. Nettles is on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. W. B. Houston at Petersburg, Fla.
Mrs. J. S. Rhams, who has been visiting in Charlotte for several weeks returned home Tuesday.
Mr. Jordan Garrison who now holds a position as a traveling salesman, is spending a few days at home.
Mr. John T. Nettles, Jr., has gone to Macon, Ga., where he will take a course in the Ga.-Ala. Business college at that place.
Misses Jessie McLandham, of Pennsylvania, and Louise Allen, of Staunton, Va., are visiting Mr. P. T. Villepigue's family.
Mr. Donald Alexander, who now holds a fine position in the Navy Yard at Portsmouth, Va., is at home for a few days. His many friends are glad to see him.
Mr. J. M. Daniel, Jr., who for some time has had charge of the Camden Steam Laundry will leave next week for Greenwood. Mr. Daniel is a thoroughly good laundryman and we regret to see him leave.
The Chronicle office received a most pleasant call one day this week from Mr. A. N. Lisety, manager of the Schenectady, N. Y. Daily Gazette, who is spending a few days in our city, at the Inn. Mr. Lisety is one of those brethren of the fourth estate whom it is a pleasure to come in contact with. We wish him a pleasant time among us and trust he will be so impressed with our city as not to let this be his last trip here.

Deaths.
Mr. W. A. Childs, who married Miss Pearl Fort, and resided at Butler, Ga., died one day this week. Deceased was a brother-in-law of Mrs. Beulah McDowell and leaves two children, both boys, the youngest of whom is about three years of age.
Mrs. Mary Ross, wife of Mr. Jno. T. Ross, of West Wateree, died very suddenly Sunday afternoon last about 5 o'clock. Mr. Ross was sitting chatting pleasantly with her family, and getting up, said she had a severe pain in her throat and died immediately. She was 57 years of age and leaves a husband and four children—three daughters and one son. The funeral was held at Union church Tuesday at 11 o'clock and the interment at the old family burying ground. She has a host of friends to mourn her death.
Mr. James Love, father-in-law of Mr. Wiley Sheorn, died in Monroe, N. C., yesterday morning about 1 o'clock at the advanced age of 89 years. Mr. Love's body was brought immediately to Camden over the S. C. & G. Ex. railroad and interred in the Camden cemetery yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock. The remains were accompanied by two of Mr. Love's grandsons. Deceased was kind-hearted and generous to a fault, and in this county and town where many years of his life were spent he has scores of friends who will learn with sincere sadness of his death.
Mrs. Heyman, mother of Mrs. Leo Schenk, of our city, died in Savannah, Ga., on Monday last. Of Mrs. Heyman's death the Chester Reporter of this week says: "Mr. Saling Heyman received a telegram Monday announcing the death in Savannah, that day, of Mrs. Pauline Heyman, wife of Mr. Isaac Heyman, after a critical illness of several weeks, and that Mrs. Heyman was well known in Chester, having resided here for a number of years, and was highly esteemed for her generous disposition and her many deeds of kindness. The family moved to Florida about 1883; from there to Georgia in the autumn of last year. A married daughter and the others of the family live in Savannah; a married daughter in Camden."

Found—A Key.
A folding key was found near the graded school building a few days ago. Owner can get it by calling at this office.

It Was Not Reese.
Mr. W. H. Newbold came home yesterday evening. He says that the man he went to Oxford, Miss., to identify as M. R. Reese, the murderer who escaped from the York jail, bears no resemblance to Reese.—Chester Lantern.

The Kershaw Guards.
The Kershaw Guards have been invited to attend the memorial exercises at the Camden cemetery in the city. This they expect to do, and it will add much to the occasion for their presence there will be a great inspiration to the meeting.

18 Pounds Granulated Sugar for $1.
Messrs. S. N. Sowell & Co. are going to have two more big bargain days—next Monday and Tuesday. Among a great many other bargains he is offering for those days is this one—18 pounds of granulated sugar for one dollar. Read the long list of bargains he gives in another column of The Chronicle to-day and see what great ones they are.

A Bridge Gone.
The road leading south from Camden has been impassable since the recent high water, owing to the collapse of the bridge spanning Pine Tree creek just below town. The piling washed so badly that it caused the bridge to give way in the center. None of the material left, however, but the bridge will have to be entirely rebuilt. This is a great inconvenience to people living in that direction. Supervisor Phelps states that it will be ready for travel in a few days.

Memorial Services May 14, Instead of May 10.
In account of the Re-union at Columbia, S. C., the Ladies Memorial Association will have the Memorial Celebration at the cemetery Tuesday, May 14th, instead of the 10th. The address will be delivered by that tried and true Confederate, Rev. W. B. Gordon. The veterans, sons of veterans and daughters of the Confederacy are cordially invited to join the procession at the gate of the cemetery at 6 p. m.

The World's Greatest Baritone.
Campanari, the world's greatest baritone, will be in Columbia next week. Three artistic concerts will be given—Monday evening, May 6; Tuesday afternoon, May 7th, and Tuesday evening, May 7th. There will be a grand chorus of two hundred voices, superb orchestra of fifty musicians, and a host of eminent soloists from the Metropolitan Opera House; New York. Excursions on all the railroads. Season tickets for two persons, $5.00; for one person, $3.00; single ticket, $1.50. For sale at Whitaker's Book Store and News Stand.

A Beautiful Wedding.
The marriage of Miss Rosa Goldin Truesdale to Mr. Edgar Lee McCalm at the residence of Mr. Henry Truesdale, father of the bride, on Tuesday evening, the 30th inst., was a pleasant event.
The guests on assembling were ushered into a spacious parlor which was beautifully decorated with evergreens and flowers. A wedding ball of pretty design was suspended near one end.
The prospective bride and groom preceded by Miss Essie Smith, maid of honor, and Mr. Bashford, best man, marched in by the strains of the wedding march, rendered by Miss Daisy Truesdale at the piano, accompanied by Mr. Eddie Truesdale, violinist, and Ernest Truesdale, trombone. Taking a position immediately under the bell, facing the minister, Rev. Sbara W. Henry brother of the groom, who in a very impressive manner made two hearty ones. The bride, always pretty, surpassed herself with her bewitching smile and charm of manner. They were the recipients of many handsome and useful presents. After receiving the congratulations of friends, all present were invited to take part in discussing the merits of a beautiful spread. Supper being over the young folks retired, some to the parlor to enjoy the delightful and soul stirring music, others, and one couple in particular, was at last discovered out in the moonlight in their favorite trysting place and could not be induced to come in.

Will Return to Richmond.
All who know Mr. A. W. Butler, we are sure will unite with The Chronicle in sincere regret to learn that he is going to leave Camden. He will return to his old home in Richmond, Va. During Mr. Butler's stay here he has made many good friends who with great reluctance see go.

Almost a Fire.
A lamp was overturned in the residence of Mr. P. T. Villepigue one night this week, which, had it not been for the remarkable presence of mind of Mr. Villepigue, would have resulted seriously. The oil had ignited and the flames were spreading rapidly when Mr. Villepigue with remarkable coolness and presence of mind quickly secured several comforts and smothered the fire out, thus preventing what might have been a serious conflagration.
