SOMETHING NEW

Is Wall Paper at J. R. Goodale & Son's. 500 beautiful designs to select from.

Fresh Oysters every day at W. T. Hammond's restaurant. Served in any way desired—fried, stewed or raw.

Don't fail to read the new advertisement of the Gilt Edge Store. It may mean a loss of a good many dollars to you if you do not read it—they have something of interest for both the ladies and gentlemen.

Who is Carlisle? The Columbia State of Wednesday says: "C. M. L. Carlisle, of Camden, spent yesterday in the city on business." Capt. M. L. Smith of our town was in Columbia one day this week and we presume the State got him mixed up with one of Columbia's good pastors.

Go to Jenkins Bros. Capers new building for everything in the sporting goods line, such as bicycles, guns, ammunition and athletic goods.

Repair work of all kinds, such as bicycles, engines and general machinery promptly attended to.

Sanitary plumbing and steam fittings a specialty.

Pianos and piano music of the latest edition reprinted and carried.

Only One Performance.

The laws of North Carolina prohibit the running of freight trains in that State after 6 o'clock on Sunday morning. On this account Rakes's train which is to be here Nov. 2nd, will give but one performance at 7 p. m. Their next point after leaving Camden will be Wilmington, N. C., and in order to reach there before 6 o'clock Sunday morning they will have to leave here immediately after the afternoon performance, therefore the public is requested to bear in mind that there will be only one performance at 7 p. m.

Mr. D. G. Zeigler.

Mr. D. G. Zeigler, of Sumter, is the architect who drew the plans and specifications for remodeling the Foyette hall which work is now in progress. Mr. Zeigler was in Camden this week and expects to be here a good deal in the near future. He is an architect of much experience and well-known ability. Speaking of him Mr. Isaac Schwartz, of Sumter, says: "I have known Mr. Zeigler for many years and he is one of the best architects in the South. He is a man of high character and ability and his work is of the highest quality. He is a man who is always ready to help his fellow men and who is always ready to do his duty to his country."

Personal.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. A. C. Watts is quite sick again.

Col. W. D. Truett was absent from Camden a day or two last week on professional business at Lucknow and Sumter.

Mr. S. O. Williams, brother of Mrs. B. H. Baum, was in Camden this week. Mr. Williams is with the Freight Drug Co., of St. Louis.

B. Clarke of the Camden in the city yesterday in regard to an injunction brought by the State against the Camden & Lowrance, to prevent certain parties at Blaney from trespassing on their property.—State, 22nd.

John Jenkins, of our town, will leave next Tuesday for Charleston to attend the marriage of his brother Mr. Edward Jenkins, of Sumter, to Miss Bertie Sanders. The marriage will take place on Wednesday, the 30th, at 12 M.

Mr. J. W. Griffith who graded the roadbed for the spur from the main line of the S. A. L. to the freight depot and also did some grading at the passenger depot was in Camden this week. He came to bid on the work to be done by the county and town on the public road near the river bridge.

Mr. H. E. Edwards, agent at the S. A. L. freight depot here will about Nov. 1st leave for Winder, Ga., to accept a position on the G. C. & N. division of the Seaboard. Mr. Edwards has made one of the best agents who have ever served the people of this place and it is with sincere regret that we see him leave.

Mrs. Minnie Rawlinson, of Rock Hill, nee Barnes, who formerly resided here, came down to attend the marriage of Miss Mary Vaughn and Mr. Hyton Bruce. Mrs. Emma Bronson, of Florence, aunt of the bride, and Miss Katie Hicks, of Darlington, cousin of the groom, were also in attendance upon the marriage.

We received a pleasant call on Wednesday evening from Mr. "Mac" Adams, agent of the Herald Square Printing Co. Before engaging in his present business "Mac" served as a correspondent in Cuba for the New York and Bridgeport Herald.

He talked interestingly of his experiences while serving in the army and he would not take the world for it, but U. S. money was not money enough to him to have that experience.

Lee County

It looks now as if Lee county will be formed, the election returns showing a large majority in favor of it. The following is the last report sent out: Sumter, 604 for 230 against; Darlington, 178 for 76 against; Kershaw 85 for and 13 against.

Mr. Jas. B. Kirkley to Marry. Mr. J. R. Kirkley who for several years clerked at the Gilt Edge Store is to be married on the 29th inst. to Miss Abbie Evans Mackay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Mackay, of Orangeburg. The ceremony will take place at St. Paul's Methodist church of that city. Mr. Kirkley is engaged in business at Smithville.

Mr. Hinson Sells His Stores. Mr. D. E. Hinson has sold to Mr. S. Libman the two new stores which he was erecting on the lot recently purchased by him from the city. The deal was affected on Wednesday and Mr. Libman who expected to go to New York, it is said, will open up in these stores a stock of dry goods and clothing.

A Beautiful Home Wedding.

On last Wednesday evening, Oct. 23rd, Mr. T. Benton Bruce led to the matrimonial altar, Miss Mary Elizabeth, only daughter of our esteemed business man, Mr. O. C. Vaughan. The home of the bride's father where the marriage was solemnized, presented a gay and happy scene. The rooms were beautifully decorated with the trailing vines of our native forest, and a profusion of cut flowers added brilliancy to the occasion. Miss Edith Reeves, of Summerville, presided gracefully at the organ, and to the soft strains of the time-honored wedding march the bridal party entered. Miss Louise Sheorn as maid of honor, with Mr. J. W. Hicks, of Hartsville, as best man. Miss Sheorn was beautifully dressed in white organdie with satin trimmings, bouquet of white roses. The bride entered on the arm of the groom. She was elegantly dressed in white silk veil and orange blossoms. Rev. A. T. Jamison, so well known and loved in Camden, united them in the beautiful, impressive ceremony of the Church of England.

The many friends that thronged the room and the handsome array of presents attest the popularity of the young people. We trust that the bright October day with its balmy breezes and bonnie skies may be emblematical of a life of joy and sunshine, and a happiness that is founded upon a rock—the rock of purest affection, profoundest esteem.

Map of Presbytery.

At the recent meeting of Harney Presbytery Rev. W. H. Mill presented a map of the Presbytery showing the unoccupied territory the location and grouping of the churches. He was thanked for the labor bestowed on the map and requested to enlarge it, color the line and location of churches and have it to refer to at future meetings.

Sadness in Bishopville.

A special from Bishopville to the Columbia State, dated Oct. 22, says: "One of the saddest events that has occurred here in many years was the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Rivers Wilson, the wife of Rev. A. P. Wilson. She was the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Over Durant. The funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon in the Methodist church by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Walker, assisted by the Rev. W. A. Gregg of the Presbyterian church and Rev. Mr. Phillips of the Baptist church. "Lizzie," as she was familiarly known, was one of the most popular and lovely young ladies in this community. She was a bride of only one year and three days and was in the 26th year. Her untimely death has cast a gloom over the community and she leaves a large circle of friends to deplore her loss."

Arrested for Stealing an Ox.

Jack Robinson, colored, was arrested in Camden last Monday by Sheriff Truett for attempting to sell a stolen ox. Robinson carried the ox to Mr. Latham's stable and offered it for sale for $25. He dropped his price to $20, then $15 and finally agreed to take $12.50. He told such conflicting stories, suspicion was aroused and he was arrested and lodged in jail. He was closely followed by the owner of the ox who identified it and carried it back home. The ox was stolen from one Wages just across the county line in Richland. Robinson remained in jail here until an officer from Richland county came and took him to Columbia.

Advertised Letters.

The following is a list of letters remaining unclaimed for in the Camden post office for the week ending Oct. 6th:

SHORT LOCALS.

The Camden Band is making arrangements to employ an instructor. If the arrangements are satisfactory he will arrive in a few days.

Cards have been issued announcing the marriage on the 6th of November, of Miss Daisy Truesdell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Truesdell, to Mr. Kershaw Lang.

Married on the 17th inst., at Bethany church, Miss Dora King, daughter of Mr. G. B. King, of Miller's Ferry, to Mr. Bud King, of Chesterfield county. Rev. J. R. Copeland, officiating.

We were glad to hear Mayor McCreight say on Monday last that there was a possibility of having transparent faces put on the city clock. We trust this possibility will become a reality. The time could be told them at night as well as in day time.

Rev. J. L. Stokes preached a highly interesting sermon to a large congregation last Sunday morning. After the sermon a collection for conference claims was taken up. The singing was beautiful. The audience was delighted with the solo by Miss Luella Alexander.

The Famous Gilt Edge Store ALL O. K. FOR THE WINTER TRADE! The chilling winds and frosty mornings remind us that Winter is fast approaching, and what to do that we may be made more comfortable during this time, which is inevitable, is the absorbing question with us. The Gilt Edge Store takes pleasure in informing its friends and the public generally that it is fully prepared to meet the demands of the times, as well as to furnish an antidote for the "hard times." 'Tis true that the crops are short and consequently money is scarce, but why should that prevent us from supplying our wants when we can do so at such a small cost? See our goods and get our prices, and you will be convinced that to trade at the Gilt Edge Store will increase the purchasing power of your money beyond your expectation.

We beg to call special attention to our line of Shirt Waists, which for beauty, style and cheapness cannot be surpassed. The only thing to do when such and such an article is advertised at such and such a price, and you are more or less dubious as to the quality in relation to the cost, is to make a personal examination and see for yourself. Hence we invite critical inspection of the shirt waists we offer at the very reasonable prices of from 50c to $2.25. We are displaying also a superb line of Shirt Waist Materials in French Twill Flannels, in black, white, cream and colors, Embroidered Flannels, Silk bordered Flannel, Satin Prunella, etc, which you will find pretty, stylish and cheap. In Outing Clothes and Clothing—wool, silk, cotton, we have some rich to kid, long wearing and beautiful patterns, some plain ones, all worthy your very careful attention. Better attend early, though—others have the same hint, and "first come, first served" of course. Plenty for all, however, if you don't wait too long. See our Broad cloths, Venetians, Whip cords, Henriettas, Serges, French Twilled Flannels, etc., etc. all of which we can show you in black and colors; and the ladies tell us they are cheap enough. Our extensive line of Wraps both for Ladies and Children (consisting of Jackets in all the prevailing styles, Capes in abundance, Reefers for Misses and Children, Coats, etc.) is complete, and you will confer a favor upon us, and do yourself justice by inspecting our stock before placing your orders. We also have a nice line of Misses Suits in brown and blue serge—beautifully made, etc., and would be pleased to quote you prices on same. To those who wish to be relieved of the trouble of making their suits, we are glad to say that we are well provided with Tailor Made Suits, Skirts, etc., which are made of up-to-date materials, perfect in fit and finish, and surprisingly cheap. Just think of it—a Tailor made Suit for $1.50 and from that price up to $11.50. All who are interested in Mens and Boys Clothing, Overcoats, etc., would do well to give us a call as we are prepared to save them money on their purchases. Examine our stock and get our prices, and we guarantee that you will find it to your advantage to place your orders with us. Don't forget that we carry a nice assortment of shoes, and can get you the "youngest child to the oldest lady or gentleman in the county." Be sure to ask to see our ONE DOLLAR BOGGAN. The best shoe ever offered for the money. Our Stock of House Furnishing goods was never more complete, and when in need of anything in Blankets, Comforts, Drapery, Art Rugs, Mattings, etc., you would find it greatly to your advantage to call on our line. Remember that we will not be outdone in our efforts to fail to meet legitimate competition. Thanking you for past favors, and with the assurance that our deliver is continued to meet your needs, we are, Dear Sirs,
